Moving from brief appearances in films like Rakta Charitra, Raavan, and Chennai Express, she's now transitioned to playing impactful roles in blockbusters like Jawaan, Maidan, Article 370 and the critically acclaimed web series The Family Man. It feels great to connect with a wider audience says the National Award-winning actress. "I consider myself fortunate to be doing good work. My Hindi projects are being received well, and there are several inquiries about casting me," the actress says.

Bollywood actor Shilpa Shetty recently visited her hometown, Mangaluru, along with her children, Viaan and Samisha, and her mom. The trip was to introduce them to "my cultural heritage".
"Tulunadu da Ponnu, back to my roots. Introducing my children to my cultural heritage. Attended the Nagamandala and the traditional Kodamantaya Daiva Kola in Mangaluru. My kids were awestruck and no matter how many times I see it, it always fascinates me to see the power and faith followed with such devotion (sic)," she wrote on Instagram.

She also shared a video that documented her entire experience.

Bengalureans shop for ACs

Devika V Menon

With Bengaluru witnessing its worst summer yet, it is hardly a surprise to note that the city is also witnessing a steep hike in the sale of air conditioners and air coolers.

Bengaluru's temperature was 38.5 degrees Celsius on April 28, the highest in the last 8 years

Sale of air conditioners have gone up in Bengaluru

Never thought of having an AC in Bengaluru in my lifetime @disastrousage

Fact that a lot of us went from not needing an AC to buying/renting one is blowing my mind @L_Udita

This is the first time we are seeing such a demand for ACs in Bengaluru. Now, there is a waiting period of 3-4 days
- Pradeep Raj, sales executive, Indiranagar

Did You Know?

Nail polish originated in China as early as 3000 BC

In ancient China, nail polish was worn by rulers as a symbol of their wealth and power. During the Ming dynasty, nail polish was made from a mixture that included beeswax, egg whites, gelatin and vegetable dyes.

POV

The power of the folded hands

Amir Khan recently spoke of how he became aware of the power of the folded hands while shooting for Dangal in Punjab. He was not talking about the folded hand emoji which was introduced in 2015 – first as a cultural nod to the Japanese and now, an essential part of our virtual communication. But the Namaste – the one gesture of greeting which we share with some of our neighbours and cousins in the continent.

The Namaste in fact goes beyond our religious identity. When the Maharaja of India's desi airline welcomed the world to the 'palace in the sky', he did so with folded hands. When global pop stars come to India and greet their fans, they do so with a warm "Namaste!" When Diljit Dosanjh gets teary-eyed at a packed stadium in Mumbai or Vancouver, he expresses his gratitude with his signature Namaste.

But the power of the Namaste is truly felt every time we are faced with a pandemic, a global health crisis. During COVID, world leaders embraced the Namaste as the universal greeting, irrespective of the cultural backgrounds. It turned into a diplomatic ice breaker, even a way of saying that I want you to be safe. The greeting made a smashing debut at the Oval office in 2020, when President Donald Trump met Ireland Prime Minister Leo Varadkar. Trump later said: "We didn't shake hands today and we looked at each other and said what are we going to do? Sort of a weird feeling. We did this (joined hands). I just got back from India and I didn't shake any hands there. It was easy." Even during the swine flu outbreak in 2015, health experts believed the de facto greeting of shaking hands may have triggered the spread of the disease, urging everyone to do the Namaste instead.

Amir spoke of how he may not have folded his hands as frequently as the others he has met in his professional life. But it is obvious, he could not remain immune to its infectious charm. Shall we say, this is one contagion we could have more of?

HOW TO PLAY

- A number may appear just once in each row or column. Eliminate repeat numbers by darkening cells. (see example)
- Darkened cells must never be adjacent in a row or column.
- Unmarked cells must create a single continuous area, undivided by darkened cells.
- Every time you darken a cell, you can automatically circle its vertical and horizontal neighbours, which means they cannot be eliminated.
- Any cell "sandwiched" between neighbours of the same value can be circled. (e.g. 6 4 6)
- A "triple" is a special case of sandwich. Circle the centre cells, and darken the ends. (e.g. 6 6 6)

2	7	2	3	2	6	4	8
4	5	2	8	4	9	3	6
9	8	1	5	2	3	2	1

HOW TO PLAY

- Connect adjacent dots with vertical or horizontal lines, creating a single loop (Fig A).
- Crossovers or branches are not allowed (As shown by dotted lines in Fig B).
- Numbers in the puzzle indicate the number of lines that should surround it, while empty cells may be surrounded by any number of lines.
- You can't draw lines around zeroes.
- Each puzzle has just one unique solution.

HOW TO BEGIN:

Example (Fig A): Begin with the zero next to 3. Since no lines can be drawn around zero, mark crosses around it, as shown. Now there is a cross in one space around 3. So we know the three lines of 3 can only be drawn in the remaining three spaces. Next, these lines can only be extended in one direction each. Continue, using the same logic.

Hints: Keep eliminating possibilities by marking crosses in spaces between dots where a line isn't possible, i.e., if you have already completed required lines or where a line extension may create a branch or cause a deadend (Fig B).

Mohanlal's sweet wish for Suchitra on their 36th anniversary

Superstar Mohanlal and his wife Suchitra, recently celebrated their 36th wedding anniversary, surrounded by close friends and family. The actor took to social media to share a sweet message for his wife. "Happy Anniversary, my love! Cheers to many more years of love and happiness," he captioned the post. Last year, the duo celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary in Japan.

Dulquer Salmaan is all hearts for Mammooty's new cowboy look

Bramayugam actor Mammooty's recent post on Instagram, with him donning a stylish avatar in a ponytail and cowboy hat, garnered a lot of attention, with people commenting on how he keeps defying age. 'I want to do an out-and-out grey role'

I want to play a role like what Ramya Krishnan did in Padayappa where she's at par with the hero. I think negative characters would suit me

With exciting pan-Indian projects like Quotation Gang, the third season of Family Man, and a few untitled Telugu films in the pipeline, her future looks bright. However, the actress intends to keep pushing the envelope. "I want to do an out-and-out grey role... something like what Ramya Krishnan did in Padayappa where she's at par with the hero. I think negative characters would suit me," she says. Priya Mani feels that the south Indian film industry is creating fantastic content lately and receiving its due recognition on national and international platforms. "This craze for south films should never stop. I am proud of the south industry on the whole," she says.

On the personal front, Priya Mani married Mustafa Raj, an event organiser, in a private ceremony on August 23, 2017. Although the couple enjoys a beautiful marriage, there has been a considerable amount of trolling as they belong to different religions. Does the trolling affect her in any way? "I pay no heed to what the trolls say. What they say just goes in one ear and out the other. I believe that is the best way to tackle them," the actor firmly states. When she's not shooting, Priya Mani enjoys to "do nothing" and unwind in comfy clothes. "I watch television or meet with some friends for coffee or dinner. I enjoy trying different kinds of Chinese and Thai food," she concludes.

I'm not a part of Happy Patel, says Imran Khan

The actor reacts to reports about his Bollywood comeback with an Aamir Khan production

Onkar Kulkarni

Recent reports doing the rounds suggested that Imran Khan is all set to make his comeback with the comedy Happy Patel, which is being produced by his mamu Aamir Khan and directed by Vir Das. Incidentally, Aamir had backed Imran's debut film Jaane Tu... Ya Jaane Na in 2008.

However, when we reached out to Imran, he denied the news of his comeback film. He told us, "It's not true. Vir Das is directing and starring in Happy Patel. I'm not in the film. They have just used a photograph of me as part of an in-film joke."

The Delhi Belly actor is surprised with the constant speculations around his comeback. "I have never stopped being amazed at how these stories get blown out of context," he said.
