HOW TO PLAY

Fill in the grid so that every horizontal row, every vertical column and every 3x3 box contains the digits 1-9, without repeating the numbers in the same row, column or box. You can't change the digits already given in the grid. Every puzzle has one solution.

HOW TO PLAY

1. A number may appear just once in each row or column. Eliminate repeat numbers by darkening cells. (see example)
2. Darkened cells must never be adjacent in a row or column.
3. Unmarked cells must create a single continuous area, undivided by darkened cells.
4. Every time you darken a cell, you can automatically circle its vertical and horizontal neighbours, which means they cannot be eliminated.
5. Any cell "sandwiched" between neighbours of the same value can be circled. (e.g. 6 3 6)
6. A "triple" is a special case of sandwich. Circle the centre cells, and darken the ends. (e.g. 6 6 6)

LOOP THE LOOP

RULES

- Connect adjacent dots with vertical or horizontal lines, creating a single loop (Fig A).
- Crossovers or branches are not allowed (As shown by dotted lines in Fig B).
- Numbers in the puzzle indicate the number of lines that should surround it, while empty cells may be surrounded by any number of lines.
- You can't draw lines around zeroes.
- Each puzzle has just one unique solution.

Not allowed (Fig B)

HOW TO BEGIN:

Example (Fig A) - Begin with the zero next to 3. Since no lines can be drawn around zero, mark crosses around it, as shown. Now there is a cross in one space around 3. So we know the three lines of 3 can only be drawn in the remaining three spaces. Next, these lines can only be extended in one direction each. Continue, using the same logic.

Hints: Keep eliminating possibilities by marking crosses in spaces between dots where a line isn't possible, i.e., if you have already completed required lines or where a line extension may create a branch or cause a deadend (Fig B).

14-outstanding

How many words of four or more letters can you make from the letters shown in today's puzzle? In making a word, a letter can be used as many times as it appears in the puzzle. Each word must contain the central letter. There should be at least one seven letter word. Plurals, foreign words and proper names are not allowed. British English Dictionary is used as reference.

See what the stars have in store for you - according to your moon sign.

ARIES: Don't hesitate to resolve any problems that might be left over from the past. It is well worth giving it some thought. There aren't many surprises in store, but your emotional affairs are being reinvigorated and reassuring.

TAURUS: A change is on the agenda today, or even on the horizon, you may not have a positive emotional reaction to it. You're feeling more sensitive now than usual. And the idea of something in your life shifting sets off your deepest anxieties.

GEMINI: You may think you can handle a situation on your own but the planets warn you are going to need assistance. Why even think of tackling it alone when you have friends you can turn to for help? Be smart and ask for their advice.

CANCER: You are bringing concrete proof of your love and contributing to dispel your doubts and anxieties on this day. Friends at work place are likely to want a sympathetic ear and insightful advice.

LEO: The influence of your loved ones understands your need for security and is doing everything to reassure you as much as they can. It would be unsurprising if you came up with some truly original suggestions today. But don't be too disappointed, for tomorrow is another day.

VIRGO: Today's day is extremely positive, symbolising an atmosphere of complete and utter harmony with your loved ones. This is a good time to settle your overdue bills to apply for a loan.

LIBRA: Events are turning in your favour, and both on a social and a professional level, people are rallying round to help you achieve your goals. Frustration, gloom, and despair are a fair description of your mood today.

SCORPIO: Worries about money prove groundless when the facts about your situation are ascertained. In the professional realm, try to make the best of the ideas and inspirations that come to you. Some unexpected developments may happen.

SAGITTARIUS: Someone close to you could be going through emotional turmoil, and your intuition is acute enough today so that you are likely to pick up on it psychically. In the work sphere, be prepared for disappointments and misunderstandings.

CAPRICORN: On the professional front, things are going splendidly. This day could be challenging, but ultimately fruitful. You and your colleagues are in tune and you generate a collective strength that helps you to achieve your goals.

AQUARIUS: Your discipline and your sense of responsibility find a favourable echo with the people who are close to you today. Far from seeking out emotional drama, you enjoy a sense of tranquil contentment that comes from the security of your long standing attachments.

PISCES: At work, the perfect equilibrium generated by and it also guarantees your energies that will profitably divided among the many different projects you are engaged in. It is a favourable time for a coming together and you impress your ideas on others tactfully but effectively.

Schengen visa delays prompt shift to alternative travel spots

Divya Kaushik

A destination that doesn't require a long drawn-out visa process with a waiting period spanning months has become the go-to spot for tourists this summer. While Switzerland, Italy, and Paris have always been in high demand for summer vacations, the lengthy visa procedures have left tourists opting for places like Kazakhstan, Azerbaijan, and Sri Lanka among others. What's the catch? These places are also fit for budget-sensitive travellers who may not choose European hot-spots due to its high airfares and hotel tariffs at present.

For beach holidays, travel influencer Tanya Khanijow suggests Thailand and Malaysia and for those looking for partying destinations, she suggests Singapore, Beirut & Dubai

'An uptick in inquiries and bookings for emerging destinations'

Another reason why countries like Vietnam, Azerbaijan, Georgia and Uzbekistan are getting popular is the budget. "A six-day package to Uzbekistan, including accommodation, transfers and guided tours costs approx ₹47K. Similarly, a five-day excursion to Georgia with visits to iconic landmarks and cultural experiences starts at ₹98K per person," shares Rajeev Kale, President and Country Head of a travel company. Daniel D'Souza, President and Country Head of another travel company, adds, "Trends indicate that travellers are now planning their trips closer to departure dates. This is an added opportunity for spots like Georgia, Azerbaijan, etc given their easy visa regimes that inspire impulse planners."

Visa-free countries, e-visa facilities are in demand

As compared to last year, April this year witnessed an average 33% year-on-year growth across all newly-minted visa-free destinations as well as e-visa-facilitating destinations

Countries with visa-free entry are seeing 27% growth in searches

Countries with e-visa facilities have 18% growth in searches year-on-year

Countries leading the charts are Kazakhstan, Malaysia, Angola and Japan

This is followed by destinations in Bhutan, Hong Kong, Sri Lanka, Thailand and Kenya amongst others

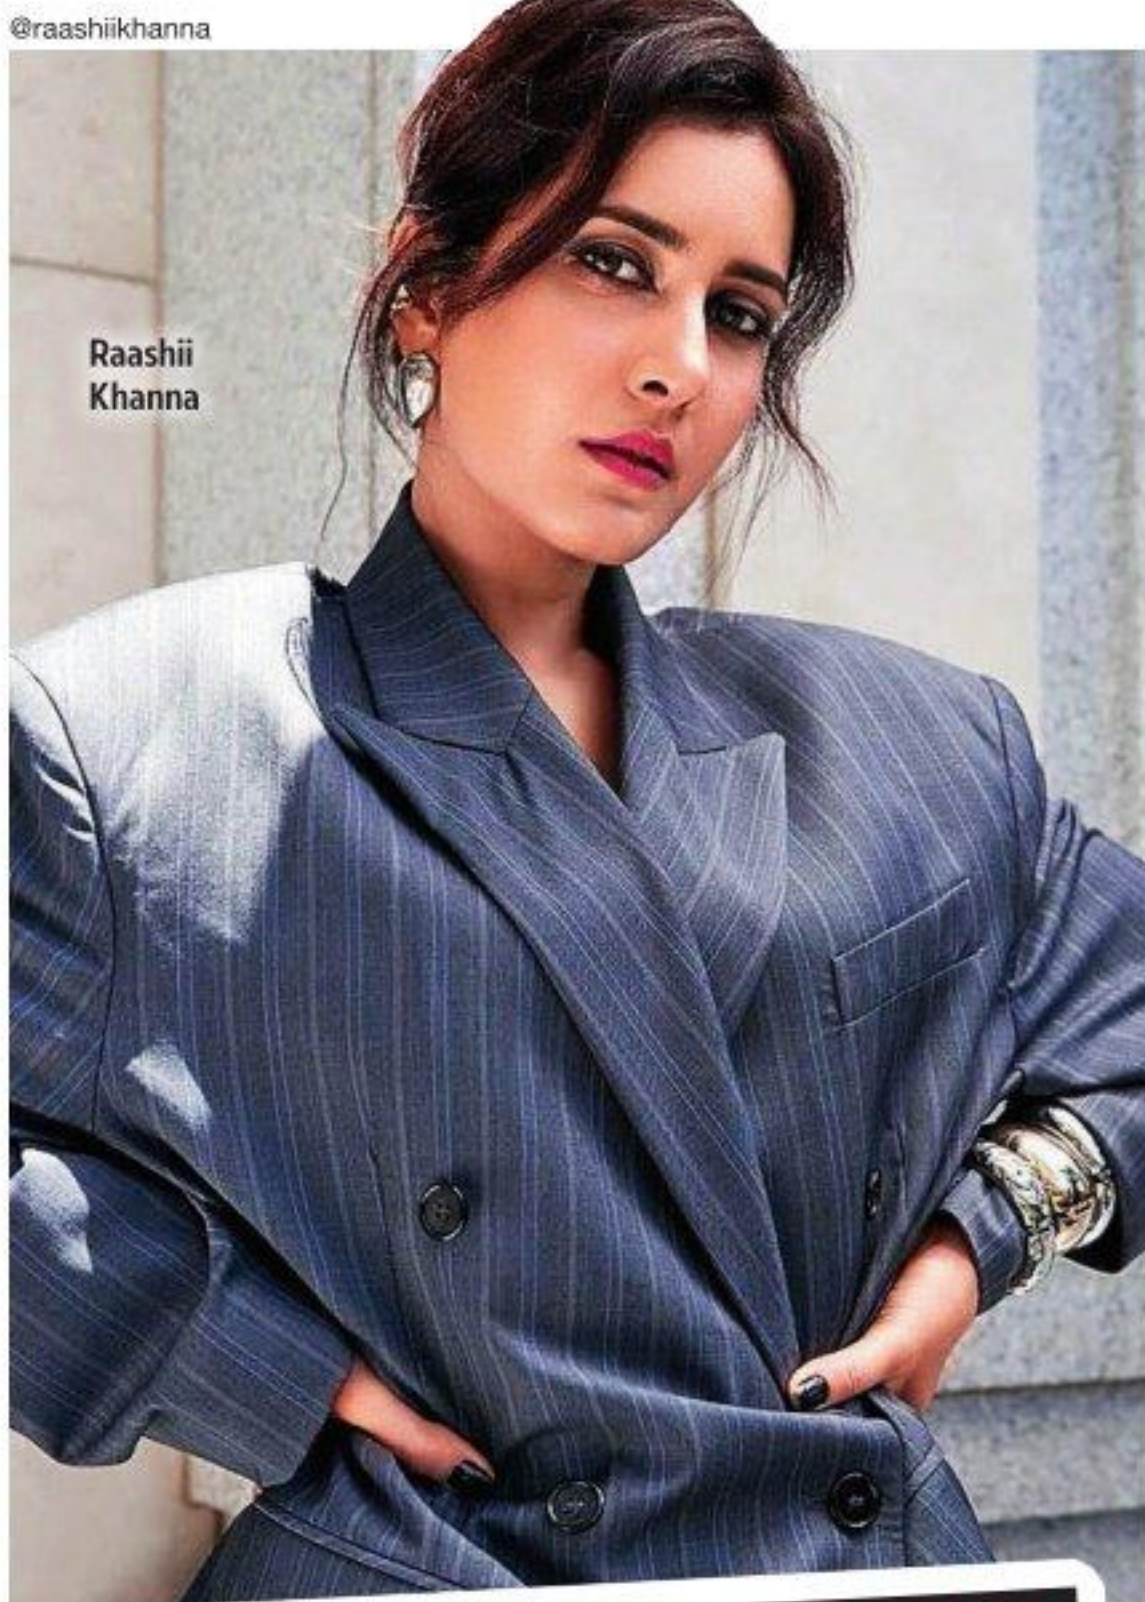

Almaty and Baku continue to be the two major draws followed by Tbilisi, Langkawi and Kuala Lumpur this summer

— A spokesperson from an online travel company

OMAN: "Known for its rich culture, breathtaking landscapes and an adventure-filled holiday, the visa process is not too long or complicated for Indians. It's affordable with daily costs around ₹3,000-5,000," Tanya informs.

JORDAN: "Jordan is an excellent destination for those interested in historical and natural wonders. Visa on arrival makes it accessible, and daily budgets can range from ₹5,000-10,000," says Tanya.

Raashii Khanna made her Hindi OTT debut with Rudra: The Edge Of Darkness (2022) opposite Ajay Devgan and also starred in Farzi (2023) opposite Shahid Kapoor. She made her Bollywood debut in the actioner Yodha (2024) and made her Tamil comeback with Aranmanai 4 (2024). Recently, she spoke to us about navigating through multiple industries.

'I've remained neutral in the lows and highs I've seen'

"I've always remained very neutral about whatever lows or highs I've seen. When you get attached to the result, you can't really move on with full concentration. I'm not ecstatic about success, and I don't get very low with failure," Raashii says.

'YOU CAN'T CONNECT WITH AUDIENCE UNLESS YOU KNOW THEIR LANGUAGE'

About language barriers across industries, Raashii tells us, "Language is not an issue for me anymore because I can now speak Tamil and Telugu. But yes, Hindi is a little more comfortable as I've grown up with that language. I don't think there is a language barrier in my head anymore. I made an effort to learn the languages of whichever industry I'm working in; otherwise, you cannot connect with your audience."

I always enjoy coming to Delhi: Chitrangda Singh

@chitrangda

Chitrangda Singh

Chitrangda Singh, who started her modelling career in Delhi, was seen on the ramp after a long time at the Delhi Times Fashion Week (DTFW). The actress shared, "I was very nervous when I was on the ramp. I think there was a fog machine and the ramp was very slippery. I almost broke into a sweat, but the crowd was amazing."

The actress, who worked in Haz-aaron Khwaishin Aisi and Sorry Bhai, reminisced her modelling days in Delhi and said, "It has been a long time since I walked the ramp now. I started my modelling career from Delhi and the first time I walked the ramp was for Ritu Kumar. I still remember that experience. I have always enjoyed coming to Delhi for fashion events and I always felt that Delhi is the capital of fashion."

When the actress was asked if she chooses to dress differently in Delhi and Mumbai, she replied, "I don't think I have changed in the last 10 years and I still stick to what I like wearing, simple, structured, easy silhouettes."

— Divya Kaushik

I spend a lot of time in Mumbai now, but Delhi's fashion scene has been amazing and it's good to see how it's growing bigger now

MY DAUGHTER HAS MADE ME WHO I AM TODAY: SANJEEEDA

'AYRA BRAGS TO HER FRIENDS ABOUT MY WORK'

Sanjeeda, who separated from Aamir Ali in 2021, talks to us about raising her child as a single mother. She shares, "My daughter is my friend. She's someone who's very involved with what I am doing. She loves that I work and understands how demanding my work can be. She takes pride in the fact that I have to go for shoots and travel for work. She brags to her friends about my work. As understanding as she is, she also demands that I get something for her when I come back home (laughs). Kids are too smart these days."

'AYRA HAS MADE ME EXTREMELY CONFIDENT AND AWARE ABOUT MYSELF'

The actress who ventured into the digital space a few years ago, feels that Ayra has been lucky for her. She says, "She's a blessing. She has made me the woman I am today. She has made me confident and aware about myself. I am blessed to be her mother. Sometimes Ayra acts like she is my mother! My mother has been my best friend and now my daughter is too. My daughter is the one who gave me the 'I HAVE MANAGED TO SECURE MYSELF FINANCIALLY BECAUSE OF TELEVISION' Sanjeeda began her journey in show-biz with Baghban in 2003, post which she did a few South films before venturing into television with Kyaa Hoga Nimmo Kaa in 2006. Looking back at her journey, she says, "It was quite a smooth ride for me; I really didn't have to struggle. I began as a choreographer and then joined the entertainment industry. I worked in television for a decade. I had no time to dream about Bollywood back then because TV kept me occupied. I had surrendered myself to television and then I took a conscious break. But yes, I can be choosy about the work I take up. It's thanks to TV that I have managed to secure myself financially. I am an independent woman and today, if required, I can sit at home without worrying about kal kya hoga."

'Few years ago, I only wanted to play leads'

She has essayed lead roles in TV shows, but today what matters most to her is how important her part is in a project. The actress, who was recently seen in Heeramandi, explains, "Seven years ago, I only wanted to play lead roles. Things have changed, and now, it's about doing that one scene, cracking it well and being spoken about for it. And that's what happened to me with Fighter. People talk about my scene with Hrithik." She adds, "I feel I have finally arrived. I am glad that people are taking me seriously as an actor now. Thoda sa waqt lag gaya lekin it is never too late."
