RELIEF FOR GLOBAL AUTOMAKERS

15% duty likely for existing EV investments too

Cut-off date, investment breakup may be finalised on a case-by-case basis

MUKESH JAGOTA & ROHIT VAID
New Delhi, May 17

GLOBAL AUTOMAKERS ARE likely to get relief as the government may consider existing investments in electric vehicle (EV) manufacturing for import concessions. Under the new EV policy, these companies may qualify for a lower import duty of 15% for a three-year period.

However, officials said the decision would be taken on a case-by-case basis after the companies concerned submit their plans, show investment break-up and flow. For instance, Vinfast, a Vietnamese EV manufacturer, had announced in January its plans to invest $500 million in India over a span of five years. But the EV policy allowing concessional imports was announced later in March and hasn't been operationalised yet. In this case, the company can avail the benefits though it started making investments before the policy was announced and operationlised, said the officials.

"Even companies who had begun investing in EV factories before the policy was notified would be eligible for incentives under the policy. It is not that they would have invested much so far. Whatever they invest theoretically is legit," officials said.

Similarly, several existing auto firms have announced huge capex for several years. They can divert part of it towards EVs to avail the benefits of this policy. "How much they have invested, till when and by what time-frame the balance amount needs to be invested will be assessed on a case-by-case basis," officials said.

Existing multinational companies like BMW, Volkswagen Group, Mercedes Benz, along with Korean manufacturers like Hyundai and Kia, and some domestic players, had raised the issue with the government about their earlier investments in the EV space, urging that that these should be counted retrospectively.

HC sets aside arbitral order against SpiceJet

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, May 17

IN A RELIEF for cash-strapped SpiceJet, the Delhi High Court on Friday overturned an arbitral award in favour of Kalanithi Maran. A single judge bench had upheld an arbitral award asking SpiceJet and its promoter Ajay Singh to refund ₹579 crore plus interest to Maran. A bench of Justices Yashwant Varma and Ravinder Dudeja allowed the appeals filed by Singh and SpiceJet challenging the single judge bench's July 31, 2023, order.

The development had a positive impact on SpiceJet shares, which closed up 5.46% at ₹63 on the BSE.

The division bench had earlier refused to stay the single judge's order and had asked Maran and his company Kal Airways to respond to the appeal. SpiceJet and Singh's counsel had earlier argued that the challenge was on the issue of 18% interest, which the tribunal had directed the carrier to pay.

The single judge had upheld the award announced by the arbitral tribunal on July 20, 2018, in favour of Maran and Kal Airways.

It had said the court was barred from entering into the merits of an award unless there was an error that was apparent on the face of the record or an illegality that goes to the root of the matter.

Singh had approached the single judge bench challenging the arbitral award.

The case dates to January 2015, when Singh, who owned the airline earlier, bought it back from Maran after it was grounded for months due to resource crunch.

FM: Policy support for manufacturing likely

Nirmala Sitharaman addresses the CII Annual Business Summit, in New Delhi on Friday PTI

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, May 17

INDIAN PRODUCT MANUFACTURING requires greater sophistication for a greater share in the global value chain, finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman said on Friday. "The government needs to assess how to give the best policy support," she told India Inc at the CII Annual Business Summit 2024.

Dismissing the advice given by some economists that India should not focus on ramping up manufacturing, she said, "I like to highlight the fact that manufacturing must increase," she said.

Citing a recent report by Capgemini Research Institute, Sitharaman said India figures at the top of the list of investment destinations for senior executives in Europe and the US, who are looking to reduce their dependence on China and shift part of their manufacturing capacity to emerging markets. "Their preference is India," she added.

Speaking at the same event, Niti Aayog CEO BVR Subrahmanyam said while the government has invested heavily in infrastructure in the last two years, the private sector is not investing in infrastructure projects except a little bit through real estate investment trusts (REITs), infrastructure investment trusts (InvITs), along with sectors like ports and airports.

"Much more needs to be done to attract private capital into infrastructure. We need to come up with new models and new arrangements," Subrahmanyam said.

He emphasised that India requires a lot of improvement in contract management and dispute resolution to fast-track legal processes as current lengthy processes are a drag.

Subrahmanyam said more free trade agreements (FTAs) are needed and lower tariffs are required to compete with the rest of the world. India was in discussion recently with the UK and the European Union to sign such pacts.

Subrahmanyam said that there is a need for more institutions of global scale as India has just one insurance company among the top 50 and only two banks in the top 100.

Bandhan Bank's PAT plunges 93% on higher provisioning

AJAY RAMANATHAN
Mumbai, May 17

BANDHAN BANK ON Friday reported a 93% year-on-year plunge in its profits after tax to ₹55 crore in the fourth quarter, as it increased provisions and wrote off bad loans. The private lender's profit stood at ₹810 crore a year ago. The bottom line was significantly below the ₹890 crore estimated by analysts at Bloomberg.

Chandra Shekhar Ghosh, MD & CEO, explained that the technical write-offs relate to micro-credit pertaining to a three-year period ended 2021-22 (April-March). Of the total technical write-offs of ₹3,852 crore, the credit guarantee fund for micro units (CGFMU) portfolio stood at ₹3,053 crore.

The bank said that it has technically written off loans as a prudent measure and in accordance with its policy. At the same time, the bank's provisions rose 141% to ₹1,774 crore in Q4 from ₹735 crore a year ago, and this weighed on the bank's bottom line.

Overall, the bank's gross advances rose 14.3% to ₹1.25 trillion whereas deposits jumped 25% to ₹1.35 trillion. The loan book was aided by commercial banking, retail loans and housing book. The bank's current account savings account (CASA) deposits stood at ₹50,151 crore. The CASA ratio stood at 37.1%.

Net interest income, the difference between interest earned and interest expended, rose 16% y-o-y to ₹2,866 crore in the March quarter. The net interest margin improved to 7.6% from 7.2% a year ago.

CHALLENGERS STILL HAVE A LONG WAY TO GO TO CATCH UP WITH LEGACY PLAYERS

David and Goliath story unfolds in offline edtech space

S SHANTHI
Bengaluru, May 17

UNACADEMY WAS ONCE India's second largest player by valuation in the edtech space. Today, roughly half of its consolidated revenues of ₹1,000 crore come from its over 85 offline centres. That's a huge change, for which the edtech unicorn had to change its DNA.

Other edtech firms such as Vedantu and Physics Wallah are also not far behind in challenging their original instincts of staying in the online space. Physics Wallah (PW), which counts Westbridge and GSV Ventures as its marquee investors, today operates as a hybrid test prep platform. Offline centres, though limited in number, contribute nearly 40% to its overall revenue.

"Currently, our offline Vidyapeeth centres are teaching 200,000 students, showcasing significant growth in offline engagement," Ankit Gupta, CEO, PW Offline, told FE.

PW has 79 Vidyapeeth centres in 51 cities and plans to open more by the end of the next fiscal year. In FY23, the edtech unicorn clocked a total revenue of ₹798 crore, up 3.4 times from the previous year. The company said that the surge was driven by increased penetration within the offline category.

"We are expanding our educational footprint nationwide. Our goal is to create educational hubs that eliminate the need for extensive travel, making quality education accessible to all," said Gupta. The company's average revenue per user (Arpu) at offline coaching centres is around ₹50,000 and it aims to make it ₹65,000 soon.

In December last year, Unacademy's CEO and co-founder Gaurav Munjal had said that the company's cash burn has been slashed by about 60% for the calendar year 2023. He also said that the company has a runway of more than four years with its current cash reserves.

"The online model had its relevance during the pandemic as people were forced to stay indoors, however, it also has its limitations in terms of exchange of ideas and knowledge sharing," Anil Joshi, managing partner, Unicorn India Ventures, a firm that has invested in edtech startups ForiegnAdmits and HiWi, said.

He added that Unacademy is adopting what its customer base wants else it will be challenging to sustain the business.

Vamsi Krishna-led Vedantu has also forayed into offline tuition centres in the test prep and higher secondary coaching at the beginning of FY23. In December this year, it announced its plans to open more than 30 offline centres for JEE, NEET and foundation courses across cities.

Spike in trade with Russia not a temporary trend: Jaishankar

AGENCIES
New Delhi, May 17

RISE IN TRADE with Russia should not be seen as a "temporary phenomenon" as more economic opportunities are emerging, foreign minister S Jaishankar said on Friday.

India has emerged as one of the top buyers of Russian sea-borne oil since Western nations imposed sanctions and halted purchases in response to the Ukraine war, which Russia calls a "special military operation".

"For long, we have looked at Russia from a political or security perspective," Jaishankar said at an industry conference.

"As that country turns eastwards, fresh economic opportunities are presenting themselves... the spike in our trade and new areas of cooperation should not be regarded as a temporary phenomenon."

Trade between India and Russia stood at $65.7 billion in the financial year ending March 2024, a 33% jump over previous year.

The country is seeking to make progress on an investment treaty with Russia as well as signing a free trade agreement with the Moscow-led Eurasian Economic Union. The two nations are also holding talks on jointly producing military equipment.

External affairs minister S Jaishankar said for long, India has looked at Russia from a political or security perspective

'New tensions emerged in land and sea as rule of law disregarded'

New tensions have emerged in land and sea in Asia as agreements were dishonoured and rule of law disregarded, the external affairs minister said on Friday amid China's continuing military posturing along the Line of Actual Control in eastern Ladakh and its bullying tactics in South China Sea.

In an address at an event hosted by the CII, Jaishankar also talked about the power of currency and how "threat of sanctions" are deployed in the "toolbox" of global diplomacy, in remarks that came days after the US warned of sanctions after India and Iran sealed a deal on the Chabahar port.

In a veiled reference to Pakistan, the external affairs minister said terrorism and extremism have started to consume those who have long practised it.

Jaishankar extensively delved into the consequences of the Ukraine conflict, escalation of violence in West Asia and disruption of logistics in view of the geopolitical tensions, sanctions, incidents of drone attacks and climate events.

Misconduct order passed by ICAI against PwC firms

MANU KAUSHIK
New Delhi, May 17

THE INSTITUTE OF Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) has passed a disciplinary order against Price Waterhouse & Co, New Delhi and its network firms for professional misconduct.

The order, dated May 8, has also removed two members from the register of members for a period of three years with a fine of ₹5 lakh each.

During its investigation, the ICAI committee noted that the visiting cards of the personnel of Price Waterhouse & Co, New Delhi contains suffix "@pwc.com" in their emails which depicted their close association with the international entity.

Further, the committee said that name licensing agreement signed between PwC Business Trust (an entity set up under the laws of US and owner of the brand Pricewaterhouse-Coopers) contains clauses which permits Price Waterhouse & Co, New Delhi to use the trademark PwC.

"The respondent firm in their submissions have failed to point out as to how they were able to maintain their independence when the domain that was being used belonged to the third party i.e. multinational entity.

"The respondent firm with the name Pricewaterhouse used domain name "@pwc.com" which signify its relation with multinational entity to capitalise on their goodwill and such acts constituted professional misconduct of the first schedule to the Chartered Accountants Act, 1949," the ICAI order said.

The order said that ICAI's disciplinary committee has already found out an apparent sharing of human resources, infrastructure, brand name and contact details which signifies that in substance PwC was controlling Price Waterhouse & Co, New Delhi and network firms.

Prior to PwC and its domestic affiliates, the ICAI had passed an order against major audit firms — SR Batliboi & Co and others — for violating the CA Act. Though the order against EY affiliate firms was later removed from ICAI's website following a stay order from the Delhi High Court.

In reply, Price Waterhouse & Affiliates said, "We are disappointed to note that the ICAI has published the said orders in the public domain, which is not in accordance with the court proceedings before the Hon'ble Delhi High Court, which was held in the presence of the ICAI Disciplinary Committee counsel.

"We have accordingly asked the ICAI to immediately take down the orders from their website. These matters are of course not unique to us but are general industry-wide issues, and do not in any manner pertain to our audit procedures or the quality of our delivery. We remain steadfast in our commitment to respect and adhere to applicable laws and have full faith that our judicial process will uphold our position on the said matters."

The ICAI has long maintained that being part of a global network hampers the independence of domestic audit firms affiliated with global Big Four. Such affiliations also result in fee sharing with the international network which is against the CA Act.

The Big Four, on the other hand, have argued that the global affiliations help in capacity building and develop common tools, tech platforms, training modules and governance structure.

Govt studying RBI's draft norms on project finance, says DFS secy

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, May 17

THE GOVERNMENT AND the Indian Banks Association (IBA) are studying the Reserve Bank of India's (RBI) draft guidelines on project financing, which banks fear could lead to additional provisioning requirements, financial services secretary Vivek Joshi said on Friday.

The RBI draft guidelines, if implemented, could lead to a rise in interest costs for infrastructure companies as banks would pass on the additional cost.

"The government is studying the draft regulations of RBI on project finance and will send its response if required," Joshi said at a CII event here.

He said banks feel they may have to make more provisioning and that may be worrying them.

Among others, the proposed guidelines could lead to a disruption in the highways sector, which has witnessed aggressive public capex over several years, and was expecting a return of private risk capital to the sector.

The RBI's draft guidelines were released on May 3 for public comments and cover "Infrastructure, Non-Infrastructure and Commercial Real Estate" sectors. The last day for comments is June 15.

The guidelines demarcate provisions to be made for loans by lenders in the design phase, construction phase and commencement phase and commencement of commercial operations.

Joshi said he cannot comment on the merger or privatisation of Public Sector Banks (PSBs) during the ongoing Lok Sabha polls.

Asked to clarify reports of the merger of public sector banks (PSBs), he said: "Elections are going on, it is not appropriate to comment on such issues."

In the past, the government consolidated PSBs in two tranches.

The consolidation, which took effect in April 2020, saw 10 PSBs consolidate into four. Oriental Bank of Commerce and United Bank of India merged with Punjab National Bank; Syndicate Bank merged with Canara Bank; Andhra Bank and Corporation Bank merged with Union Bank of India; and Allahabad Bank with Indian Bank.

Prior to this, Vijaya Bank and Dena Bank had merged with Bank of Baroda with effect from April 1, 2019.

India could become third-largest economy by 2027-28: Panagariya

INDIA COULD BECOME the third largest economy globally by 2027-28 if the country continues the growth momentum witnessed in the last two decades, 16th Finance Commission chairman Arvind Panagariya said on Friday.

He also said that during the last two decades, beginning 2003-4, India has ended extreme poverty.

The extreme poverty, currently, is not more than 3% of the total population.

Speaking at the CII's Annual Business Summit 2024, Panagariya said there is a problem of under-employment in the agriculture sector as a large portion of the workforce is engaged in the segment, and there is a need to move them out of the vertical to industry for faster urbanisation. PTI

Need capital mkt reforms 2.0, says CEA

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, May 17

INDIA NEEDS MORE capital market reforms, considering investment needs to push growth while maintaining financial system stability, chief economic adviser V Anantha Nageswaran said on Friday.

"We are at a point where capital market reforms 2.0 are needed. Markets should be able to finance the equity needs of banks and otherwise too," Nageswaran said addressing the CII Business Summit here.

He, however, said India must remain cautious about global funding in the next three to five years.

Nageswaran said Indian government bond inclusion in global indices will bring in patient money and non-patient money.

Indian gilts will be added to the JP Morgan GBI EM Index starting June 2024 and to the Bloomberg EM Local Currency Government Bond Index (EMLC GBI) starting January 2025. Analysts estimated that due to bond inclusions, there could be additional inflows of $22 billion in a year.

"When we talk about India's goal to become a developed nation by 2047, financial system stability and macro stability are most important," he said, adding that India might have to encourage stability rather than rapid growth.

The CEA said all financial market participants need to act in concert.

India's investment needs are larger than in the past as the country is poised to become the world's third-largest economy in three years by overtaking Japan and Germany.

Q1 OUTLOOK

OMCs may post weak refining margins

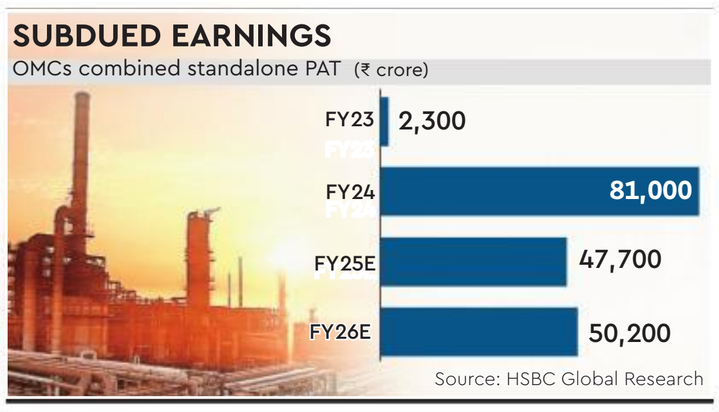
ARUNIMA BHARADWAJ
New Delhi, May 17

THE WEAK REFINING margins that weighed on the state-owned oil marketing companies' profitability in Q4FY24 against last year is yet again likely to result in a subdued earnings for the country's downstream sector in the first quarter of the current financial year 2024-25.

Even though oil prices have moderated now, the peak witnessed in the global oil prices in the beginning of FY25 is likely to lead to muted refining performance of OMCs in Q1FY25, analysts say.

"Singapore gross refining margin has been weak so far in Q1FY25 till date at $3.6 per barrel as against $7.3 per barrel in Q4FY24, which may lead to muted refining performance in Q1FY25," said Motilal Oswal in its report.

Coupled with the weak refining margins was the cut of ₹2 per litre in retail prices of auto fuels by the OMCs earlier this year.



Analysts, however, believe that the government will allow them to tweak auto fuel pump prices once the elections are over.

The three OMCs were able to register a strong ending to the financial year 2023-24 but may see a marginally weaker FY25 in terms of its Return on Equity.

"We expect FY25 to be weaker than FY24 (where OMCs earned Return on Equity of 31-47%) but still expect OMCs to earn normative ROE of 16-22%," HSBC Global Research had said in its review.

For OMCs as a group, the fourth quarter of FY24 turned out to be the weakest quarter in terms of reported profitability largely driven by poor performance by Indian Oil Corp which disappointed on gross refining margins and losses in petrochemicals, the firm noted.

As per analysts at HSBC, any additional profitability for the OMCs in the coming quarter will depend upon cheaper crude sourcing, higher share of value added products in the product slate, and better spreads of non-auto fuel products and volume growth.

For the full year FY25, analysts see crude prices now to remain range bound at current levels which may limit the margin hit to the OMCs.

Presently, the gross refining margins for OMCs are lower owing to the weakness in diesel demand, tightness in heavy crude market, and stronger supply from China.

In FY24, Indian Oil Corp lost its market share a bit while Hindustan Petroleum Corp gained market share as it pushed its product in the market," HSBC noted in its report. BPCL maintained its market share during the fiscal.

While the first quarter of the current fiscal may see a blip, FY25-FY26 may see sustained earnings improvement due to targeted investments in improving scale and complexity of downstream business by the OMCs, their diversification, and a likely improvement in margins, analysts say.

ONDC onboards unicorns, startups

MUKESH JAGOTA
New Delhi, May 17

THE OPEN NETWORK for Digital Commerce (ONDC), set up to democratise e-commerce and make digital commerce available to smaller players, on Thursday announced the onboarding of 125 ecosystem stakeholders, including startups and some of the best known unicorns, on its network.

The unicorns that have signed Letter of Intent (LoI) to partner with ONDC include likes of Zerodha, EaseMyTrip, Pristyn Care, Cars24, Physics Wallah, PolicyBazaar, OfBusiness, Winzo, Livspace and GlobalBees.

"This collaboration is meant to ensure that startups are also able to access the network to get access to the market... the idea is to get the better wider choice and value to the consumers," secretary in the Department of Industry and Internal Trade, Rajesh Kumar Singh said.

The LoI was signed at the ONDC Startup Mahotsav, held on Thursday, which saw the participation of 5,000 startups in hybrid mode. The representatives of unicorns said by collaborating with ONDC they are seeking to get to the smaller towns which are still underserved by e-commerce.

ONDC can also open doors for partnerships of local businesses in these underserved towns with startups and unicorns getting them more opportunities, they said.

"This collaboration is meant to ensure that startups are also able to access the network to get access to the market. The idea is to get a wider choice and value to the consumers and access to all kinds of sellers," Singh said.

On concerns that the bigger startups might overshadow smaller players on ONDC, the secretary said, "We hope that it will increasingly get traction for all types of players. The intent is noble, let us see how it works and actually we can crack the issues in terms of market concentration," he said.

ONDC, which was launched in 2021, has gained a lot of traction in the last two years. More than 500,000 sellers have been onboarded on the platform, of which more than 70% are small or medium sized sellers. In April 2024, ONDC facilitated around 7.22 million transactions.

The onboarding of startups brings together two initiatives of the government — ONDC and Startup India Initiative.

The government launched the Startup India initiative in 2016 to support entrepreneurs and build a robust startup ecosystem in the country. From around 300 startups in 2016, today India is amongst the leading startup hubs with more than 130,000 DPIIT recognised startups. These are operating in more than 55 sectors and have created more than 130,000 direct jobs in the country.

FUNDING TO ADDRESS SUPPLY-DEMAND MISMATCH

China unveils new measures to stabilise property sector

BLOOMBERG
May 17

XI JINPING'S GOVERNMENT announced its most forceful attempt yet to rescue the beleaguered Chinese property market, relaxing mortgage rules and urging local governments to buy unsold homes as authorities become increasingly concerned about the sector's drag on economic growth.

The support package also includes lower downpayment requirements for homebuyers and $42 billion of central bank funding to help government-backed firms buy excess inventory from developers. Those properties would then be converted into affordable housing.

While equity investors cheered the news — sending an index of developer shares up nearly 10% on Friday — it's far from clear whether the plan will draw a line under the property crisis. The funding announced by China's central bank is just a fraction of what some analysts say is needed to address the supply-demand mismatch in housing, and many potential buyers are waiting for prices to fall further before stepping in.

Friday's announcement nevertheless underscored Xi's renewed focus on propping up the world's second-largest economy, which faces a slew of challenges from rising US tariffs to historically high youth unemployment. The question now is whether authorities can muster the right mix of financial firepower and policy adjustments to shore up confidence without returning to the speculative excesses of previous decades.

PBOC earmarks $42bn for state buying

The People's Bank of China (PBOC) will establish a nationwide program to unleash $41.5 billion in cheap funding to help state-owned companies buy unsold homes.

Central bank Deputy Governor Tao Ling announced the so-called relending programme at a briefing in Beijing on Friday, hours after the government unveiled an unprecedented package of measures to address the nation's protracted property crisis. Funding will be extended to 21 providers, including policy banks, state-owned commercial lenders and joint-stock banks, at a rate of 1.75%, she said.

The loans, designed to have a one-year term, will be allowed to roll over four times. PBOC's relending programmes consist of cheap funding offered to China's banks that enables them to expand lending for specific parts of the economy.

Musk pushes plan for China data to power Tesla's AI ambitions

FANNY POTKIN
Shanghai, May 17

TESLA IS PUSHING ahead with plans to power the global development of its self-driving system with data from China that could be processed within the country, part of a strategic shift by Elon Musk, according to people with knowledge of the work.

As part of that effort, Tesla has been developing plans for a data center in China to train the algorithm needed for more fully autonomous vehicles, according two people, who asked not to be named because the work remains private. Until recently, Tesla has focused on efforts to secure approval from Chinese regulators to transfer data generated by its EVs in China out of the country for its "Full Self Driving" (FSD) system, according to the two people and an additional person with knowledge of the matter.

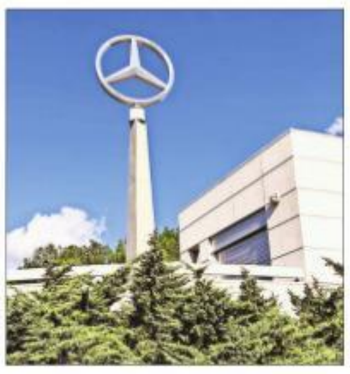
Elon Musk
CEO, Tesla

It was not clear if Tesla would proceed with both options for handling self-driving data from China - data transfer and a local data center - or if it was developing parallel plans as a hedge. Tesla's efforts underscore the speed of the electric vehicle maker's pivot to bet on a breakthrough in AI at a time when EV demand has slowed and its competition has deepened.

Its push to make fuller use of data from vehicles in China to develop the automaker's artificial intelligence for driving comes as the US government has tried to clamp down on the transfer of AI technology from US firms to China.

Tesla has not been able to offer the full version of FSD, which costs the equivalent of almost $9,000, in China. A wider market for FSD in China would give a boost to the automaker's revenue and profits at a time when both are getting squeezed by pressure from Chinese rivals such as BYD. —REUTERS

Mercedes-Benz: UAW's impact tested in pivotal Alabama factory union vote



UAW hopes to continue a run that includes an overwhelming organising victory at a Volkswagen plant in Tennessee

REUTERS

NORA ECKERT
Alabama, May 17

THE OUTCOME OF a vote on Friday by workers at a Mercedes-Benz factory in Alabama will be a key referendum on whether the United Auto Workers (UAW) can maintain momentum in the historically anti-union South.

The UAW hopes to continue a run that includes an overwhelming organising victory at a Volkswagen plant in Chattanooga, Tennessee, as well as a lucrative new contract at six Daimler Truck facilities across the South. Daimler Truck was spun off from what is now Mercedes.

A win at Mercedes would make it the second foreign-owned automaker in the US South to join the UAW, a historic feat in a region that has previously been inhospitable to unions.

VW workers twice voted against the UAW before last month's win, and Nissan workers at a plant in Mississippi rejected the UAW by a wide margin in 2017.

In 2021, workers at an Amazon warehouse in Alabama voted against forming a union by a more than 2-to-1 margin. "If the union wins, they improve their momentum dramatically for future organising," Harley Shaiken, labor professor at the University of California, Berkeley, said of the Mercedes vote.

Results of the election being overseen by the US National Labor Relations Board are expected to be finalised around 1 pm EDT (1700 GMT) on Friday. —REUTERS

TO MEET INCREASING DATA DEMAND

Vi plans ₹50-55K crore capex over three years

JATIN GROVER
New Delhi, May 17

VODAFONE IDEA CEO Akshaya Moondra on Friday said the company is planning to incur a capital expenditure of ₹50,000-55,000 crore over the next three years, on the back of recent equity fundraise and proposed bank funding.

The company will utilise the capex towards expanding 4G coverage in 17 priority circles, 5G launch in key geographies, capacity expansion to meet increasing data demand, and for growing its enterprise business.

This assumes significance as in FY24, Vodafone Idea's capex was about ₹1800 crore, and with the fundraise, the same will increase 10 times to around ₹18,000 crore annually in the next three years.

"Our topmost priority is 4G coverage because that was the only reason why we continue to lose subscribers, so for expanding that, the capex will be fairly accelerated," Moondra said in the post-quarter earnings call with analysts.

"There are some areas where there is decongestion because of capacity issues. The rest of investment will happen as the capacity as the traffic grows," Moondra said, adding that the company should be able to complete the large part of coverage in a period of 12-15 months to be competitive in the market.

Besides 4G coverage, Vodafone Idea will be rolling out 5G on a large scale in 6 months from now. Till date, the company has completed minimum network rollout obligations in four circles — Maharashtra, Delhi, Tamil Nadu, and Punjab, and is looking to complete the same in Bihar and Mumbai.

"We are in discussion with various technology partners for finalisation of our 5G rollout plans...The main focus going to be on main cities which see a large concentration of 5G devices," Moondra said.

"It is important to note that since we will be launching 5G now, we will be well placed to effectively utilise our capex spends as we will be able to address the part of the capacity requirement via 5G instead of 4G," he added.

Post the fundraise of ₹18,000 crore through follow-on public offer (FPO) and ₹2,075 crore from promoters, Vodafone Idea has started engaging with a consortium of banks again for debt funding of about ₹25,000 crore and additional non-fund-based facilities of up to ₹10,000 crore.

"We have some capital available, and we will be able to close the discussions with the banks in good time. In the time when we need those facilities, they will be available," Moondra said.

When asked about the payments to the government post the moratorium, Moondra said, "What we believe based on our outlook today is that in FY26 and FY27, we will probably be looking at the conversion of the instalments, which are as per the reforms package convertible."

In FY26, once the moratorium on regulatory dues is over, Vodafone Idea will have an obligation to pay around ₹29,000 crore to the government. From FY27 onwards, the company will have to pay ₹43,000 crore to the government till FY31.

At the end of the January-March quarter, Vodafone Idea's gross debt (excluding lease liabilities and including interest accrued but not due) was at 2.16 trillion. The gross debt comprises deferred spectrum payment obligations of ₹1.3 trillion, AGR liabilities of ₹70,320 crore that are due to the government, debt from banks and financial institutions of ₹4,212 crore and optionally convertible debentures amounting to ₹160 crore.

On the tariff hikes, Moondra reiterated his stance on usage-based charges. "Tariff rationalisation on the high usage plans and moving to a price structure of paying more for using more remains critical to ensure that the operators make reasonable returns on their large network and spectrum investments," Moondra said.

He said, trend in tariff increases suggest that the extent of SIM consolidation has progressively reduced. According to Moondra, the market can absorb tariff hikes, and this must now focus on "paying more for using more" rather than on entry-level packs.

Vodafone Idea's net loss for the January-March quarter expanded to ₹7,674 crore from ₹6,986 crore in the preceding quarter. The losses expanded owing to a fall in revenues and the base effect of the preceding quarter where the company recorded a one-time gain of Rs 755.5 crore.

JSW Steel Q4 net profit plunges 65% to ₹1,299 cr

Recommends dividend of ₹7.30/share for FY24

RAJESH KURUP
Mumbai, May 17

INDUSTRIALIST SAJJAN JINDAL-led JSW Steel has recorded a 64.5% fall in net profit at ₹1,299 crore for the quarter ended March 31, falling below street estimates, on a rise in expenses and raw material prices.

In comparison, the steelmaker had posted a net profit of ₹3,664 crore for the same quarter of the previous fiscal. During the reporting quarter, the steel manufacturer's revenue fell 1.5% to ₹46,269 crore from ₹46,962 crore recorded in the same period of year-ago fiscal, JSW Steel said in a statement.

The firm's Ebitda fell 22.9% to ₹6,124 crore from ₹7,939 crore earlier. JSW Steel's board also recommended a dividend of ₹7.30 per share for FY24, entailing a total outflow of ₹1785 crore.

The firms' net profit and revenue fell below street expectations. A consensus estimate by Bloomberg analysts was expecting JSW Steel to post a net profit of ₹1,661 crore on revenues of ₹44,676 crore and EBITDA of ₹6,155 crore.

During the period under review, the firm's expenses rose to ₹44,401 crore (₹43,170 crore a year ago period), while cost of raw materials consumed rose to ₹24,541 crore (₹23,905 crore) and other expenses rose to ₹7,197 crore (₹6,653 crore).

JSW Steel's consolidated crude steel production for the quarter fell 3% to 6.79 million tonne from year-ago period, while capacity utilisation at Indian operations fell 93% to 94% from Q3, it said.

As of March 31, the firm's net debt was at ?73,916 crore, lower by ?5,305 crore from December 31, 2023, mostly due to healthy cash generation, release of working capital and calibrated capex.

The steel sales for the quarter stood at 6.73 million tonne, up by 12% QoQ and 3% YoY. Domestic sales at 5.16 million tonne were lower by 2% QoQ and by 5% YoY on elevated imports.

While the total sales volumes rose QoQ, the original equipment manufacturers and industrial volumes fell by 11% QoQ. Retail sales rose QoQ by 16% and were lower by 3% YoY. JSW Steel's board also approved acquisition of Minas de Revuboe Limitada (MDR), which owns a coking coal mine in the Moatize Basin of Tete Province in Mozambique, for $73.75 million.

This is a step towards backward integration for captive sourcing of coking coal, it said, adding MDR has premium hard coking coal projects globally and reserves in excess of 800 million tonne.

On Friday, JSW Steel's share prices ended up 2.36% at ₹907.30 on the BSE. It was the second-best performer among 30 Sensex stocks.

Reliance Cap administrator seeks 10-day extension for asset transfer

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Mumbai, May 17

THE ADMINISTRATOR OF debt-ridden Reliance Capital (RCAP) has approached the Reserve Bank to seek a 10-day extension of the deadline to transfer businesses to a successful bidder — a Hinduja Group company, sources said.

The deadline for the transfer of Reliance Capital's asset to Aasia Enterprises, a Hinduja Group company, ended on Friday, they added.

The RBI approval granted on November 17, 2023, was valid for only 6 months.

The RCAP Administrator has sought an extension of 10 days till May 27 from the RBI, sources said.

It may be mentioned that May 27 also happens to be the deadline for the implementation of the resolution plan by the Hinduja Group company as per the NCLT order. The National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) Mumbai, while approving the resolution plan on February 27, directed IndusInd International Holdings Ltd to implement it within 90 days ending May 27.

The tribunal had approved Hinduja Group firm IndusInd International Holdings Ltd's ₹9,650-crore resolution plan for Reliance Capital.

In November 2021, the Reserve Bank superseded the board of Reliance Capital on governance issues and payment defaults by the Anil Dhirubhai Ambani Group company. The central bank had appointed Nageswara Rao Y as the administrator, who invited bids in February 2022 to take over the company. Reliance Capital had a debt of over ₹40,000 crore, and four applicants had initially bid with resolution plans. However, the committee of creditors rejected all four plans for lower bid values, and a challenge mechanism was initiated in which IIHL and Torrent Investments participated.

Brookfield plans to invest $500 million in Leap Green

BROOKFIELD ASSET MANAGEMENT is planning to invest about $500 million for a majority stake in Indian renewable power firm Leap Green Energy , according to people familiar with the matter.

If a deal is completed, Toronto-based Brookfield would likely own a majority stake in Leap Green, with the company's founding family and global investor The Rohatyn Group holding the rest, the people said. An investment could boost Leap Green's plans to expand its wind energy capacity in India, the people said.

Brookfield aims to invest in Leap Green via its global transition fund, one of the people said. In February, the firm announced it had raised $10 billion in the first closing of a fund dedicated to investing in areas such as clean energy.

Representatives for Brookfield and Leap Green declined to comment. Leap Green is based in Coimbatore, in the southern Indian state of Tamil Nadu. It has an operational capacity of more than 750 megawatts, with ambitions to expand beyond seven gigawatts by 2029, according to its website. Its portfolio includes wind, solar, green hydrogen and electric-vehicle charging assets.

Brookfield aims to invest in Leap Green via its global transition fund

The Rohatyn Group, known as TRG, is an existing investor in Leap Green, along with the founding family. New York-based TRG specializes in emerging markets and real assets.

Global alternative asset managers are being drawn to India amid a focus on clean energy and the country's rapid economic growth. Other sectors attracting interest include digital infrastructure and health care. In another example of India's growing allure, KKR & Co. recently agreed to acquire Bengaluru-based medical device maker Healthium Medtech Ltd. from Apax Partners. BLOOMBERG

M&M to spruce up e-3W play to take on Bajaj, TVS

SWARAJ BAGGONKAR
Mumbai, May 17

MAHINDRA & MAHINDRA (M&M) is looking to maintain its leadership in the small electric commercial vehicle segment by launching a slew of new products and pushing its manufacturing footprint further.

This comes alongside the decision of M&M announced on May 16 to inject ₹12,000 crore into the electric vehicles business where a total of nine new EVs are slated for launch by 2030.

Rajesh Jejurikar, executive director and CEO (auto and farm equipment sector), M&M said, "We have seen strong growth in market share (in the electric three-wheeler segment). Last year (FY24) there was a negative growth for the industry and we grew through market share gain. We ended the year with 59% share."

Mahindra Last Mile Mobility (MLMM), is a separate entity created to tap opportunities in the mini cargo and shared mobility space with EV and non-EV powertrains. This company sells three and four-wheelers having electric, petrol, diesel and CNG options.

"We have aggressive growth plans. There is work happening on new-gen platforms and completely new products for the future

RAJESH JEJURIKAR, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR AND CEO (AUTO AND FARM EQUIPMENT SECTOR), M&M

During FY24 the electric three-wheeler segment saw the entry of Pune-based Bajaj Auto, one of India's largest three-wheeler makers. Chennai-based TVS Motor Company will be launching its electric three-wheeler in FY25.

"We have raised ₹1,000 crore from two investors in (MLMM). We have aggressive growth plans. There is work happening on new-gen platforms and completely new products for the future," Jejurikar added in a post earnings meeting.

Two out of the seven new light commercial vehicles slated for roll out by 2030 will be fully electric. M&M's Zaheerabad plant in Telangana is being converted into an electric-only three-wheeler vehicle manufacturing plant.

"We are investing in capacity at Zaheerabad. This plant will become an electric three-wheeler plant. We moved out auto products to other plants," Jejurikar added.

There was a 51% rise in electric three-wheeler volumes for M&M during FY24 to 66,025 units as against 43,587 units clocked in FY23. This total stood at 16,862 in FY22.

The penetration of electric powertrain in the three-wheeler segment stands at 11% presently, which is one of the highest across segments.

He has played a key leadership role in the development and deployment of Wipro's AI training and upskilling strategy, the company said in the statement.

AI mission projects may get 50% subsidy, says MeitY secy

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, May 17

THE GOVERNMENT IS looking to fund up to 50% of the cost of creating artificial intelligence (AI) compute infrastructure in the country under the ₹10,372 crore IndiaAI mission, ministry of electronics and IT (MeitY) secretary S Krishnan said on Friday.

The AI mission basically pertains to bringing AI compute capacity under the public-private partnership (PPP) mode through GPU-based servers, allocating early-stage funding to deeptech startups, setting up of innovation centres and developing broader AI sovereign infrastructure in the country.

Meity has set a target to make available GPU-based servers approved under the IndiaAI Mission by March 2026.

"The target is to establish at least 10,000 GPUs worth of AI compute capacity in the country...In order to speed up the entire process, the idea is to partner with a variety of private institutions so that we are able to work with the private sector in making this capacity available quickly," Krishnan said at the CII Annual Business Summit.

GPUs are essential for creating AI models as these require large-scale computing, which cannot be done by central processing units (CPUs).

In a bid to make the process faster, the government is also looking at the viability gap funding approach or a voucher-based mechanism for the sector.

"We want to make it (AI compute) available both on a VGF (viability gap funding) basis where new capacity will be created, and there would be viability gap funding from the government or alternatively," Krishnan said.

For the government's own use of compute infrastructure, it is planning an independent capacity through the National supercomputing mission and the GPU capacity under India AI mission will be set up separately.

On large language models (LLMs) specific to India, Krishnan said, "Now people are talking about large language models, large multimodal models. Some of them are becoming smaller and more efficient. A number of those efforts are going on in our conversations with the industry, private sector, and with a variety of experts".

When asked about concern around job loss due to AI, Krishnan said, "Many people feel that the newer AI jobs which will come, will get created in India for two or three reasons. One, we have a large number of STEM-trained graduates, many of whom have exposure to AI far more than any other country in the world."

With sovereign AI and an AI compute infrastructure, the government is not looking to just compete with the generative AI type of model, but looking to focus on real-life use cases in healthcare, agriculture, governance, language translation, etc, to maximise economic development.

Simplilearn aims FY25 full-year profitability

ANEES HUSSAIN
Bengaluru, May 17

ONLINE CERTIFICATION TRAINING course provider Simplilearn has set its sights on achieving full-year profitability in FY25, as stated by co-founder and chief operating officer, Kashyap Dalal.

Dalal said: "We've reached a significant milestone in our journey. In FY23, we generated ₹701 crore in revenue, reducing our losses to 29%. By the fourth quarter of FY24, we turned EBITDA positive. This year, we aim to consolidate our profitable status and target a 30-40% growth momentum."

Simplilearn's business operations span the US, India, and EMEA regions, with the US market alone contributing 60% of its revenue. The company serves both individual professionals and large enterprises, offering a range of programs, including certifications, university partnerships, and boot camps.

Dalal said: "Our focus on areas like AI, generative AI, and cybersecurity has paid off, given the increasing global demand for digital skills. We have partnered with the likes of IIT Kanpur, IIIT- Bangalore, and NPCI to offer cybersecurity programs. We will continue to add more such programs in the future. AI, cybersecurity, and digital skills in general are really driving growth for us. That's where most of the action is."

The reduction in marketing expenditures was another key factor in Simplilearn's improved financial health. Dalal attributed this to a significant shift in the competitive landscape. "The edtech market has also rationalised its marketing spends over the past year, with the exit of relatively larger players, we are now spending less to acquire customers. The exit of a large player like Byju's from aggressive marketing reduced the overall competition in the market. This allowed us to optimize our marketing spends and allocate resources more efficiently," Dalal added.

"Also there has been an internal rationalisation for us in terms of the areas that we want to focus on and build leadership in," Dalal added.. However, Dalal also acknowledged the challenges and necessary strategic pivots. "We had to make tough decisions to scale back on less profitable ventures," he said. "Our study abroad programs, certain high school categories, and K-12 businesses did not meet our profitability targets. These decisions were crucial in realigning our resources towards more lucrative segments," he added.

"For instance, we exited the study abroad segment because it wasn't generating the expected returns. We also felt the existing players were better positioned than us to capitalise on the segment." The company also currently assessing its strategic acquisition options in the market. Something it will want to trigger, once it turns profitable over the course of the current fiscal," Dalal added.

Simplilearn does not have any immediate plans to expand to offline, something that many large online-first edtech players have been doing recently.

"In our current focus which is professional skilling, we don't see expanding to offline as mission critical. So I think for us, offline is not a priority at this point. We want to focus on the areas of professional skilling that we are strong in and double down on them. In terms of expanding to adjacent offerings, acquisitions seem a better route for us. That is our strategy," Dalal added. "If we are profitable and doing things well, acquisition is our next natural step forward. We have already started exploring our options, and could expect to make a move in the next 6 months," Dalal added.

BULLISH OUTLOOK

- FY23 revenue: ₹701 cr, losses down to 29%
- EBITDA positive by Q4 FY24; targets 30-40% growth
- US market drives 60% revenue; serves global individuals and enterprises
- Focus on AI, generative AI, cybersecurity for digital skills demand
- Reduced marketing spend due to industry rationalisation
- Strategic pivot from less profitable ventures; eyes acquisitions post-profitability

Trai announces open house to discuss OTT service regulation

TELECOM REGULATOR WILL proceed with open house discussions on regulatory mechanism for OTT communication services, and plans to also initiate consultation to tighten norms for pesky calls and messages soon, Trai chief Anil Kumar Lahoti said on Friday.

Speaking at a symposium on 'Strengthening Atmanirbhar: Securing Domestic industry and Technology', Lahoti said revival course of Vodafone Idea (VIL) and Bharat Sanchar Nigam Ltd (BSNL) augur well for India, given that continued presence of four players in Indian telecom market will ensure competition and, in turn, benefit consumers and health of the industry.

Clearing the air around the fate of its consultation paper on OTT communication (services such as WhatsApp and Signal) in the wake of the advent of the Telecom Act, Lahoti said Trai will proceed with process of holding open house discussion in "around three months or so".

"I know, we have an ongoing consultation on OTT communication. It is just that in last few months we are burning the midnight oil, clearing the number of references pending with us, and OTT communication is also in the line," the Chairman of Telecom Regulatory Authority of India said. —REUTERS

AVERAGE ATM CASH WITHDRAWAL VALUE RISES 6% IN FY24

Cash continues to be the king despite UPI's success

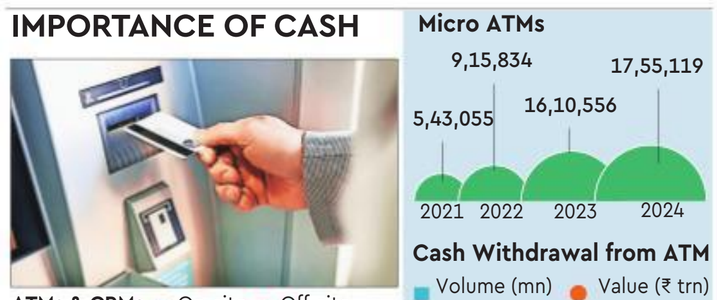
Micro-ATMs have grown from 543,000 in FY21 to 17,55,000 in FY24

AJAY RAMANATHAN & PIYUSH SHUKLA
Mumbai, May 17

AT A TIME, when transactions through unified payment interface (UPI) are growing at a tremendous clip of 40%, the demand for cash hasn't gone down at all. In fact, the value of transactions is on the rise.

A recent report by CMS Info Systems—which provides logistics and technology solutions to banks, among others—said that the monthly average cash withdrawals from automated teller machines (ATMs) rose about 6% year-on-year (y-o-y) in FY24 to ₹1.43 crore per ATM, from ₹1.35 crore in FY23.

On a monthly basis, the average ATM cash withdrawals in FY24 were higher compared to FY23, with withdrawals in 10 out of 12 months exceeding the FY23 monthly average of 7.23%. From a longer four year perspective, cash withdrawal from ATMs rose from ₹28.78 trillion in FY21 to ₹32.42 trillion in FY24, according to RBI data compiled by FE. The overall number of ATMs and cash recycling machines (CRMs) on branch site and off-site have also risen from 210,000 in FY20 to 218,000 in FY24. The micro-ATMs, meanwhile, have grown exponentially from 543,000 in FY21 to 1,755,000 in FY24. Higher cash withdrawals come at a time when the regulator is promoting higher adoption of newer payment technology like UPI. UPI transactions in volume terms rose 50% y-o-y to 13.3 billion in April, 2024, and transaction value also rose 40% y-o-y to ₹19.6 trillion.



What makes cash tick, still?

According to Anush Raghavan, president, Cash Management Solutions at CMS Info Systems, even in large and developed economies, people continue to actively prefer cash usage due to factors such as risk with digital payments, control spending behaviour and non-inclusion of vulnerable consumer groups.

"As a physical payment mechanism, cash strongly demonstrates its 'store of value' and 'bridges trust in a transaction' with consumers globally, which cannot be fulfilled by any other digital payments. For an economy to flourish, it is imperative that the payments ecosystem allows all modes of transactions," he said.

Sandeep Ghosh, group country manager, India and South Asia, Visa, said around 60% of personal consumption in India is still cash. Digital has grown remarkably but till cash consumption falls, the total amount of cash in the system will continue to grow albeit not at the same pace.

K Srinivas, MD & CEO at India1 Payments—white label ATM major—said there are roughly about 300 million people who use UPI, however, India has close to a billion bank accounts. This means that 700 million people still do not use UPI, and even amongst 300 million who do use UPI, 100% of user transactions are not done digitally.

"The fact is that out of 300 million UPI users, top 30%-35% users account for 90% of transactions. Therefore, many UPI users use digital and cash services both. Therefore value of cash growing is not surprising at all. Digital and physical cash transactions will continue for a long time," he says.

Srinivas says India's nominal GDP is growing by 9%-10% and therefore cash will continue to grow at the similar pace going ahead. Even if UPI eats into "little bit" of cash transactions, the overall cash transactions will go up, he added.

"We run about 13,000 ATM and have seen transactions growing. The average ticket size per cash withdrawal transactions is also growing by 3% y-o-y. This is a healthy trend where both growth in cash and UPI are happening simultaneously," he said.

Formed panel to choose successor, says Bandhan MD

AJAY RAMANATHAN
Mumbai, May 17

BANDHAN BANK HAS set up a committee to choose the successor to managing director and chief executive officer Chandra Shekhar Ghosh.

"We have set up a committee and it is working on that. We will disclose the name once it is finalised. We will need some time on this," Ghosh said in the analyst call following the March quarter results.

In a surprise move in April, Ghosh announced that he will demit office after the completion of his tenure. His tenure comes to an end on July 9, following which he will assume a larger strategic role at the Bandhan group level.

The bank's bottom line plunged 93% year-on-year to ₹55 crore for the quarter under review due to sizeable technical write-offs.

Ghosh said the write-offs relate to microcredit pertaining to a three-year period ended 2021-22. Of the total write-offs worth ₹3,852 crore, the credit guarantee fund for micro units (CGFMU) portfolio stood at ₹3,053 crore.

The bank said write-offs were made on the basis of the review of the entire Emerging Entrepreneurs Business portfolio.

"This is primarily coming from the perspective of looking at the kind of collections that have happened in this book and strengthening our portfolio quality," Rajinder Kumar Babbar, executive director and chief business officer, said.

In January, the bank announced that the National Credit Guarantee Trust Company is undertaking an audit of the CGFMU loans claims filed by the bank.

"We expect the CGFMU audit to be completed soon. As per the communication, we are expecting a positive response," Ghosh said.

In July-September, the bank applied for a second tranche of CGFMU loan worth ₹1,290 crore after receiving the first tranche of ₹916.6 crore in December 2022.

"The entire portfolio of 3 million borrowers is under the ambit of the audit. The bank has provided all the details and documents. We are nearing the closure of the audit process and the management is positive about the outcome," Ratan Kumar Kesh, executive director and chief operating officer, said.

"This year, our focus will remain on the risk management framework. We will focus on increasing wallet share by digital innovation," Babbar said.

RBI flags concerns over ARCs' risk management

SACHIN KUMAR
Mumbai, May 17

THE RESERVE BANK of India (RBI) has identified several supervisory concerns in the functioning of asset reconstruction companies (ARCs), deputy governor Swaminathan J said while addressing heads and representatives of 27 ARCs at a conference held in Mumbai.

The conference, with the theme 'Governance in ARCs—Towards Effective Resolutions', is a part of the series of supervisory engagements the Reserve Bank has been organising over the last one year with its regulated entities.

Emphasising the importance of sound governance, he asked the ARCs to adopt a "regulation plus" approach, ensuring compliance with both the letter and the spirit of regulations.

"Boards should accord due importance to assurance functions, namely, risk management, compliance, and internal audit," he said.

"These functions play a critical role in identifying and mitigating risks, ensuring compliance with laws and regulations, as well as safeguarding the organisation's reputation," he added. He emphasised that setting the right tone from the top is crucial in fostering a culture of integrity and ethical conduct.

In his keynote address, deputy governor M Rajeshwar Rao highlighted that sound governance provides a strong foundation for ARCs to build a robust business model.

"The onus in this regard lies largely with the boards of the ARCs and the top functionaries who will have to develop a strong and institutional culture based on these principles," Rao said at the same conference.

He also stressed on the need for responsible conduct in recovery process and emphasised that ARCs should follow transparent and non-discriminatory practices in line with the comprehensive fair practice code (FPC) put in place by the RBI.

The conference included technical sessions on the regulatory aspects and supervisory expectations by the chief general managers of the Reserve Bank.

HDFC Bank gets $500-mn IFC funding for micro loans to women

HDFC BANK ON Friday said it has received $500 million from the International Finance (IFC) for on-lending to women microfinance borrowers.

"The bank, with a long-standing history of lending to women, will use IFC's financing for on-lending as microloans to self-help groups (SHGs) and joint liability groups (JLGs) enrolled in sustainable livelihoods initiative (SLI)," the lender said.

Currently, non-banking financial companies, including microfinance institutions and small finance banks, are major lenders to women seeking loan for income generation, collectively reaching approximately 47 million clients with an aggregate gross loan portfolio of $31.6 billion as of December 31, 2023.

"However, MFIs are highly fragmented, have limited capacity and face higher funding costs. In this context, the extensive distribution network of banks and lower funding costs, among others, can be leveraged to increase access to microloans for women, promoting self-employment," HDFC Bank said.

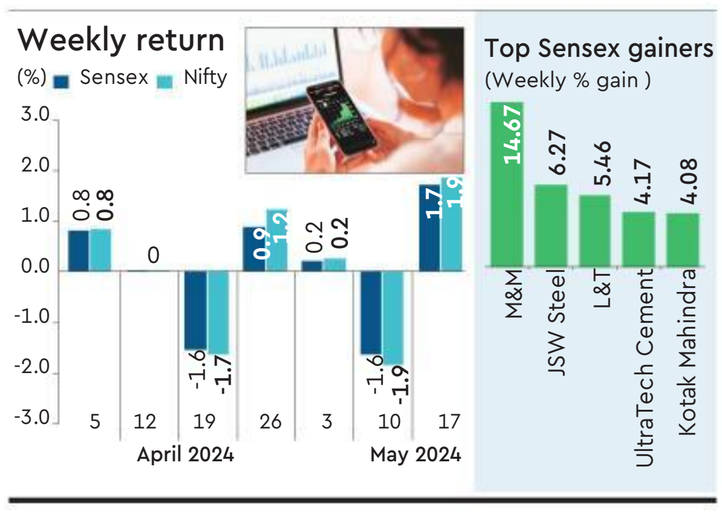
Indices see best week in 3 months



FIIs turn buyers after 11 sessions

VIVEK KUMAR M
Mumbai, May 17

BENCHMARK INDICES saw their best week in more than three months as both the key indices rose around 2%. Foreign institutional investors (FIIs) also turned net buyers for the first time in 12 sessions on Friday, which could potentially further boost investor sentiment further.

The Sensex rose 1,252.56 points or 1.7% for the week to 73,917.03 points, and the Nifty 50 rose 410.90 points or 1.9% to 22,466.10 points. The overall market capitalisation of BSE-listed stocks also rose by ₹13.7 trillion to hit a fresh lifetime high of ₹410.24 trillion.

Out of the last six sessions, benchmark indices have risen for five sessions. On Friday, the Sensex and Nifty 50 rose 0.3% each.

FIIs net bought shares worth ₹1,616.79 crore on Friday, as per provisional data, after selling over ₹30,000 crores worth of shares earlier in the month. Meanwhile, domestic institutional investors net bought ₹1,556.25 crore worth of shares, taking their tally for the month to nearly ₹34,000 crore.

Uncertainty over the number of seats, the ruling party can win in the general elections had triggered a nearly 2% correction in benchmark indices last week. This week, the market recovered the entire losses.

Rohit Srivastava, founder of Indiacharts, said that the market trend so far this year has been swinging from extreme positive to extreme negative. He believes that the phase is over now. This was also reflected in India VIX's movement, which fell for the fourth consecutive session on Friday.

Sentiment improved after the Election Commission released data on Thursday showing voter turnout in the first four phases was 66.95%. Earlier data indicated lower voter turnout compared to the previous election, which was seen as negative for the ruling party.

Apart from general elections, hopes of a rate cut by the US Federal Reserve following the latest inflation data likely further aided investor sentiment. For the first time in 2024, US inflation came in below expectations, fuelling hopes of a rate cut in September. Market participants expect the positive trend to continue but do not foresee sharp gains given that the indices are closer to their lifetime high levels.

Srivastava said that selling pressure due to uncertainty around elections seem to be largely over given that the market has bounced back from the support level of 21,800 points level multiple times.

Analysts said this triggered short-covering on Thursday amid the expiry of weekly Nifty 50 derivatives contracts.

Shrikant Chouhan, executive vice president and head of equity research at Kotak Securities, said Nifty can inch closer to its lifetime high level of 22,800 points level in the short-term.

Broader markets outperformed benchmark indices this week as BSE Smallcap index jumped nearly 5%, while the BSE Midcap index rose 4.4%.

RBI gets 60% more bids at VRR auction

SACHIN KUMAR
Mumbai, May 17

THE RESERVE BANK of India (RBI) on Friday received bids worth ₹1.95 trillion from banks, against the notified amount of ₹1.25 trillion, at the variable rate repo (VRR) auction, reflecting a high demand for cash from lenders amid tight liquidity conditions. Banks borrowed the amount at a weighted average rate of 6.68%.

The average system liquidity slipped into deficit of ₹1.2 trn for the first 15 days of May

After staying surplus in the first half of April, liquidity in the banking system has returned to deficit in May as government spending declined due to ongoing general elections. The average system liquidity slipped into deficit of ₹1.2 trillion for the first 15 days of May, against a surplus of ₹20,240 crore in April.

"System liquidity, albeit being in deficit, will get comfort from the faster pace of growth of deposits compared to credit which is seen currently. Further, slower pace of accretion in currency in circulation compared to same period of last year is not expected to put any untoward pressure on liquidity," said Dipanwita Mazumdar, an economist with Bank of Baroda.

With liquidity swinging from surplus to deficit, the central bank has also stepped up it efforts to infuse short-term funds into the system. The RBI conducted 14-day VRR auction for a notified amount of ₹1.75 trillion on May 3 for which it received bids worth ₹1.57 trillion. It held another 4-day VRR auction for a notified amount of ₹1 trillion on April 29 for which banks placed bids worth ₹97,000 crore.

A repo auction is conducted by the central bank to inject liquidity into the system. Banks can obtain liquidity overnight through RBI's marginal standing facility when interbank liquidity dries up.

On Friday, there was a reversal of three VRR auctions conducted by the RBI on May 3, May 13 and May 14, totalling worth ₹2.5 trillion, in which banks parked ₹2.33 trillion.

Sebi proposes 20% Indian equity cap for foreign FoF

AKSHATA GORDE
Mumbai, May 17

THE SECURITIES AND Exchange Board of India (Sebi) on Friday proposed allowing investments by mutual fund houses in overseas fund of funds (FoF) that hold up to 20% of their corpus in Indian securities.

"There appears to be merit in considering to allow investment by Indian mutual funds in such overseas funds that have limited exposure to Indian securities," Sebi said in a consultation paper on its website, inviting public comments on its proposal by June 7.

A 'fund of fund' investing in an overseas product where the Indian exposure exceeds 20% will be given six months to monitor the underlying fund for any rebalancing. During this period, the mutual fund cannot make fresh investments in the foreign fund and may resume investment only when the India exposure falls below the 20% limit.

The market regulator hopes to address issues such as the alignment of fund labels and cost efficiency for the end investors, it said. "Putting adequate safeguards for such investments would keep Indian FoFs true to their label as well as enable investors to take desired exposure in overseas securities," Sebi said.

Sebi hopes to address issues like alignment of fund labels and cost efficiency for end investors

"If an overseas Fund of Funds (FoFs) offered by an Indian mutual fund invests in overseas MF/UTs with a significant allocation to Indian securities, it may not be true to the fund's label, and may not reflect the overall purpose of investing in such FoFs," Sebi said.

Further, direct investment in Indian securities by an investor would be cost effective rather than investing in Indian securities through an overseas FoF offered by Indian mutual funds, it noted.

The move was encouraged by the increasing weightage of Indian securities in international indices, exchange traded funds (ETFs), mutual funds, and unit trusts on the back of "strong economic growth prospects of India", and the need to diversifing Indian mutual fund portfolios, Sebi said.

As of April 30, the MSCI Emerging Markets Index has a little over 18% weight to Indian securities. Similarly, JP Morgan's Emerging Markets Opportunities Fund holds about 15% in Indian investments, according to its latest factsheet as on March 31. Currently, there was ambiguity regarding investments in such FoFs that invest a part of their funds in Indian securities, which deterred mutual funds from investing in those overseas products that invest in a basket of countries, which may include India, Sebi noted.

Double blow to Kejriwal and AAP

FIR: Maliwal alleges brutal attack by CM aide

Swati is the face of BJP conspiracy: AAP hits back

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
New Delhi, May 17

AAP MP Swati Maliwal leaves Delhi CM Arvind Kejriwal's residence after recreation of the May 13 incident by police, in New Delhi on Friday ANI

CRISIS DEEPENED WITHIN the Aam Aadmi Party on Friday after the Delhi Police filed an FIR against Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal's aide Bibhav Kumar in connection with the alleged assault on the party's Rajya Sabha MP Swati Maliwal on Monday. The FIR states that she was allegedly slapped seven-right times, "kicked on the chest, stomach and pelvis area", and threatened that she would be killed.

On Friday, teams of the Delhi Police (North district), the Special Cell and the Forensic Science Laboratory Rohini went to Kejriwal's home to review CCTV footage, collect evidence and recreate the crime scene.

According to the FIR, on May 13, Maliwal visited Kejriwal's camp office at his Civil Lines residence, where she called and messaged Kumar, who manages the CM's appointments, but couldn't reach him. It states that since Kumar was not present at the CM's house, she went inside the residential area "through the main door, as she has always done in the past year", and told the CM's staff that she was there to meet him. She was told that the CM was "present in the house", and was asked to wait in the drawing room. A staff member then came and told her that the CM was coming to meet her, the FIR states. As she waited for the CM in the drawing room, Kumar "suddenly barged in, screamed at her without provocation and abused her", before allegedly assaulting her, the FIR states.

The FIR is based on Maliwal's complaint, which was recorded by senior police officers on Thursday, three days after the incident.

"PS of CM, Bibhav Kumar, barged in suddenly... he started screaming without provocation and abused me... he slapped me seven to eight times while I continued screaming... I was screaming for help again and again but no one came," the FIR states.

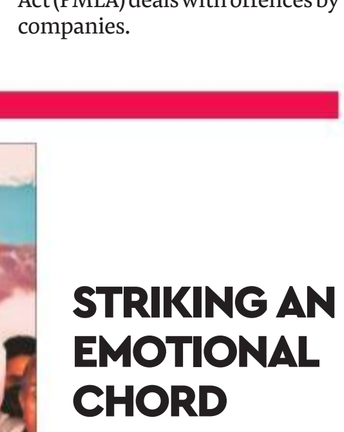
Maliwal alleged that Kumar threatened her with dire consequences when she dialled the police PCR number, 112. He left the room before coming back with security personnel, who "asked me to leave the premises" at his behest, the FIR states. She also alleged that he told her "teri haddi-pasli tudva denge aur aisi jagah gaadenge ki pata bhi nahi chalega (we will break your bones and bury you where no one can find you)".

Maliwal said that she went to her old residence in Civil Lines after the incident and was accompanied by a few police personnel, who had come to the CM's house. Police then booked her an autorickshaw to take her home, but she decided to go to Civil Lines police station to report the matter. While she informed the SHO about the incident, she left the station without filing a written complaint as she was in pain, states the FIR.

The FIR states, "He (Kumar) pounced on me... brutally dragged and deliberately pulled my shirt up... I hit my head on the centre table... he kicked me on my chest, stomach and pelvis area... I told him that I was on my periods but he continued to attack me with full force again and again."

Named accused by ED in liquor policy case chargesheet

NIRBHAY THAKUR
New Delhi, May 17



Delhi chief minister Arvind Kejriwal

PROBING ALLEGED MONEY laundering in the Delhi excise policy case, the Enforcement Directorate, for the first time, Friday named the Aam Aadmi Party and its leader and Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal as accused in a chargesheet – prosecution complaint – on the case under investigation.

The ED filed its seventh supplementary chargesheet in the Rouse Avenue Court of Special Judge Kaveri Baweja. She is likely to take a call on its cognisance Saturday because she had left the court by the time it was filed.

This is the first time that Kejriwal, who was arrested on March 21 by the ED and granted interim bail until June 1 by the Supreme Court last week, has been mentioned as an accused in an ED prosecution complaint. This is also the first time that a political party has been mentioned as an accused by the ED in a case.

The ED made its move a day after Additional Solicitor General S V Raju told the Supreme Court that the AAP would be added as an accused in the case.

Appearing for the ED, Raju said the ED had evidence to show that Kejriwal demanded a bribe of ₹100 crore which went to the AAP for its Goa election expense and that there was "direct evidence" of his stay there in a 7-star hotel being partly funded by an accused who received a portion of the bribe.

Raju had earlier told a Delhi court: "AAP is a beneficiary which exists as a company. Every person responsible for the conduct of the company is responsible... apart from being liable as an individual, the CM is also vicariously liable (as national convener of the party)."

Section 70 of the stringent Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) deals with offences by companies.

Cong-SP will bulldoze Ram temple: Modi

VIKAS PATHAK
New Delhi, May 17

IF THE CONGRESS and the Samajwadi Party come to power, they will use a bulldozer on the Ram temple at Ayodhya, send Ram Lalla back to the tent, Prime Minister Narendra Modi said at Barabanki in Uttar Pradesh Friday adding that they could take a leaf from UP CM Yogi Adityanath's bulldozer book.

On the same day, he said in UP's Hamirpur that the Congress is going to end SC, ST and OBC reservation for its vote bank that indulges in "vote jihad".

"If SP and Congress come to power, they will send Ram Lalla back to the tent and use a bulldozer on the temple. Is this what they want to learn from Yogi ji? They should take tuition from Yogi ji as to where a bulldozer has to be used and where it must not be). The Congress is preparing to reverse the Supreme Court judgment on Ram temple," Modi said.

He added: "What are Congress and SP saying? They first placed Ram Lalla in a tent. To please their vote bank, they said instead of a temple, construct a dharmshala, school or hospital there. When the temple got constructed, such is the poison in their belly — I don't know what enmity they have with Ram Lalla — they rejected the invitation for the consecration. A big leader of SP says on Ram Navami that Ram temple is bekaar (useless)."

Leave alone voting for them, you should punish them in such a manner that they lose their security deposit, Modi added.

Amit Shah predicts saffron surge in Odisha

UNION HOME MINISTER Amit Shah on Friday predicted a saffron surge in Odisha, claiming that the BJP will win over 75 Assembly and 15 Lok Sabha seats.

In response to Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge's assertion at an election rally that the BJP was struggling to reach 200 seats, Shah countered by saying that Prime Minister Narendra Modi had already secured 270 Lok Sabha seats in the first four phases of elections and was now aiming for 400.

Lok Sabha and Assembly elections in Odisha are being conducted simultaneously, with the state having 21 Lok Sabha and 147 assembly seats.

Addressing a rally, Shah said, "With more than 15 MPs and 75 MLAs, Odisha is set to become saffron. This election is to make Narendra Modi the PM for the third time." Shah criticised the BJD government, accusing it of insulting Odisha's 'asmita' (pride) daily.

"Odisha should be ruled in Odia language not in Tamil," Shah said, referring to chief minister Naveen Patnaik's close aide VK Pandian, who hails from the southern state.

Speaking on Odia language, culture and heritage, Shah said, "Modi has appointed a tribal daughter of Odisha, Droupadi Murmu, as the country's President. Till now, the Congress had never appointed a tribal President." He highlighted Modi's promotion of Odia culture on international stages, including the showcasing of the Konark wheel at the G20 summit.

Prestige fight for the royal couple of BJP in Odisha

SUJIT BISOYI
Bhubaneswar, May 17

WHILE THERE ARE several families with more than one member contesting in the ongoing elections, a husband and wife pair are rare. One such pair are Kanak Vardhan Singh Deo and wife Sangeeta Singh Deo — the former BJP's candidate for the Patnagarh Assembly seat in Odisha; the latter the party's nominee for the Balangir Lok Sabha constituency, under which Patnagarh falls.

It is not a first for the Singh Deo couple though, having contested the same constituencies respectively for the BJP in 2019 too. While Sangeeta had won, Kanak Vardhan, the scion of the erstwhile Patna princely state, had lost, after holding the seat for 24 years.

From 2000 to 2009, when the BJD and BJP were in a coalition, Kanak Vardhan had an easy run, with people in the area still feeling fealty for him as the "Maharaja". He also managed key portfolios like industries and urban development in the alliance government.

Kanak Vardhan's prestige further grew when, in 2009, amidst a BJP rout in Odisha following its split with the BJD, he managed to retain his seat. He was among only six BJP candidates who won the Assembly elections that year.

The BJD failed to dislodge Kanak Vardhan in 2009 as well as 2014, despite roping in Prakriti Devi Singh Deo, another scion of the Patna royal family and the sister-in-law of Kanak Vardhan. In 2013, Kanak Vardhan was appointed Odisha BJP president and continued in the post till January 2016.

In 2019, finally, the BJD got its numbers right against Kanak Vardhan, finding the answer in caste. It fielded Saroj Meher, belonging to the Meher community that has significant numbers in Patnagarh. In an election where the BJP gained in strength in Odisha, though the BJD still swept the Assembly polls, Meher defeated Kanak Vardhan by 11,159 votes.

Since then, Kanak Vardhan, 67, has been more or less parked in the constituency, seeking to regain his lost ground, even distancing himself from state politics. The BJD has repeated its sitting MLA Meher from the seat.

Meher is not just facing a BJP that has grown stronger in the past five years, but also a candidate — the Congress's Anil Meher — who may split his community's votes. While the Congress is weak in Odisha, in Patnagarh, it bagged around 15% votes in 2019. The narrow 2019 victory margin will also weigh on the BJD's Meher.

What he will be counting on is that chief minister Naveen Patnaik contesting from the adjacent Kantabanji Assembly seat will galvanise BJD voters in Patnagarh as well.

BJD star campaigner and Patnaik's aide VK Pandian campaigned for Meher recently. On the BJP side, Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Union Home Amit Shah have campaigned for both Kanak Vardhan and Sangeeta.

Ramachandra Suna, a voter in Khaprakhol, says: "The fight is mainly between the BJD and BJP in Patnagarh... but the votes the Congress gets will be a deciding factor."

Siba Prasad Panda, a retired teacher in Patnagarh, says: "The Maharaja used to command respect among a majority of the voters, irrespective of what he did for the constituency... He is a good human being and remains connected to the people, which helped him win from 1995 till 2019." This time though, Panda adds, the fight is tough.

Sangeeta has also had a good run in the Bolangir Lok Sabha constituency, having won it four times so far – 1998, 1999, 2004 and 2019. In 2009 and 2014, though, she lost to her brother-in-law Kalikesh Singh Deo, a scion of the erstwhile Balangir royal family, fielded by the BJP. Sangeeta got just 13.28% of the votes in 2009, and 22.34% in 2014.

This time, Sangeeta, 62, is facing the BJD's Surendra Singh Bhoi, a Congress turncoat, and former minister and actor-politician Manoj Mishra, who is the Congress pick for Balangir. After losing in the 2019 Lok Sabha polls, Kalikesh is contesting Assembly elections now from the Balangir seat, which has been the bastion of his family.

While Kalikesh's absence will be a breather for Sangeeta, CM Patnaik's presence in nearby Kantabanji (which also falls under the Balangir Lok Sabha constituency) has cast a shadow.

High youth unemployment

The top priority of the new government must be to generate more job opportunities

ALTHOUGH INDIA IS the world's fastest growing large economy—with the GDP likely to expand by 7.6% in 2023-24—it faces a serious challenge of dealing with joblessness among the youth. In urban India, the unemployment rate for those between 15-29 years of age is 2.5 times higher at 17 % than the overall rate of 6.7%, according to NSSO's latest quarterly periodic labour force survey for January-March 2024. This is a current weekly status estimate that captures those who sought or were available for work during the reference period of a week preceding the survey. Generating more employment opportunities must definitely be the priority of the new government when it assumes office in June.

The concern is that these double-digit rates of unemployment have not budged from the levels registered in January-March 2023 despite a pick-up in the pace of overall economic activity. This 'stickiness' of youth unemployment rates lends credence to apprehensions of GDP growth not being employment-intensive enough. Although a reserve army of unemployed youth portends serious strains on the social fabric, joblessness rarely figures in public discourse as some employment is being generated, especially in the urban informal sector, which is outside the purview of institutional protection. Much has been made of a steady rise in female labour participation—share of those between 15-29 years of age who had a job or sought one. To be sure, there has been an uptick in participation between January-March 2023 and January-March 2024 but this was matched by an equivalent rise in employment, leaving the rate of unemployment for young females stable at 22.7%. More importantly, these jobs have been largely in self-employment, including as helpers in household enterprises, which are bound to raise serious questions regarding the quality of employment being generated in urban India despite robust economic growth.

High rates of joblessness are bound to trigger frustration among the youth over waiting endlessly for suitable openings especially in the government which offer the prospect of greater security. But this cannot be an indefinite wait which can force them to accept even lowly positions of peons and police constables for which they are over-qualified. Or seek opportunities abroad, even in war-torn zones like Israel and Russia. The rising incidence of young Indians leaving the country for better-paying blue collar jobs in diverse countries like Finland, Uzbekistan, Japan and Europe has been documented. Several state governments like Haryana and Kerala are actively facilitating this process as well. This is also taking place illegally to the US. While it is possible to interpret this drive as Indian nationals exploring opportunities in the global workplace due to labour shortages, the desperation to get out stems from unemployment.

The upshot is that faster economic growth must translate into more opportunities to absorb the millions of young job seekers who enter the labour market every year. Employment-intensive growth is bound to lower double-digit rates of youth unemployment. Towards this end, the implementation of much-needed labour reforms should be a major policy focus of the incoming government. India Inc must be incentivised to invest in skilling programmes and internships to generate more employment opportunities. Flexible labour markets help in enabling millions of young people to shift from agriculture to manufacturing and services jobs in urban India rather than desperately accept whatever is available or seek temporary work opportunities abroad.

How investors can prevent another Paramount fiasco

CHRIS HUGHES
Bloomberg

The drama surrounding the future of Hollywood studio Paramount Global turns on one of the most fundamental questions in mergers and acquisitions: Should shareholders be treated equally in a takeover? Paramount's share capital is oddly divided between a small portion of voting stock and a large block of non-voting stock. The company's controlling shareholder, Shari Redstone, has been considering a sale of her majority holding in the voting shares. These were worth nearly $700 million at Thursday's close, out of the firm's total market value of around $9 billion.

A consortium led by David Ellison, founder of Top Gun: Maverick producer Skydance Media LLC, has been trying to take the helm. It made a controversial proposal to secure Redstone's controlling holding and then merge Paramount with Skydance, with the latter valued at $5 billion. The mooted price for the Redstone holding company that owns the stake is around $2 billion. That's still a lot less than making an offer to buy all the voting and non-voting shares.

Cue an epic row.

The other stockholders are cross at the possibility of Redstone receiving a big cash payday while they would get a merger that's hard to see generating a comparable premium. Some would rather receive a clean takeover that paid out for everyone. Rival Sony Group Corp. and buyout firm Apollo Global Management Inc. have also made an approach, as has media mogul Byron Allen. Redstone has tasked a subcommittee of the board with weighing it all up.

The argument that such a transaction would be wrong goes roughly like this: While you invest in a company dominated by a controlling shareholder at your own risk, it very much matters to you who that controlling shareholder is. You deserve the chance to sell at a decent price if the controller changes.

Hence most major markets outside the US require bidders to make offers to all shareholders and not just one. This so-called mandatory bid rule can kick in if a buyer acquires a holding large enough to confer effective control, say around 30% of the votes. This protects ordinary investors from falling prey to a new controlling shareholder who may pursue a self-serving strategy. But in the US, there's no all-encompassing law forcing any sharing of proceeds. There's just a handful of exceptions. For example, a dominant shareholder couldn't legally sell to a "looter" with foreseeable plans to abuse their power. This isn't going to be easy to prove.

In academic circles, the US approach gets the more supportive hearing. The mandatory bid rule stands accused of impeding the efficient functioning of the market by thwarting bidders who can't afford to buy the company whole. This supposedly hinders control passing to new stewards who might run things better with, say, a 40% stake. Another criticism is that the mandatory bid rule wrongly harmonises the takeover price.

Paramount is, of course, an exceptional situation due the lopsided mix of voting and non-voting shares. But try telling its shareholders that their pain is the cost of investing in a market that's theoretically more efficient than Europe's. The intensity of feeling here shows how much investors value a sense of fairness in M&A, regardless of what may be legally permissible and predictable.

It would be naive to suggest that US corporate law would or should adopt anything like the rules seen elsewhere. But Paramount may influence how investors approach companies going public. The situation reinforces the idea that dual-class share structures should be time-limited. Incoming investors could also do worse than push for tag-along rights to stay with the listed company.

Feeding India amid climate fight

REENA SINGH
Senior fellow, ICRIER
Views are personal

IN 2023, HUMANITY crossed the 1.5°C threshold, a critical limit often seen as a guardrail for climate stability. According to the World Meteorological Organization, this year could be even hotter. In India, the mercury has climbed by 0.7°C since 1901, while the monsoon rains — that fed 50% of the country's agriculture lands — have dwindled by 6%, particularly over the fertile Indo-Gangetic Plains and the lush Western Ghats. Yet, paradoxically, central India is witnessing more intense deluges during the monsoon. This climate conundrum presents a Gordian knot for policymakers: the imperative to green the economy and bolster climate resilience tugs against the need for new policies that may weigh on short-term growth.

India's third national communication and initial adaptation communication to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change in 2023 has projected climate change impacts on major crops. Despite ambitious pledges under the intermediate emission stabilisation pathway (RCP 4.5 pathway — where average temperature is projected to rise by 2.4 °C by the end of the century), crop losses in India could bleed the economy $28.6-54.8 billion between 2030 and 2050. These losses (both food and non-food crops) could be ballooning to $612 billion-1 trillion by 2050-2100. The losses would be much higher under high emission pathway RCP 8.5. With nearly 45.8% of India's workforce tilling the soil, contributing 17.58% to the GDP, and feeding the world's largest population, the stakes are sky-high. The climate crisis, however, is a game of Russian roulette, with the most marginalised farmers facing the greatest peril.

The policy compass, thus far, has pointed towards adaptation: crop insurance and the quest for seeds that can withstand climate's fury. Last year, 60% of wheat fields were sown with heat-resistant varieties, a figure set to rise to 80%. Yet, there's an elephant in the room: agriculture's own carbon footprint. India's vast croplands (approximately 169 million hectares), largest bovine population (300 million), and the world's largest rice-producing area (45 million hectare) have made it a breadbasket. But it has also made India a top emitter, responsible for 13% of global agricultural greenhouse gases (GHGs), according to Climate Watch 2023.

The GHG emissions from India's farms have four horsemen: methane from waterlogged rice fields and bovine belches; nitrous oxide from fertilisers and manure; methane and nitrous oxide emissions from crop burning; and the often-overlooked carbon-dioxide (CO_2) from energy-guzzling irrigation and application of inputs such as fertilisers and pesticides. Our study at ICRIER (Reena Singh and Ashok Gulati) paints a fuller picture, including these downstream emissions. The results (graphic) reveal a climb from 448 million tonnes (MT) of CO_2 equivalent in 2000 to 621 MT in 2019 — the most recent data available with national GHG inventory. If we include these, agriculture's share of emissions balloons to 19.83%. And if we further include emissions from transport, food-processing and packaging, the fabric of the problem only thickens.

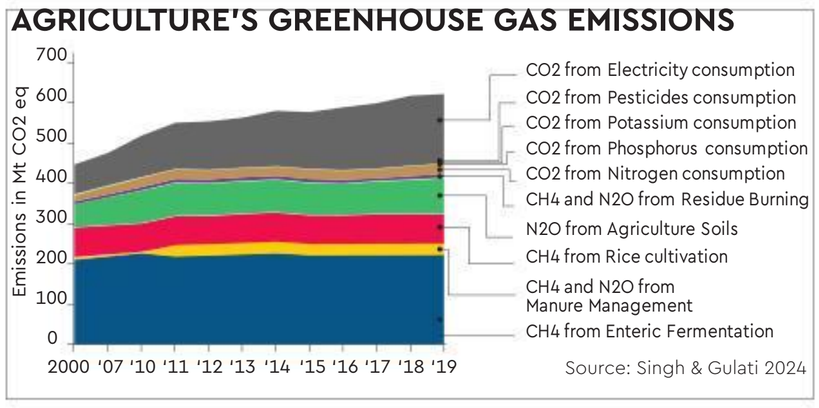
Agriculture is the kingpin of nitrous oxide and methane, gases 273 and 27.2 times mightier, respectively, than CO_2 in their warming prowess in 100 years' time horizon. In India, the sector is the chief culprit for 73% and 75% of these emissions respectively. In 20 years, methane will be more impactful and could warm the temperature 80.8 times more than CO_2. Thus, sharp reduction in methane emissions from rice paddies and bovines can deliver a net cooling effect within a relatively short period. Despite this, agriculture has been given a hall pass from climate negotiations in the country.

Given food security and livelihood needs, India has exempted agriculture from its stringent energy reduction targets. Yet, this leniency, fuelled by subsidies for power, fertilisers, and food (through assured procurement of rice at minimum support price), threatens to veer the country off its course towards net-zero emissions by 2070. The way forward calls for a radical transformation — eschewing old, carbon-intensive methods for innovative, low-carbon practices. This pivot is essential not just for sustainability but for survival.

The path forward is clear: slash greenhouse gases, foster a greener agriculture, and harness new technologies and policies. The mantra is to avoid the carbon-heavy sins of the past: choose direct seeded rice over flooded fields, balanced fertilisation over nitrogen excess, diversify crops away from rice, and penetrate advanced technologies to the fields, for example, precision agriculture, sex-sorted AI semen technology, etc. Subsidies should no longer prop up the villains of this climate tale but support the heroes: legumes, oilseeds, maize, vegetables, fruits, millets, and low-carbon food-grains. This will not only reduce Indian agriculture's carbon footprint but also lead to better health outcomes through a diverse range of nutritious foods, and help India achieve the nutritional target under the sustainable development goal by 2030.

As carbon finance takes root, offering a green bounty for those who tread lightly on the earth, it beckons farmers to join the crusade for a low-carbon future. The incentive? Carbon credits, a currency for the climate-conscious, rewarding those who sow the seeds of change.

AGRICULTURE'S GREENHOUSE GAS EMISSIONS



The US, India, and deterring China

ANITA INDER SINGH
Founding professor, Centre for Peace and Conflict Resolution, New Delhi

Even if the US takes an "allies first" approach in the Indo-Pacific to keep Chinese expansion under control, it is still in non-aligned India's favour

FOR THE US, it is allies first in the Indo-Pacific, not non-aligned India. The US wants to deter Chinese expansionism in Asia. In early April, China's provocation to the Philippines, one of its oldest post-1945 allies, was the immediate precursor to the idea of creating a deterrent. China then fired water cannons towards Philippine vessels in the South China Sea. Chinese ships and planes had also been crossing the Taiwan Strait for some time.

The US had already been constructing a new quadrilateral group—the "Squad"—distinct from the Quadrilateral Security Dialogue in which India is the only non-ally. Japan, Australia, and the US are the other members. For the moment, the Squad will comprise old allies dating from the cold war, including the US, Japan, Australia, and the Philippines.

The Quad is not about deterrence but discusses certain issues. In terms of deterring China with other members and economic capacity to do so, India is the weakest link there. Now, the US and its allies are highlighting military substance. Joint statements issued after the past three Quad leaders' summits have included references to "peace" and "stability" but have never mentioned deterrence.

Japan and the Philippines are now the pillars of the US' anti-China military deterrent. The new deterrent highlights the meaning of an alliance with binding commitments. The Philippines reinforces both commitment and strategic alignment to the Squad. It is also in the midst of a $35 billion military modernisation program and aims to become a fully-fledged "middle power" with technologically advanced naval and air forces.

The Philippines may give the US and other Squad members greater access to its northernmost provinces, which are just 88 miles away from Taiwan. Such access could become a military necessity in the event of China trying to invade Taiwan, although all countries recognise Taiwan as part of China under the One-China Principle and do not accord it diplomatic recognition as a state.

The allies also want to deter China's intimidating "grey zone" tactics in the South China Sea. Such tactics are threatening and raise fears of war. The US has therefore reiterated its mutual defence treaty obligations, dating from 1951, to the Philippines. Washington will also coordinate various diplomatic, economic and military counter-measures to confront Chinese imperialism in the international waters of the South China Sea. In the meantime, the Squad sends a reminder to China that the Philippines is not alone. Apart from being an US treaty ally, the Philippines also has special military agreements with Australia and Japan. Together, all four countries will strengthen interoperability and coordination to deter China's territorial prowling.

Unlike Europe, the US' Asian allies are already making their military capabilities stronger, but they cannot replace US power

The Squad will be further strengthened by the end of Japan's post-1945 pacifism and decision to mitarise after Russia's invasion of Ukraine in 2022. As one of the most economically advanced Asian countries, Japan is expected to become the world's third largest military power within the next five years and will establish itself as Asia's counterpoise to China. The Quad will remain, but India's top priorities will still be its border disputes with China and Pakistan.

Neither the US nor its Asia-Pacific allies can take peace for granted. Washington and its NATO allies have lost some credibility by their slow delivery of weapons to a war-ravaged Ukraine. That stands out as an example of the military and humanitarian disasters that have occurred when the US and its its divided European allies have failed to give timely aid to Ukraine against an aggrandising Russia which has broken international law.

"Ukraine today may be East Asia tomorrow", warned Japanese prime minister Fumio Kishida in June 2022. The US' Asian allies have joined Tokyo in condemning Russia's assault on Ukraine and Japan has imposed sanctions on Russia.

In contrast, Indo-US relations have not been at their best, in view of India's refusal to condemn Russia's invasion of Ukraine and Delhi's continued buying of large quantities of Russian oil, for which it is paying in Chinese yuan, US dollars and UAE dirhams. Recent Indian hopes of a Quad summit and Biden's attendance at the Republic Day parade on 26 January were dashed because of his busy schedule, which included his March 7 State of the Union address and Kishida's official visit to Washington on April 10.

At another level, the US State Department chronicles India's declining democracy, much to Delhi's annoyance. Additionally, the US and Canada believe that Indian intelligence masterminded assassination operations against their citizens for extremism. In 2020 Australian Security Intelligence concluded that Indian intelligence officers carried out surveillance of Khalistani separatists in their country. New Delhi's denials and expressed willingness to cooperate in investigations have yet to clear the air with any of these friendly countries.

Unlike Europe, the US' Asian allies are already strengthening their military capabilities, but they cannot replace US power. China is the main security threat to many of its Asian neighbours and to the stability of the Indo-Pacific.

Any deterrence against China, involving the US and its Asian allies, will be of help to non-aligned India. Strategically autonomous India should upgrade its own border defences. It should also pay attention to the east, as its distant Asian friends, with whom it does not have strong military or economic ties, tighten old alliances with the US and each other.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The subaltern vote

Getting the subaltern votes is absolutely crucial to winning the ongoing Lok Sabha election. This time, subaltern voters seem to worry that the Bhartiya Janta Party (BJP) may change the Constitution and end reservation if it gets the requisite majority to do so. The 400+ seats aimed by the BJP has given the Indian National Developmental Inclusive Alliance an opportunity to try to wean the subalterns away from the BJP. At the same time, subaltern secularism grows from the soil organically—'organically' being the operative word. It blends secularism and social justice and makes a political creed suitable for our heterogeneous population. It should prevail for advancing the ideals of justice, freedom and democracy. It is hoped that the subalterns—the Dalits, the Adivasis and OBCs—overwhelmingly vote for parties and candidates representing secularism and social justice.

Remembering Vineet Nayyar

Apropos of "A corporate statesman", without doubt, Vineet Nayyar was a larger than life figure for the Indian business landscape. He was an eminent civil servant who also served the World Bank and GAIL and later started his journey into the private sector with HCL. Satyam's acquisition was successfully spearheaded by him, and it saved face for for the government and other stakeholders. He played his part in establishing Mahindra University at the old Satyam campus. His and his wife's philanthropic work for education will always be remembered fondly.

What's the Swift?

Born on May 25, 2005, it is one of India's most popular cars. It crossed the 500,000-sales mark in 2010, 1 million in 2013, 1.5 million in 2016, 2 million in 2018, 2.5 million in 2021, and is about to touch 3 million cumulative sales.

The second-generation Swift arrived on August 17, 2011, and the third-generation on February 8, 2018. The fourth-generation, in these photos, arrived on May 9.

What are the changes?

Everything has changed.

Design: The first-generation model looked 'youthful', the second generation looked 'fast', the third generation was 'urban', and this fourth generation looks 'global'.

The 'wraparound character line' on the bonnet makes it look wider than it is, the projector headlamps have a 'smoky' finish, and DRLs are shaped like a boomerang.

The Swift's signature silhouette has been retained — it looked like a MINI Cooper back in 2005, it looks like a MINI Cooper today.

Cabin: It's all-black, with piano black and matte silver touches. The central touchscreen is responsive and bright, and all controls are in easy reach. The flat-bottom steering wheel looks cool. But the overall look-and-feel of the cabin isn't in the same league as the Baleno or the i20. Plastic on the doors and even dashboard appears flimsy. Six airbags are now standard.

Engine: It's powered by Maruti Suzuki's new, sustainability-focused Z-Series engine — three cylinders, 1,197 cc petrol, 60 kW (81.58 PS), and 111.7 Nm torque. Claimed fuel efficiency is 25.75 km/litre of the AGS (auto gearshift) and 24.8 km/litre of MT (manual transmission). It's also far greener, with 12% lower carbon dioxide emissions than previous model.

How does it drive?

The Swift was famous for its racecar-like handling and cornering, and the new model is no different. I drove the ZXi+ variant fitted with 185/65 R15 tyres up the steep inclines of Nandi Hills — which has some really tight corners — and the car drove sticking to the road, with traction barely lost. What I did feel at loss was some power — the AGS is a slow shifter, and that lag led to lacklustre driving uphill. When I took the same road in the MT, there was no such apparent loss of power.

Now comes the surprise — driving in this manner (uphill, downhill, sharp cornering, some traffic, and a bit of highway) the Swift AGS returned a stupendous fuel efficiency of 21 km/litre. Now that's something no SUV, or any hatchback that is so peppy, can match.

What about pricing?

Ex-showroom prices start at ₹6.49 lakh (LXi MT), and the AGS model starts at ₹7.79 lakh. Top-end models tested for this review are expensive — ZXi+ MT for ₹8.99 lakh and the ZXi+ AGS for ₹9.49 lakh (on-road about ₹11 lakh). That's where the Swift faces a big challenge — as it goes up against small SUVs such as Hyundai Exter (₹6.13-10.28 lakh) and Tata Punch (₹6.13-10.2 lakh). It's good value, but could have been a solid deal if priced about ₹50,000 lesser.

COMPETITORS

Hyundai Grand i10 NIOS

It feels smaller outside, and is comparatively low on fuel efficiency. But it's also available as a CNG option.

₹5.92-8.56 lakh

Hyundai Exter

An SUV, it's priced close to the Swift. It drives very well, feels more premium, and is also available as a CNG.

₹6.13-10.28 lakh

Hyundai i20

It's far more premium, but is also expensive. Its automatic gearbox is iVT (much more responsive than Swift's AMT).

₹7.04-11.21 lakh

Maruti Suzuki Baleno

It is more premium inside, and also has a CNG option, but the Swift appears to have a better ride & handling.

₹6.66-9.88 lakh

Tata Punch

The Punch, an SUV, was India's largest selling car in March and April 2024. It's also available in a CNG option.

₹6.13-10.2 lakh

DISTINGUISHED GENTLEMAN'S RIDE

Bajaj takes the DGR from 10 cities to 32

Triumph's Sunday ride has gone pan-India

VIKRAM CHAUDHARY

THANKS TO THE Bajaj-Triumph tie-up, the latter's Distinguished Gentleman's Ride — to raise funds for prostate cancer research and men's health — has gone pan-India.

Till a couple of years ago, the DGR was held in about 10 cities — the 10-odd dealerships of Triumph India — but this year (on May 19) it will be held in more than 32 cities.

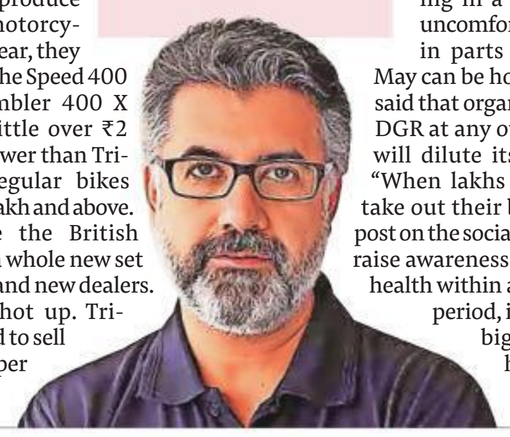
Sumeet Narang, president, Probiking, Bajaj Auto, told FE that the expected participation this year will be 2,500 riders from 32-plus cities. "It's far more than previous years," he said. "With the launch of Triumph Speed 400 and Scrambler 400 X, we have added new dealerships, and they drive events such as the DGR."

Triumph-Bajaj

In 2020, Britain's Triumph and India's Bajaj tied up to produce midsize motorcycles. Last year, they launched the Speed 400 and Scrambler 400 X priced a little over ₹2 lakh, far lower than Triumph's regular bikes priced ₹8 lakh and above. This gave the British company a whole new set of buyers, and new dealers.

Sales shot up. Triumph used to sell 100 bikes per month, which in the last quarter shot up to 2,500 units per month.

ON MAY 19, OVER 2,500 TRIUMPH RIDERS IN 32 CITIES WILL RIDE TO RAISE AWARENESS ABOUT MEN'S HEALTH AND PROSTATE CANCER.
SUMEET NARANG, PRESIDENT, PROBIKING, BAJAJ AUTO



DGR 2024

Globally, 80,000 riders in 120 countries will participate in DGR 2024, for which $80,000 have been raised, expected to reach $110,000.

In India, $5,113 have been raised till now (as per the DGR website).

"You don't buy a Triumph to ride from point A to B. You buy into the experience; you become part of the community," Narang said. "It's the community that drives events such as the DGR — now in its 11th year."

How to participate?

You can register through the DGR website or Triumph dealerships. While fundraising isn't mandatory, you can make a donation and receive unique rewards. On the day of the ride, you have to get onto your motorcycle, join other riders, dapper up, and take a photo or two.

May is hot!

The DGR began in the West where May is cool and riding in a suit isn't uncomfortable. But in parts of India, May can be hot. Narang said that organising the DGR at any other time will dilute its impact. "When lakhs of riders take out their bikes and post on the social media to raise awareness on men's health within a 24-hour period, it makes a big impact," he said.

Combine cashbacks with discounts & coupons to maximise savings

SANJEEV SINHA

CREDIT CARD CASHBACK offers not only help us save money, but also give us opportunities to reduce costs on our daily expenses. This could involve shopping, eating outside or even paying your utility bills. However, did you know that with proper planning, you can double your cashback rewards?

Here are some key strategies to maximise cashback rewards on credit cards.

Choose the right card

The first step in maximising your cashback rewards is selecting the right credit card. Different cards offer varying cashback rates based on categories such as groceries, fuel, dining, and more. Adhil Shetty, CEO, Bankbazaar.com, says an individual should identify her spending patterns and choose a card that offers higher cashback percentages on categories where she spends the most. "Additionally, look for cards with welcome bonuses or promotional offers to kickstart your cashback earnings," he says.

Leverage partner offers

Many credit card issuers collaborate with merchants to offer exclusive discounts and increased cashback rates. Keep an eye on your card issuer's website or mobile app for ongoing partner offers. By shopping at partner stores or using partner services, you can often earn double or even triple cashback rewards compared to regular transactions.

Utilise multiplier events

Some credit cards host special events or promotional periods where they offer enhanced cashback rates or multiplier benefits. These events may coincide with festive seasons, shopping festivals, or specific days of the week. Plan your major purchases during these events to capitalise on higher cashbacks and maximise your rewards.

SMART SPENDS

- By shopping at partner stores, you can often earn double or even triple cashback rewards
- Go for cards with welcome bonuses or promotional offers
- Choose cards based on your spending habits to be able to utilise them more

Combine offers and rewards

Smart cardholders know how to stack offers to multiply their benefits. Combine cashback offers with discounts, coupons, and reward points redemption to maximise savings. For example, if your card offers 5% cashback on dining and a restaurant has a 20% discount for cardholders, you effectively save 25% on your bill.

Monitor spending limits and terms

Credit card cashback offers often come with spending limits or conditions such as minimum spend requirements or transaction types eligible for cashback. Stay informed about these terms to ensure you meet the criteria for earning cashback rewards. Splitting purchases strategically or timing big-ticket expenses can help you reach spending thresholds without overspending. Late payments not only incur fees but can also negate your cashback rewards for that billing cycle.

Track and redeem rewards

Regularly monitor your credit card statements and rewards balance to track your cashback earnings accurately. Most card issuers provide online portals or apps where you can view rewards and redemption options. Redeem your cashback rewards wisely, whether as statement credits, gift vouchers, or merchandise, to get the most value out of your earnings.

You can effectively double your cashback rewards and enjoy significant savings on your expenses if you choose the cards based on your spending habits.

Find out how much life cover you need today

Human life value is based on remaining lifetime earnings of an individual

YOUR MONEY

SUNIL KADYAN

DETERMINING THE LIFE cover is the most crucial part in a life insurance policy. It is the amount which will be paid to the nominee in case of the policy holder's death during the policy term. For this, the human life value (HLV) has to be determined based on the estimated future earnings life of the individual.

This attempts to arrive at a cover amount which is equal to the present value of the insured's future earnings, and takes into account various aspects such as after-tax earning, expected number of years the income will be earned, annual estimated increase in income, a discount factor for the future earnings (risk-free like PPF rate), etc.

WAYS TO CALCULATE HUMAN LIFE VALUE

- Need analysis method attempts to arrive at future needs of the beneficiaries and then translates this into death benefit
- In multiple of salary method, the maximum amount of insurance cover is determined as a multiple of salary
- Income replacement method assumes that life insurance should replace the lost earnings of the breadwinner

Methods of calculating HLV

Need analysis method: It attempts to arrive at future needs of the beneficiaries and then translates this into death benefit. This method is generally based on assumptions such as (a) it provides benefits in the period immediately following the death of the insured to offset additional expenses; (b) it supports the normal living expenses of the dependents; (c) it provides long-term income for the retired surviving spouse.

Multiple of salary method: This method is the simplest of all methods. The maximum amount of insurance cover is determined as a multiple of salary. This multiple will depend on the age of the life to be insured and his salary. It assumes that the life insured is the only breadwinner of the family, and the family can live adequately on some percentage of the insured income.

For example, 40-year-old Raju is earning ₹12 lakh a year. His family consists of wife (a homemaker), 10-year-old daughter and retired parents. Applying multiple salary methods, he can take a cover which is 10-15 times of his annual income. The cover would be ₹1.2-1.8 crore.

Income replacement method: Under this method, it is assumed that life insurance should replace the lost earnings of the breadwinner. Here, insurance cover = current annual income x years left to retirement. For example, if you are 40 years old, your yearly salary is ₹15 lakh and you plan to retire at the age of 60 years, the cover you will need is ₹3 crore (₹15 lakh x 20).

By following these methods and considering various factors, one can arrive at an appropriate sum insured that provides adequate financial protection for their loved ones in the event of untimely demise. One should seek advice from a financial advisor or insurance expert who can provide personalised guidance based on one's specific financial situation, goals, and risk tolerance.

'I-T Act needs a degree of simplification'

As on Jan 31, over 500,000 appeals remained pending

PRIYANSH VERMA
New Delhi, May 17

GOKUL CHAUDHRI,
PRESIDENT, TAX, DELOITTE INDIA

TECHNOLOGY SHOULD BE ABLE TO INTERPRET THE WELL-CRAFTED LANGUAGE OF THE LAW, IT SHOULD NOT REQUIRE A HUMAN TO DO SO ALL THE TIME

THE EXTANT INCOME Tax Act requires a "degree of simplification", as over the years the country's direct tax code has become over-layered and complex, Gokul Chaudhri, president, tax, Deloitte India, told FE.

"Separating the tax policy from tax administration could be a helpful reform," he said.

Chaudhri also emphasised on the need for the tax code to be "tech-friendly", which means its various provisions have to be implemented through technology—artificial intelligence or machine learning.

"Technology should be able to interpret the well-crafted language of the law, it should not require a human to do so all the time," he said.

For instance, he said, we are facing an enormous backlog in dispute resolution. Today if a dispute happens, it takes several years to solve it. Hence, AI can solve much of the issue and can be used to give a "predictable outcome" to any dispute based on past orders, he said.

To be sure, as many as 544,205 appeals were pending resolution with the income tax (I-T) department at commissioner (appeals) level as of January 31 this year, and 63,246 at various Income Tax Appellate Tribunals (ITATs), high courts, and the Supreme Court.

"The government can use technology for resolving disputes and streamline the process of determining whether to litigate an appeal or not," Chaudhri said.

FE had reported earlier that the Narendra Modi government, if voted back to power, will implement the long-delayed Direct Taxes Code (DTC) on a priority basis, and that discussions were already underway in the finance ministry in this regard, citing official sources.

On the focus areas for full Budget, Chaudhri said that the government's priority should be to implement the OECD Pillar Two rules, and extend the sunset date for availing the 15% corporate tax benefit by companies for setting up new manufacturing units by two-three years.

Also, the government may consider restoring weighted deductions for R&D expenditure and donations to scientific research institutions that were available in the past.

"By reinstating these tax incentives, India can further foster innovation and position itself as a hub for R&D activities especially for Global Capability Centres," he said.

This will also result in higher substance and eventual increase of substance-based income exclusion for Pillar Two purposes, which will achieve the objective of providing substance-based tax incentives, he noted.

Pillar Two proposes a systematic solution designed to ensure that qualifying MNEs pay a minimum level of tax (agreed at 15%) in each jurisdiction they operate in.

Pillar Two will ensure that multinational enterprises pay a fair share of tax wherever they operate and generate profits in today's digitised and globalised world economy.

India's perspective on Pillar Two goes beyond revenue gains and underscores a profound commitment to ethical governance and avoidance of tax evasion, said Chaudhri. "The implementation of these rules will also promote a culture of integrity and accountability within the international tax landscape."

Meanwhile, on the retrospective levy of GST on the online gaming industry, Chaudhri said that the government needs to proactively define tax rules in a "prospective" manner and avoid stifling innovation in new-age business models by looking at the retrospectivity of the impact. "Retrospective or retroactive outcomes are certainly not good policies," he said.

The Supreme Court is currently hearing several petitions, contesting tax demand notices requiring online gaming firms to remit 28% GST on the full face value of bets. These petitions include a batch of 30 cases filed by online real money gaming enterprises.

They have challenged retrospective GST notifications that demand payment amounting to thousands of crores, calculated at a rate of 28% based on the face value of bets. These cases are currently awaiting adjudication by the Supreme Court.

"In this digital era, businesses that are technology driven are going to generate newer kinds of tax disputes. What the online gaming industry is facing today, may happen with any other sector tomorrow," said Chaudhri.

Bandhan Bank's PAT plunges 93%

THE BANK'S GROSS non-performing asset ratio improved to 3.8% as on March 31 from 7% a year ago. The net non-performing asset ratio fell to 1.1% as on March 31 from 2.2% a year ago.

The bank declared a dividend of ₹1.50 per share. The private lender's shares closed 1% up at ₹181.25 apiece.

FM: Policy support for manufacturing likely

"WE SHOULD NOT try to protect anybody. Sectors that have protected themselves end up getting more ambassador cars," he said, adding that the Indian industry and services will grow and will live up to the potential only if "we trade more".

EV policy: Lower 15% duty likely for early movers

THEY POINTED OUT that they should not be penalised for being early investors in this space. Officials said that the details of the cut-off date for taking into account the break-up of investments would be finalised once the rules are made. The process is on and it will take a couple of months. "A portal will be created where details need to be filled, which can then be examined. Going ahead, imports and investments will also be tracked through it," officials said.

Under the EV policy, global automakers will be allowed to import completely built-up units (CBUs) at a concessional import duty of 15% for vehicles which are priced $35,000 and above for a period of five years. However, they will be required to set up manufacturing facilities in the country within a three-year period. Further, they will need to achieve 25% localisation by the third year and 50% by the fifth year.

For companies which are not opting for this route, CBUs priced more than $40,000 will continue to attract 100% duty and at 70% for those below it.

The 15% concessional import duty is the same which is applicable for completely knocked down (CKD) units, which are assembled in the country.

Companies availing this benefit will have to commit a minimum investment of ₹4,150 crore ($500 million) in India – there's no upper limit on investments.

The duty foregone on the total number of EVs permitted for import will be capped at the investment made or ₹6,484 crore (equal to incentive under the production-linked incentive scheme). Additionally, a maximum of 40,000 EVs at a rate not exceeding 8,000 per year will be allowed if the investment crosses $800 million. The scheme also requires companies to back their commitments with a bank guarantee in lieu of the custom duty forgone, which will be encashed in case of non-compliance with domestic value addition and minimum investment criteria.

HC sets aside arbitral order against SpiceJet

WHILE THE TRIBUNAL had asked Maran to pay Singh and the airline ₹29 crore in penal interest, Singh was asked to refund ₹579 crore plus interest to Maran.

The tribunal, created in 2016, had held that there was no breach of a share sale and purchase agreement reached between Maran and current promoter Singh in late January 2015.

In a relief to Singh, the tribunal had, however, rejected Maran's appeal for damages of ₹1,323 crore from the carrier.

In February 2015, Maran and his investment vehicle, had transferred their 58.46% stake in SpiceJet to Singh for ₹2 along with ₹1,500 crore debt liability, after the airline was grounded due to a severe cash crunch.

As part of the agreement, Maran and Kal Airways had claimed to have paid SpiceJet ₹679 crore for issuing warrants and preference shares.

However, Maran approached the Delhi High Court in 2017, alleging SpiceJet had neither issued convertible warrants and preference shares nor returned the money.

3. Figures for the previous periods have been re-grouped/ rearranged/ restated wherever necessary to make them comparable with those of the current period.

4. The main reasons for the increase in the sales and EBIDTA. The first one is that we got distribution of Bharat rice from Government of India which is the very prestigious project and we were authorised to distribute this commodity in the states of J&K as well as Leh Ladakh, the second one we got GI tag for the state of Jammu and Kashmir for basmati rice and hence our Bulk sales in the domestic market increased considerably.

RANKED 43RD IN A LIST OF WORLD'S 'BEST DISHES'

New court evidence spices up battle for butter chicken

ADITYA KALRA & ARPAN CHATURVEDI
New Delhi, May 17

WITH NEW PHOTOGRAPHIC and video evidence, an Indian court battle over the origins of the world famous butter chicken is set to get spicier.

Two Indian restaurant chains have been sparring since January at the Delhi High Court, both claiming credit for inventing the dish in a lawsuit that has grabbed the attention of social media users, food critics, editorials and TV channels across the globe.

The popular Moti Mahal restaurant chain said it had the sole right to be recognised as the inventor of the curry and demanded its rival, the Daryaganj chain, to stop claiming credit and pay roughly ₹2 crores ($240,000) in damages. Moti Mahal said founder Kundan Lal Gujral created the cream-loaded dish in the 1930s at an eatery in Peshawar, now in Pakistan, before relocating to Delhi.

That "story of invention of butter chicken does not ring true" and is aimed at misleading the court, Daryaganj said in a new, 642-page counter-filing reviewed by Reuters.

Daryaganj says a late member of its founding family, Kundan Lal Jaggi, created the disputed dish when he helmed the kitchen at the relocated Delhi eatery, where Gujral, his friend-cum-partner from Peshawar only handled marketing. Both men are dead, Gujral in 1997 and Jaggi in 2018.

Evidence in the non-public filing includes a black-and-white photograph from 1930s showing the two friends in Peshawar; a 1949 partnership agreement; Jaggi's business card after relocating to Delhi and his 2017 video talking about the dish's origin. By virtue of the friends' partnership, "both parties can claim that their respective ancestors created the dishes," Daryaganj says in the filing, calling the dispute a "business rivalry".

Moti Mahal declined to comment. The judge will next hear the case on May 29. A key point of contention, which the court will have to rule on, is where, when and by whom the dish was first made - by Gujral in Peshawar, Jaggi in New Delhi, or if both should be credited.

Butter chicken is ranked 43rd in a list of world's "best dishes" by TasteAtlas, and bragging rights about who invented it can matter, brand experts said. "Being an inventor has a huge advantage globally and in terms of consumer appeal. You are also entitled to charge more," said Dilip Cherian, an image guru and co-founder of Indian PR firm Perfect Relations.

Moti Mahal operates a franchisee model with over 100 outlets globally. Its butter chicken dishes start at ₹625 in New Delhi, and are priced at $23 in New York.

Late US President Richard Nixon and India's first Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru are among the famous clients to have visited its primary outlet in Delhi. Daryaganj started in 2019 and its butter chicken costs ₹585. It has 10 outlets, mostly in New Delhi, with plans to expand to other Indian cities and Bangkok.

In its 2,752-page Indian lawsuit, Moti Mahal had also accused Daryaganj of copying "the look and feel" of the interiors of its outlets.

Daryaganj has retorted with photographs of restaurant interiors which the judge will review, claiming it is Moti Mahal that has copied its "design of floor tiles". —REUTERS

How Olympian Anjum reunited her love with shooting, painting

MIHIR VASAVDA
Bhopal, May 17

ANJUM MOUDGIL KNEW the exact moment when she realised she wasn't 'doing well mentally'. "It was when I stopped painting."

Anjum is a former world No.1 shooter, a world championship medallist and an Olympian. But she's a lot more than a rifle-wielding 30-year-old. She can juggle fire, used to box and perform deadlifts. The colourful strokes of brush, however, gave her a real sense of purpose. Anjum painted for herself and her teammates. During the pandemic, she even auctioned her artwork, the proceeds of which were donated to the needy.

So, when she suddenly lost interest in painting during a dip in form, it triggered alarm bells. "I was just shooting, giving everything to shooting. I didn't like that," she said. Obsessing over results, she first fell out of love with the sport. And then was out of the Indian team.

On Friday, after spending the whole of 2023 on the sideline, Anjum returned to the national team for the Paris Olympics. She did enough to finish second after the conclusion of the selection trials in the 50m 3-position event, behind Asian Games gold medallist Sift Kaur Samra.

As per the National Rifle Association of India's selection policy, Sift and Anjum are poised to represent India in this event at the Olympics but the team will be officially announced next week after the selection committee meets.

Imposter syndrome

To most, reaching the pinnacle of their sport would be a validation of a lifetime's effort. For Anjum, it became a source of self-doubt. The day she became the world No.1, in 2022, was when her dramatic slide began.

"I was like, it's by mistake that I became number one. I mean, everyone used to tell me to believe that you were good. I had issues with believing that I was good," she said.

In the same year, she went to the World Championship and missed an Olympic quota by just one point.

"When I missed a quota there, I immediately was just dying to get another chance to win a quota... That didn't work because I had put immense pressure on myself and I was not performing well. That did affect me a lot mentally," Anjum said.

She 'lost' her way in the 'chaos of winning a quota' and gradually, as a consequence of chasing only results, began losing interest in shooting. A constant in the team, Anjum's scores at the domestic trials plummeted so dramatically that she couldn't even make it to the team. She missed the World Cups and the Asian Games. It wasn't the results, however, which resulted in a red flag. It was when she stopped painting during this period that she sensed trouble. Almost immediately, the sports psychology student sought professional help. "I had to figure out ways to get back and start liking the sport again. So, I trained on my own, went out to train alone and then played a competition without the Indian team," Anjum said.

It was a drastic step, for Anjum wasn't just a quality shooter she was also the glue that kept a young Indian shooting team together. There were times when teammates, young and old would gravitate towards her. She painted for Rahi Sarnobat and Manu Bhaker. Shared meals with Aishwary Pratap Singh Tomar, another shooter who has all but sealed his Paris Olympics quota. And worked out with young shooters Vijayveer Sidhu and Arjun Babuta.

Pre-Tokyo Olympics, she was the guiding force for the teenage army of Indian shooters. "I knew that the kids in the team were very young. Aishwary, Manu, Divyansh (Panwar), and Saurabh (Chaudhary), they were so young. And they were shooting so good before Tokyo. So somewhere I was like, if they don't shoot well, I know they will break," Anjum said.

Tokyo, in hindsight, could be an Olympics where Indian shooters learnt their lessons of a lifetime. It's something that can be said with certainty only after the Paris Games but for Anjum, the time away from the team was crucial to reflect and improve.

"I just had to rediscover what I am, what I like. So I worked on my mistakes in my technical, in my shooting, in my position. It 100% helped me," she said.

The scores she shot during the month-long trials, four overall, indicate that Anjum is back to her best. She shot an average qualifying score of 589.9, considered good enough to make the cut for the World Championship and Olympic finals.

David & Goliath story unfolds in offline edtech

WHILE THE CHALLENGERS in the offline edtech space, are going all guns blazing, the question remains whether the Davids will be able to compete with the Goliaths in the space - - legacy players like Aakash (250 centres), Allen (240 centres) and Narayana Coaching, who have been around for over 30 years. Analysts are not too sure.

The reason is simple. Offline centres are capital-intensive and take anywhere around 3-5 years to be profitable. Further, costs like rent and maintenance overheads, add up. Getting qualified teachers also require doling out hefty salary hikes. For instance, Unacademy reportedly onboards teachers by offering them 2x pay hikes.

As Sukhmani Bedi, partner, Orios Venture Partners says, "It won't be prudent for startups to think of offline as a magic wand that will make all problems go away. Offline has its own set of challenges—it's slow to scale, fragmented, and requires high capex".

Of course, if the brand is well established, it will work in the favour of the firm concerned, but only to a point. "While the legacy players enjoy good brand recall value, new entrants also enjoy the advantage of tech and growing demand in the segment," said Joshi. However, some others point out that even legacy players are building and ramping up their tech offerings.

So, finally it comes to the pricing game. "While people do look for quality education, the market is still price sensitive. Hence if the new entrants can offer good education at a reasonable price, they have a chance to grab a good market share and grow further," said Joshi. Unacademy, for example, is offering 40% discount on some of its offline courses. But so are the legacy players.

Notes:

1. The financial results have been prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind-AS) as prescribed under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 as amended ("the Act") read with relevant rules issued thereunder and other accounting principles generally accepted in India. The standalone and consolidated financial results of the Company, will be available on the website of BSE (www.bseindia.com) or/and NSE (www.nseindia.com) and on the Company's website (www.ltgroup.in).
2. The Company and it's subsidiaries (the "Group") are primarily engaged in the business of manufacturing, trading and marketing of rice which is a single primary reportable segment as per Indian Accounting Standard " Operating Segment" ("IND AS 108") which is in line with review of operating result by chief operating decision maker.
3. The Group has Insurance claim recoverable (classified into non-current assets) amounting to INR 13,410.53 lakhs as at March 31, 2024. The claim was attributable to the loss of raw materials, incurred by the Group, due to a major fire which had occurred in the work premises of Daawat Foods Limited (the "Subsidiary Company") in India in FY 2014-15. The Group had recognized the insurance claim recoverable (asset) amounting to INR 17,810.88 lakhs in FY 2014-15, based on the management's assessment of the loss amount and the positive outcome in the reports of the surveyors, then appointed by the Insurance Company. Later on, the Insurance Company repudiated the insurance claim vide its order dated February 4, 2016, against which the Subsidiary Company had filed a commercial suit with District Court of Raisen, Bhopal. On the basis of developments in the commercial suit, and basis the report of the surveyor which were received subsequent to the reports submitted by the surveyors initially appointed by the Insurance Company and which had formed the basis for the Group to initially recognize this claim, the Group had written off claim amounting to INR 4,400.25 lakhs during the FY 2015-16. During the year ended March 31, 2024, on December 22, 2023, the Hon'ble District Court of Raisen, Bhopal passed a Decree in favour of the Subsidiary Company in the commercial suit, as mentioned above, and allowed the claim to the extent of INR 16,120.27 lakhs, considering the terms and condition of the Insurance policy, along with interest thereon @ 6% p.a. with effect from the date of the fire incident which is estimated to be INR 12,293.59 Lakhs. However, the insurance company has now filed an appeal with the Hon'ble High Court of Madhya Pradesh against the order of the district court and Application on Admissibility of Appeal and Stay has been heard by Hon'ble Court and orders have been reserved on the same, and hence the outcome is pending. Based on the facts of the case and their evaluation of the independent legal opinion obtained from the external legal counsels on the merits of the appeal filed, and considering the Decree obtained in favour of the Subsidiary Company as mentioned above, the Group has concluded that, the carrying value of the Insurance claim of INR 13,410.53 lakhs is appropriate and reasonable as at March 31, 2024. Further, given the uncertainty at this stage where possible legal options are still available with the Insurance Company, the utmost certainty about the recoverability of differential excess amount of INR 15,003.33 lakhs will be established once the verdict is passed by the higher courts. Therefore, it is not appropriate to recognise the differential excess amount of INR 15,003.33 lakhs in the financial statements of the Group for the year ended March 31, 2024.
4. The above financial results have been reviewed by the Audit Committee and approved by the Board of Directors on May 17, 2024.
5. The Figures of last quarter are the balancing figures between audited figures in respect of the full financial year ended March 31, 2024 and the unaudited published year to date figures upto December 31, 2023, being the date of the end of the third quarter of the financial year which were subjected to limited review.
6. Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the provisions of Section 91 of the Companies Act, 2013, the Board of Directors at their meeting held on May 17, 2024 recommended a final dividend of 1.00 per equity share of 1 each of the Company, making a total dividend of 1.50 per equity share of 1.00 each for the financial year 2023-24, including interim dividend of 0.50 per equity share declared earlier during the financial year 2023-24. The Final Dividend is subject to the approval of the shareholders. The Board of Directors at their meeting held on May 17, 2024, also declared an interim dividend of 0.50 per equity share, of 1 each of the Company. The Interim dividend and final dividend shall be paid/ dispatched within the period as stipulated in the Companies Act, 2013. The Company shall be required to deduct tax at Source (TDS) at the time of making the payment of dividend.
7. Previous period's figures have been regrouped / reclassified wherever necessary to correspond with the current period's classification / disclosure.

M/s Sanmaan Rice Mills (Rs. 23.64 crore).
Circle Sastra: Fazilka, Zonal Sastra: Ludhiana.
Date of NPA: 30.05.2022.

In terms of RBI Master Circular no. DBR. No. CID.BC.22/20.16.003/15-16 dated July 01.2015, a meeting of the Committee for Identification of Willful Defaulters of the Bank was held on 19.10.2023. The Identification Committee concluded that events of willful default in the Borrower's account(s) had occurred and gave its approval for issuance of Show Cause Notice for identifying the following persons as wilful defaulters:

1. M/s Sanmaan Rice Mills (Borrower).
2. Sh. Nardev Singh Mann (Partner).
3. Sh. Ram Pal (Partner).
4. Sh. Harish Kumar (Partner).
5. Smt. Saroj Rani (Partner).
6. Sh. Gursewak Singh Mann (Partner).

10. Sh. Vardev Singh Mann (Guarantor).
11. Smt. Narinder Kaur (Guarantor).
12. Sh. Himmat Singh (Guarantor).
13. M/s Sanman Overseas (Corporate Guarantor).

Accordingly, Show Cause Notice of 15 days was issued on 12.12.2023 to the Borrower M/s Sanmaan Rice Mills and its partners and guarantors, responsible for managing the affairs of the borrower and involved in events of default. They were informed, if they so desire, they can make a representation to the Bank within 15 days from receipt of notice, as to why they be not classified as wilful defaulters. In response to said SCN, Sh. Ram Pal (Partner), Sh. Harish Kumar (Partner), Sh. Gursewak Singh Maan (Partner), Smt. Saroj Rani (Partner), Sh. Jagnandan Singh (Guarantor), Smt. Ruma Bansal (Guarantor), Sh. Rajinder Kumar Bansal (Guarantor), Sh. Verdev Singh Mann (Guarantor), Smt. Narinder Kaur (Guarantor) and Sh. Himmat Singh (Guarantor) have submitted representation dated 02.01.2024. All the presentations were almost similar.

The matter along representations were place before the Identification Committee. Keeping in view the representation of the party and material & evidences held in record, the Identification Committee in its meeting dated 21.03.2024 observed as under:-

The representors stated that earlier notice was issued on 04.05.2023 regarding identification of default by Circle Sastra, Head and the said notice was replied by them on 24.05.2023. Bank had replied to the submission of the parties on 03.06.2023. The concerned officials of Bank have acknowledged that earlier notice dated 04.05.2023. To the above submission, the Identification Committee found that Circle Sastra Head had issued 10 days' notice dated 04.05.2023 as per Bank's guidelines and informed the parties to rectify the default otherwise Bank would consider identifying them as wilful defaulters. But parties failed to rectify the default. However, parties submitted representation dated 24.05.2023 against said notice dated 04.05.2023 which was duly replied by the Bank on 03.06.2023.

The representors further submitted that earlier issued notice dated 04.05.2023 has not been withdrawn and there is no provision in the RBI Guidelines for issuing of multiple notice. Impugned communication dated 12.12.2023 is self-contradictory as said letter is labeled as "Show Cause Notice" for declaring as "wilful defaulter" but in the said letter bank has not communicated the reasoning or rationale of the decision of the Identification Committee i.e. Order of the Identification Committee for show causing them attached with the communication dated 12.12.2023. Therefore, it has been requested that a copy of the Order of the Identification Committee for show causing them as wilful defaulters be provided.

In respect to above, the Identification Committee observed that Notice dated 04.05.2023 was issued by concerned Circle SASTRA Centre of Bank asking the party to rectify the default/s identified in the account, but the party failed to do so. Order of the Identification Committee had been communicated to the party vide Show Cause Notice dated 12.12.2023 which also mentions reason and rationale behind the said Show Cause Notice. Therefore, the objections raised by the party are not justified.

By referring to the decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the matter of SBI vs Jah Developers (P) Ltd (2019 6 SCC 787), the parties have submitted "as a moment a person is declared to be wilful defaulter and the impact on its fundamental right to carry on business is direct and immediate.

In regard to the above, the Identification Committee observed that subject borrower and its related parties were given opportunity vide Show Cause Notice dated 12.12.2023 to submit their point of view, before taking any decision regarding declaring them as willful defaulters. Therefore, it is premature to emphasize the decision of Hon'ble Supreme Court of India.

The representors submitted that in earlier Show Cause Notice dated 04 05.2023, the allegation of"Capacity to pay" was levelled but in the subsequent notice dated 12.12.2023 allegation of "Siphoning of Funds" has been added which law does not permit. It is settled principal in law that no one can seek benefit from his own wrong. If the Identification Committee could not conclude wilful default in regard to Siphoning of fund which had happened as on 04.05.2023 then it cannot be subsequently added by the way of another notice dated 12.12.2023. There is no provision in the RBI guidelines to issue subsequent notice in case when the earlier issued notice is already in force and has not been withdrawn.

In respect to the above submission, the Identification Committee observed that Show Cause Notice dated 12.12.2023 has been issued by the Identification Committee after considering entire facts and available documents/evidence, whereas notice (Annexure-1) dated 04.05.2023 issued by Circle Sastra to the borrower and its partners on the grounds of "Capacity to pay" and "Siphoning of funds/Unauthorized disposal of charged assets" and to the guarantors on the ground of"Capacity to pay" asking the addressees to rectify the defaults identified in the account, but the borrower and its related parties failed to rectify defaults. Consequently, after considering entire facts of the account, the Identification Committee was of the view that in view of material and evidences held on record, charges of "Capacity to pay" and "Siphoning of funds" maybe levelled. Accordingly, the Identification Committee has issued Show Cause Notice to the Borrower and its partners on the grounds of "Capacity to pay" and "Siphoning of funds" and to the guarantors on the ground of "Capacity to pay". Hence, submission of the parties that no one can seek benefit of his own wrong is not tenable.

The representors further submitted that in notice dated 12.12.2023 the bank had given details of assets owned by them but the Identification Committee has failed to consider that majority of these assets were already mortgaged and were not saleable at the free will of them.

The Identification Committee found that no such details of assets had been given in Show Cause Notice dated 12.12.2023. Only Net Means as per CR dated 15.05.2019 & 10.11.2021 of all the persons had been mentioned in said Show Cause Notice which was derived by netting of total Liability from total Assets. However, total Net Means of all the parties as mentioned in Show Cause Notice are Rs. 32.77 crore whereas Market Value of mortgaged property with Bank was Rs.11.57 crore as per valuation Report dated 25.10.2023 & 26.10.2023. Further party has not submitted the details of assets which are mortgaged or not mortgaged with Bank. The Guarantors also submitted that their majority of assets were mortgaged with Bank. Hence, without documentary evidence, parties have submitted vague statement which cannot be considered as justified.

The representors further submitted that there was no evidence or proof attached with impugned notice dated 12.12.2023 that the funds borrowed from Bank have been utilized for purpose unrelated to the operation of M/s Sanman Rice Mills. No copy of Stock Audit Report dated 05.11.2022 as referred in notice dated 12.12.2023 has been provided to them. Therefore, notice dated 12.12.2023 was incomplete for want of necessary documents.

In respect to the above submission, the identification Committee observed that as a measure of natural justice copy of CR dated & 10.11.2021 and Stock Audit Report dated 05.11.2022 have been provided to the parties. After that no reply has been submitted by the party(s).

The representors requested to provide an opportunity of personal hearing before the Identification Committee so that proper explanation of the circumstances and facts can be put forward in person.

As a measure of natural justice, the Identification Committee had decided to provide an opportunity of personal hearing which was scheduled to be held on 19.03.2024 and notice of personal hearing had been issued. In response to personal hearing notice, the borrower/partners/guarantors vide letter dated 11.03.2024 submitted reply requesting to defer personal hearing date and sought relevant documents relying upon which the Identification Committee has issued Show Cause Notice.

The Committee observed that relevant document had already been provided to the parties on 20.01.2024/27.01.2024. However, the Identification Committee accorded an opportunity of personal hearing on 21.03.2024 and the said meeting attended by Sh. Ram Pal (Partner) and Sh. Harish Kumar (Partner).

Upon invitation by the Identification Committee, Sh. Ram Pal (Partner) and Sh. Harish Kumar(Partner) deliberated their case before the Identification Committee on behalf of all. The Identification Committee asked the representors about the amount due to the bank to which the representors informed that Rs. 24 Crore was due against the borrower to the bank. The Identification Committee asked about details of stock to which the representors informed the Committee that no stocks are available from 2014-15 due to heavy losses in business. When the Identification Committee asked the representor that the borrower has submitted stocks statement dated 30.03.2022 to the Bank showing stocks worth Rs 36.06 crore to which the representor stated that the said stocks was shown only in paper and actual stock was of approx. Rs. 10 Crore. To the above submission of the representors, the Identification Committee is of the view that the borrower has utilized bank's funds by submitting false financial documents to the bank with intention to defraud the Bank.

The Identification Committee further asked about the reason for NPA in the account to which the representor stated that they were paying high rate of interest @13% while other in market were paying rate of interest at 7%. They tried to run business by taking financial support from the Bank under GECL. They informed that they made regular payment till 2021-22 but couldn't pay further due to high rate of interest.

In respect to the above submission, the Identification Committee observed that the Bank has charged rate of interest as per Bank's prevailing guidelines and sanctioned terms & condition. The Committee further observed that even after providing financial support under GECL the borrower has not paid the Bank's dues causing account turned into NPA.

Further, Sh. Ram Pal (partner) and Sh. Harish Kumar (partner) have submitted letter dated 21.03.2024 requesting not to identify them as wilful defaulters. They have no malafide intention. Due to COVID effect and high rate of interest they could not bear pressure.

Decision of the Committee:-

Keeping in view the entire facts and material held on record, representation dated 02.01.2024,11.03.2024 & 21.03.2024 submitted by the parties and deliberation made by the party during personal hearing, the Identification Committee is of the view that the submission made by the parties are not justified and tenable. Hence, after due consideration of the facts on record the Committee observed that the borrowers/ partners/ guarantors defaulted in payment/repayment obligations to the Bank and the said persons named above, involved in events of default, are fit to be identified as wilful defaulters on the following ground(s) specified in above mentioned Master Circular of RBI:-

Capacity to pay:-

The borrower/partners and guarantors defaulted in payment/ repayment obligation to the Bank even though they have capacity to pay. As per CR, Net Means of the borrower/partners and guarantors are as under: -
