I am glad to know that the current edition of the News Bulletin of Dispur College is going to be published. The bulletin is the most representative publication which would shed light on all the relevant activities of the college. Cumulative support of each and every member of the college has made it possible. I am sure that their sincere efforts would make the news bulletin worthy and also provide necessary feedback.

My best wishes to all.

Editorial

The present edition of the News Bulletin is published late due to some official engagement of the editor for which I seek excuse from all concerned. A bulletin generally highlights the specialities of the institutions and other specific aspects of the students as well as faculties. In imparting information and facilitating communication news bulletin keep college informed and can serve a variety of purposes, from inspiring students and faculties about community resources. I hope this edition of the bulletin will sprinkle multifaceted flavours in every arena of our institution.
