Teaser is so offensive: SC halts screening of Hamare Baarah

The Supreme Court on Thursday stayed the release of Hamare Baarah and asked the Bombay High Court to take an expeditious decision on a petition alleging that the film was derogatory to the Islamic faith and married Muslim women," says a Bar and Bench report. The SC bench ordered that the till the disposal of the petition challenging the movie's certification, the screening of the movie shall remain suspended.

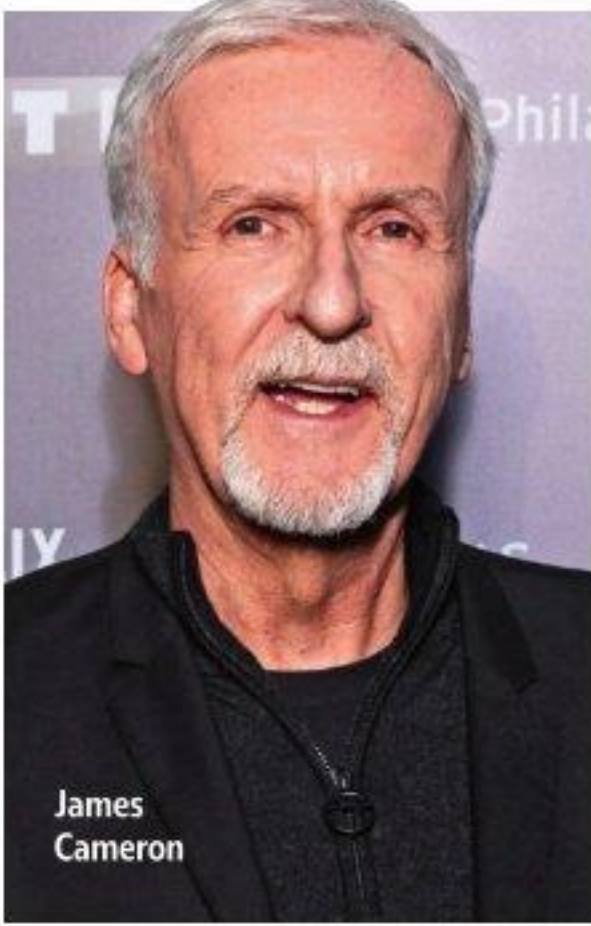

The movie was slated to be released today. "We request the High Court to dispose of the plea expeditiously," the SC said, while halting the screening of the movie. The court passed the order after hearing a petition challenging the Bombay High Court's refusal to stay the release of the movie. The counsel representing the petitioner submitted that the High Court had directed an "interested party" - the CBFC - to form a committee to screen the movie.

However, the counsel representing the moviemaker said all the objectionable scenes were removed from the teasers. The SC rejected the claim. "We saw the teaser today morning and all scenes are there," it said. When the makers said he would have to incur losses on account of the stay order, the court said, "If teaser is so offensive then what about the whole movie... Prima facie it seems you have failed since you yourself deleted the scenes from the teaser." Agencies

It seemed like lazy casting: Cameron on not wanting to cast Kate in Titanic

Titanic established Kate Winslet as a superstar, but her role in the film wasn't always guaranteed. According to the 1997 Best Picture Oscar winner's writer-director James Cameron, Winslet's reputation as "Corset Kate," as a recent Variety profile dubbed the actress, caused him to hesitate in casting her. "It seemed like lazy casting," he said, considering Winslet, now 48, was known for previous work in period pieces like 1995's Sense and Sensibility and 1996's Hamlet - playing roles perhaps too similar to Titanic's wealthy socialite Rose DeWitt Bukater. "But then wiser heads pre-voiced, and I could see what everybody was talking about," recalled Cameron, 69. On the screen, he added, Winslet is "very alive. She comes into a room with a great deal of confidence." TNN

There's a cat among the lawmakers. So what's new?

Much to the disappointment of conspiracy theorists, the "mysterious creature" strolling around Rashtrapati Bhawan during the swearing in ceremony turned out to be - not an animagus or an actual leopard - but a common cat. The assurance came after the majestic structure was combed by a team deployed to find out if there was indeed the possibility of an unidentified animal making itself at home with the country's most powerful women and men. After all, lawmakers have had a rather uneasy co-existence with certain creatures, especially the rhesus macaque.

During the G20 summit held last year in the capital, civic authorities had to install life-size cutouts of langurs at strategic locations - to scare away the marauding smaller monkeys. Earlier, the old parliament blocks were witness to everything from professional monkey catchers to people dressed up as langurs, to keep the primates at bay. In fact, in 2014, the New Delhi Municipal Corporation hired 40 such men to tame the monkeys running wild in what they evidently believed, was their territory and the humans - no matter how important in their world - were either a source of food, or just intruders. The then Minister of Urban Development had to assuage the fears of his colleagues by detailing the efforts being made to deal with the monkey trouble. It included the acquisition of rubber bullets among other things.

The turf war between parliamentarians, government officials and monkeys is stuff of legend. It inspired a dark social satire called Eeb Allay Ooo!, and had correspondents from BBC and NYT chasing this...very Indian story.

In the web series, Poacher, one of the recurring themes is that of creatures watching us from the nooks and crannies of cities and towns. The idea, said the makers, was to convey how they were always there, even before we arrived.

The appearance of the cat in the Rashtrapati Bhawan on one of its busiest days is thus a reminder, that no matter how tight the security or how sanitised our urban spaces, the animal world will always find a way to make its presence felt.

HOW TO PLAY

Fill in the grid so that every horizontal row, every vertical column and every 3x3 box contains the digits 1-9, without repeating the numbers in the same row, column or box. You can't change the digits already given in the grid. Every puzzle has one solution.

TIMES HITORI

5	5	1	5	7	5	3	5
1	5	5	3	2	6	4	7
7	6	4	3	1	6	8	9
5	9	6	4	8	7	1	7
1	4	4	1	4	2	3	6
4	7	8	5	6	9	2	1
2	2	1	6	3	2	5	8
8	1	7	9	7	4	6	3

HOW TO PLAY

1. A number may appear just once in each row or column. Eliminate repeat numbers by darkening cells. (see example)
2. Darkened cells must never be adjacent in a row or column.
3. Unmarked cells must create a single continuous area, undivided by darkened cells.
4. Every time you darken a cell, you can automatically circle its vertical and horizontal neighbours, which means they cannot be eliminated.
5. Any cell "sandwiched" between neighbours of the same value can be circled. (e.g. 6 4 6)
6. A "triple" is a special case of sandwich. Circle the centre cells, and darken the ends. (e.g. 6 6 6)

Example

8	5	5	7	3	5	4	6
4	5	1	6	7	6	5	2
2	5	7	1	5	4	6	8
5	6	2	4	3	7	6	3

8	4	5	2	3	5	7	1

LOOP THE LOOP

RULES

- Connect adjacent dots with vertical or horizontal lines, creating a single loop (Fig A).
- Crossovers or branches are not allowed (As shown by dotted lines in Fig B).
- Numbers in the puzzle indicate the number of lines that should surround it, while empty cells may be surrounded by any number of lines.
- You can't draw lines around zeroes.
- Each puzzle has just one unique solution.

HOW TO BEGIN:

Example (Fig A) - Begin with the zero next to 3. Since no lines can be drawn around zero, mark crosses around it, as shown. Now there is a cross in one space around 3. So we know the three lines of 3 can only be drawn in the remaining three spaces. Next, these lines can only be extended in one direction each. Continue, using the same logic.

Hints: Keep eliminating possibilities by marking crosses in spaces between dots where a line isn't possible, i.e., if you have already completed required lines or where a line extension may create a branch or cause a deadend (Fig B).

See what the stars have in store for you - according to your moon sign.

ARIES: You are in a pepped up mood rearing to go, and this is the time to work fast to complete the projects in the pipeline. Splendid money making opportunities are available, just explore and work hard. You will have to learn to conciliate freedom with responsibility, understanding that freedom is not given to the one who earns it.

TAURUS: Subconsciously something has been growing in you that has not been dealt with, come to light or outlined in a direct and respectful way. Give yourself a break and respect your own individual style.

GEMINI: Try to reduce your expenditures on unnecessary things. Time for housekeeping at both office and home. Work place issues are likely to pop up; the key is to respond with an eye toward a solution instead of getting bent out of shape.

CANCER: You are sure of your feelings and need to revitalise them by sharing them openly with your loved one. You may discover a side of your sentimental and sensuous nature that you had not known before.

LEO: If you are in love and up till now you have not expressed your feelings, it probably would be a good time to do it. It is advisable to become aware and to control certain instinctive tendencies that could emerge. This day may turn out to be interesting in the end.

VIRGO: With Venus now in your tenth house, career matters need diplomatic handling. Be ready to combat your jealous streak. Your life in regard to love and feelings tends to be complicated now. You will be speaking of real a value that seems to have plenty of it around today.

LIBRA: Take a vacation or short break if you can now while Venus moves through your travel sector. There is a possibility of a small irritation or conflict about importance at work place. Be extra hard on yourself to accomplish more and get more.

SCORPIO: Venus is now positioned in the right house and thus is good for easy money coming in. Friends are eager to help you along your way. Now is the time to review possible latent issues.

SAGITTARIUS: Challenges can be expected. You don't have the courage to reach your goals. One of your ongoing challenges is to fight inflexibility and figure out others' perspectives. Avoid capricious, disrespectful reactions.

CAPRICORN: A short travel is probable, don't avoid it, as it will be beneficial. An increase of your personal energy level depends a great deal on your will. You will have to achieve simplicity in certain matters.

AQUARIUS: This day could lead to a certain vacuum sensation upon recapturing your daily responsibilities. Your inner expansion produces an agreeable sensation and enjoyment. The stars say it is important to think critically and stick to your guns.

PISCES: It may be time to find a new direction for the better of all. Voice your feelings and it might just move things along. Making hard decisions difficult but ferreting out intuitive revelation easy. You might need to do some favours to friends at some point.

we are happy to be that way," says Bobby Deol

Onkar Kulkarni

The Deols are known to wear their emotion on their sleeve, and they have never shied away from expressing themselves in the presence of their fans and the media. Last year saw the Deols enjoying a fabulous run at the theatres – both Sunny and Bobby's films (Gadar 2 and Animal) broke box office records, and papa Dharamji's romantic turn in Rocky Aur Rani Kii Prem Kahani melted hearts. Post the success, and what was called the return of Bobby Deol, the brothers-in-arms were seen at several events and TV shows getting teary-eyed while sharing stories about their family and individual journeys in cinema.

Papa lifts the energy of a room when he walks in: Shriya Pilgaonkar

Natasha Coutinho

Shriya Pilgaonkar still remembers how her father, Sachin Pilgaonkar, would sit by her bed when she was a child and tell stories as she fell asleep. "Each night, it was a new story with different characters. Papa is an amazing storyteller, and I think that is where my love for stories and performing comes from," says Sachin and Supriya Pilgaonkar's daughter.

While both her parents are actors, she didn't fully realise how well known they were till the time came for the school parent-teacher meetings. "Everyone would be excited to see them, and those moments made me realise the impact they had as actors on people's lives. At other times, they were my hard-working parents, who were very involved in my life," Shriya adds.

KARAN ON RISING STAR FEES:

'MANY ACTORS ARE NOT IN TOUCH WITH REALITY'

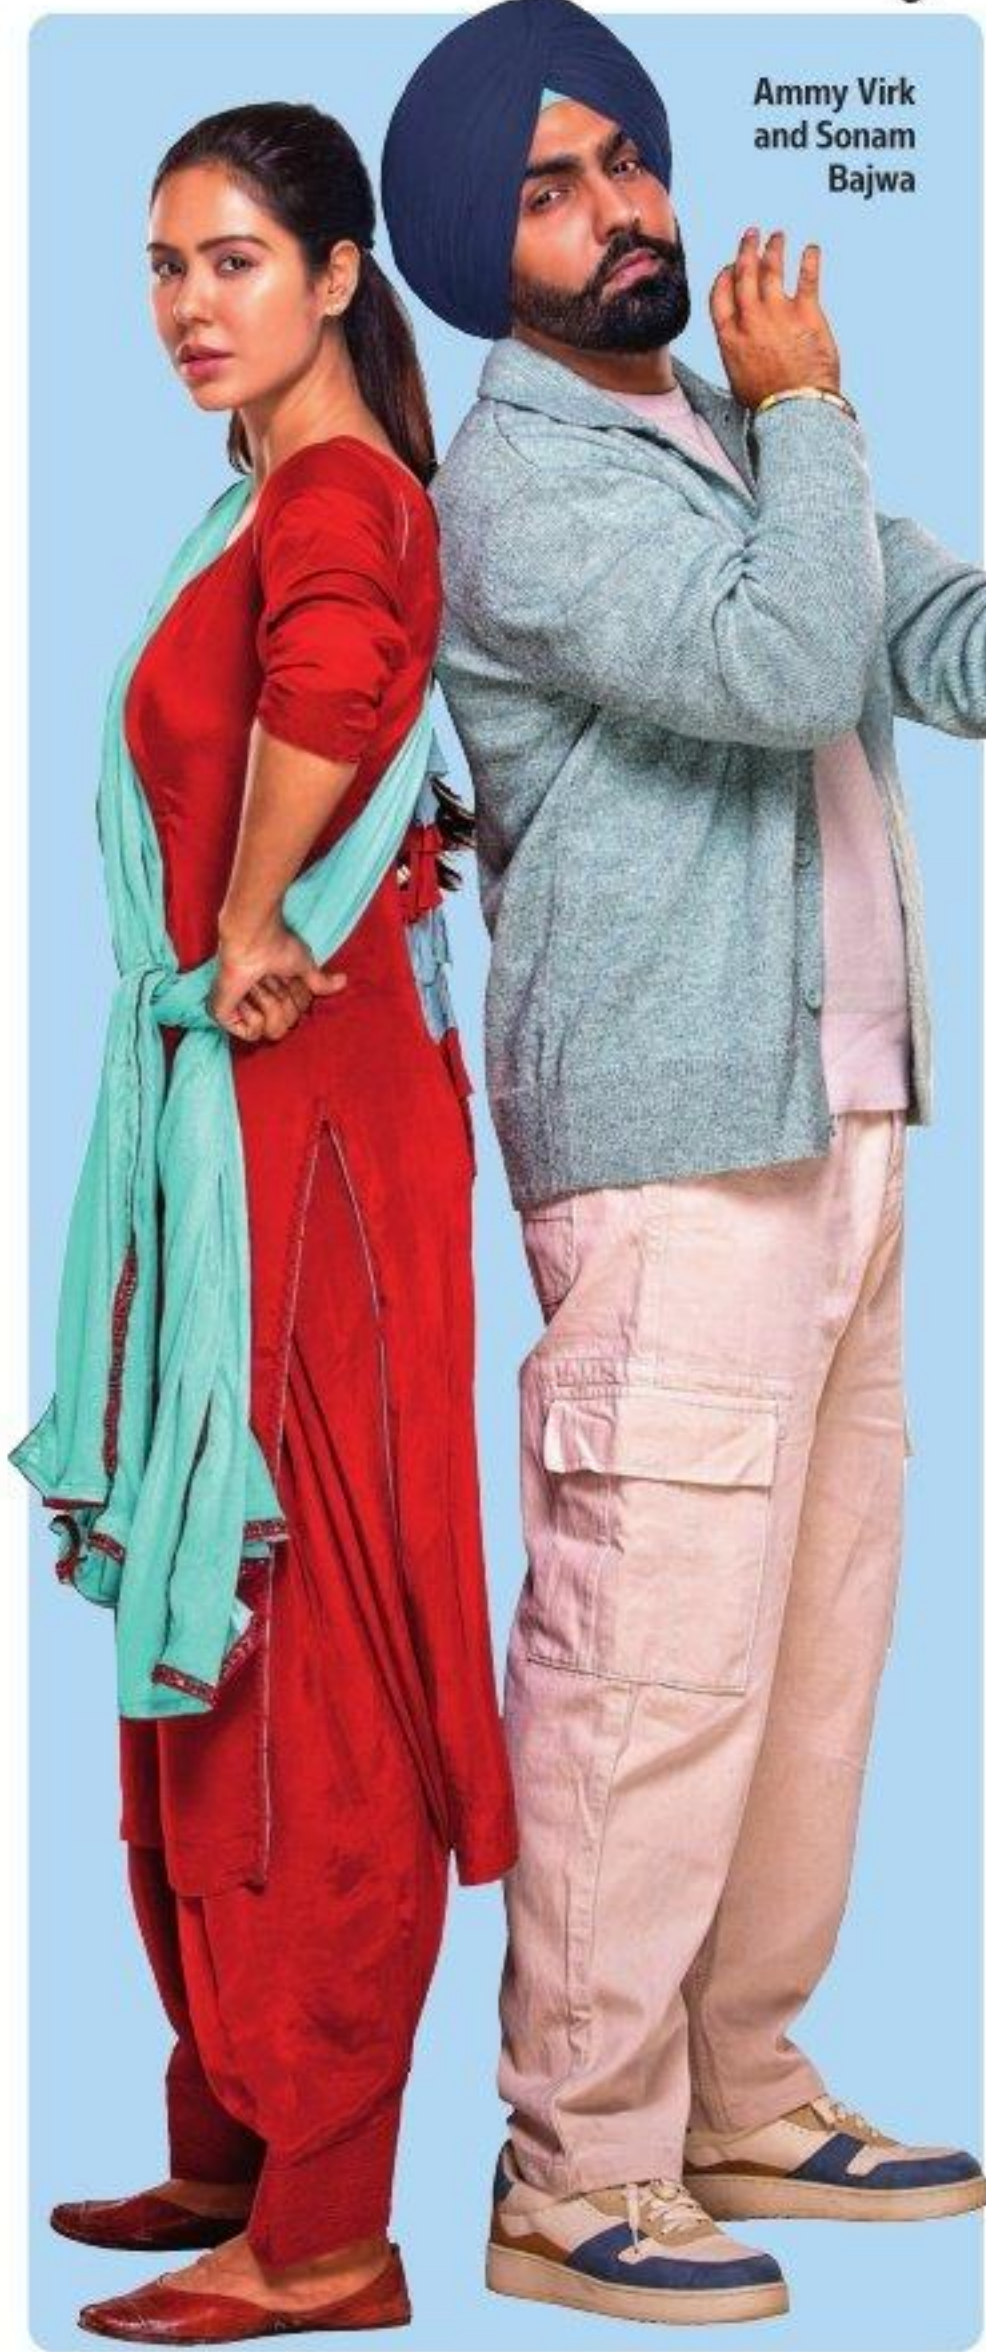

The remuneration of movie stars need to be looked at again and many of them are not in touch with reality, filmmaker Karan Johar said on Wednesday as he weighed in on the debate around the rising star fee in Bollywood. "The main remuneration of the actors has to be looked at again. It's very critical for all the actors to understand exactly how the times are, how the climate

The remuneration of the actors has to be looked at again. It's critical for all the actors to understand exactly how the times are of our movies are, and how difficult it is to maneuver through making a massive motion picture or a motion picture of any magnitude," Karan said at an event in Mumbai.

He added, "Every single movie star has to review what they are asking for, because many a times, there will be certain producers that will pay that money because they want to make that film, but it will eventually cause a lot of damage to the entire system and the ecosystem. The real issue is the cost. So they have to look at that and say that there can be backend deals or there can be percentages of profit. But every actor has to look within, because a lot of them are not really in touch with reality." PTI

Ammy Virk and Sonam Bajwa all set to entertain with Kudi Haryane Val Di

Ammy Virk and Sonam Bajwa

The buzz for Ammy Virk and Sonam Bajwa's upcoming Punjabi and Haryanvi cross-cultural film, Kudi Haryane Val Di, is reaching beyond traditional Punjabi audiences. Producer Pawan Gill says, "Right from the start of the film's marketing, Ammy & Sonam have promoted it across the country and left no stone unturned. A recent social media reel made by Sonam and Ammy has touched more than 28.2M views, showing the wide reaching appeal and engagement of the film's campaign."

The film is releasing in both Punjabi and Haryanvi. The film will have a balance of both languages. The upcoming film stars Yograj Singh, Yashpal Sharma, Ajay Hooda, Hardeep Gill, Honey Mattu, and Deedar Gill, among others. The film is a comedy romance entertainer set in the world of wrestling, where both Sonam and Ammy's families belong to wrestling backgrounds. The movie shows how the two meet and how their wrestling and cultural worlds collide. Pawan adds, "This will be the widest-releasing film starring both Ammy and Sonam across India, and essentially uniting the Jatt and Jaat people."

The film is releasing worldwide on June 14. It is written and directed by Rakesh Dhawan, who has written blockbuster hits like Honsla Rakh and Chal Mera Putt, and produced by Pawan Gill, Aman Gill, and Sunny Gill, who have produced the all-time entertainers Shadaa and Puaada before under their banner Ramara Films.

Add mulch, make pebble trays: Protect plants amid heatwaves

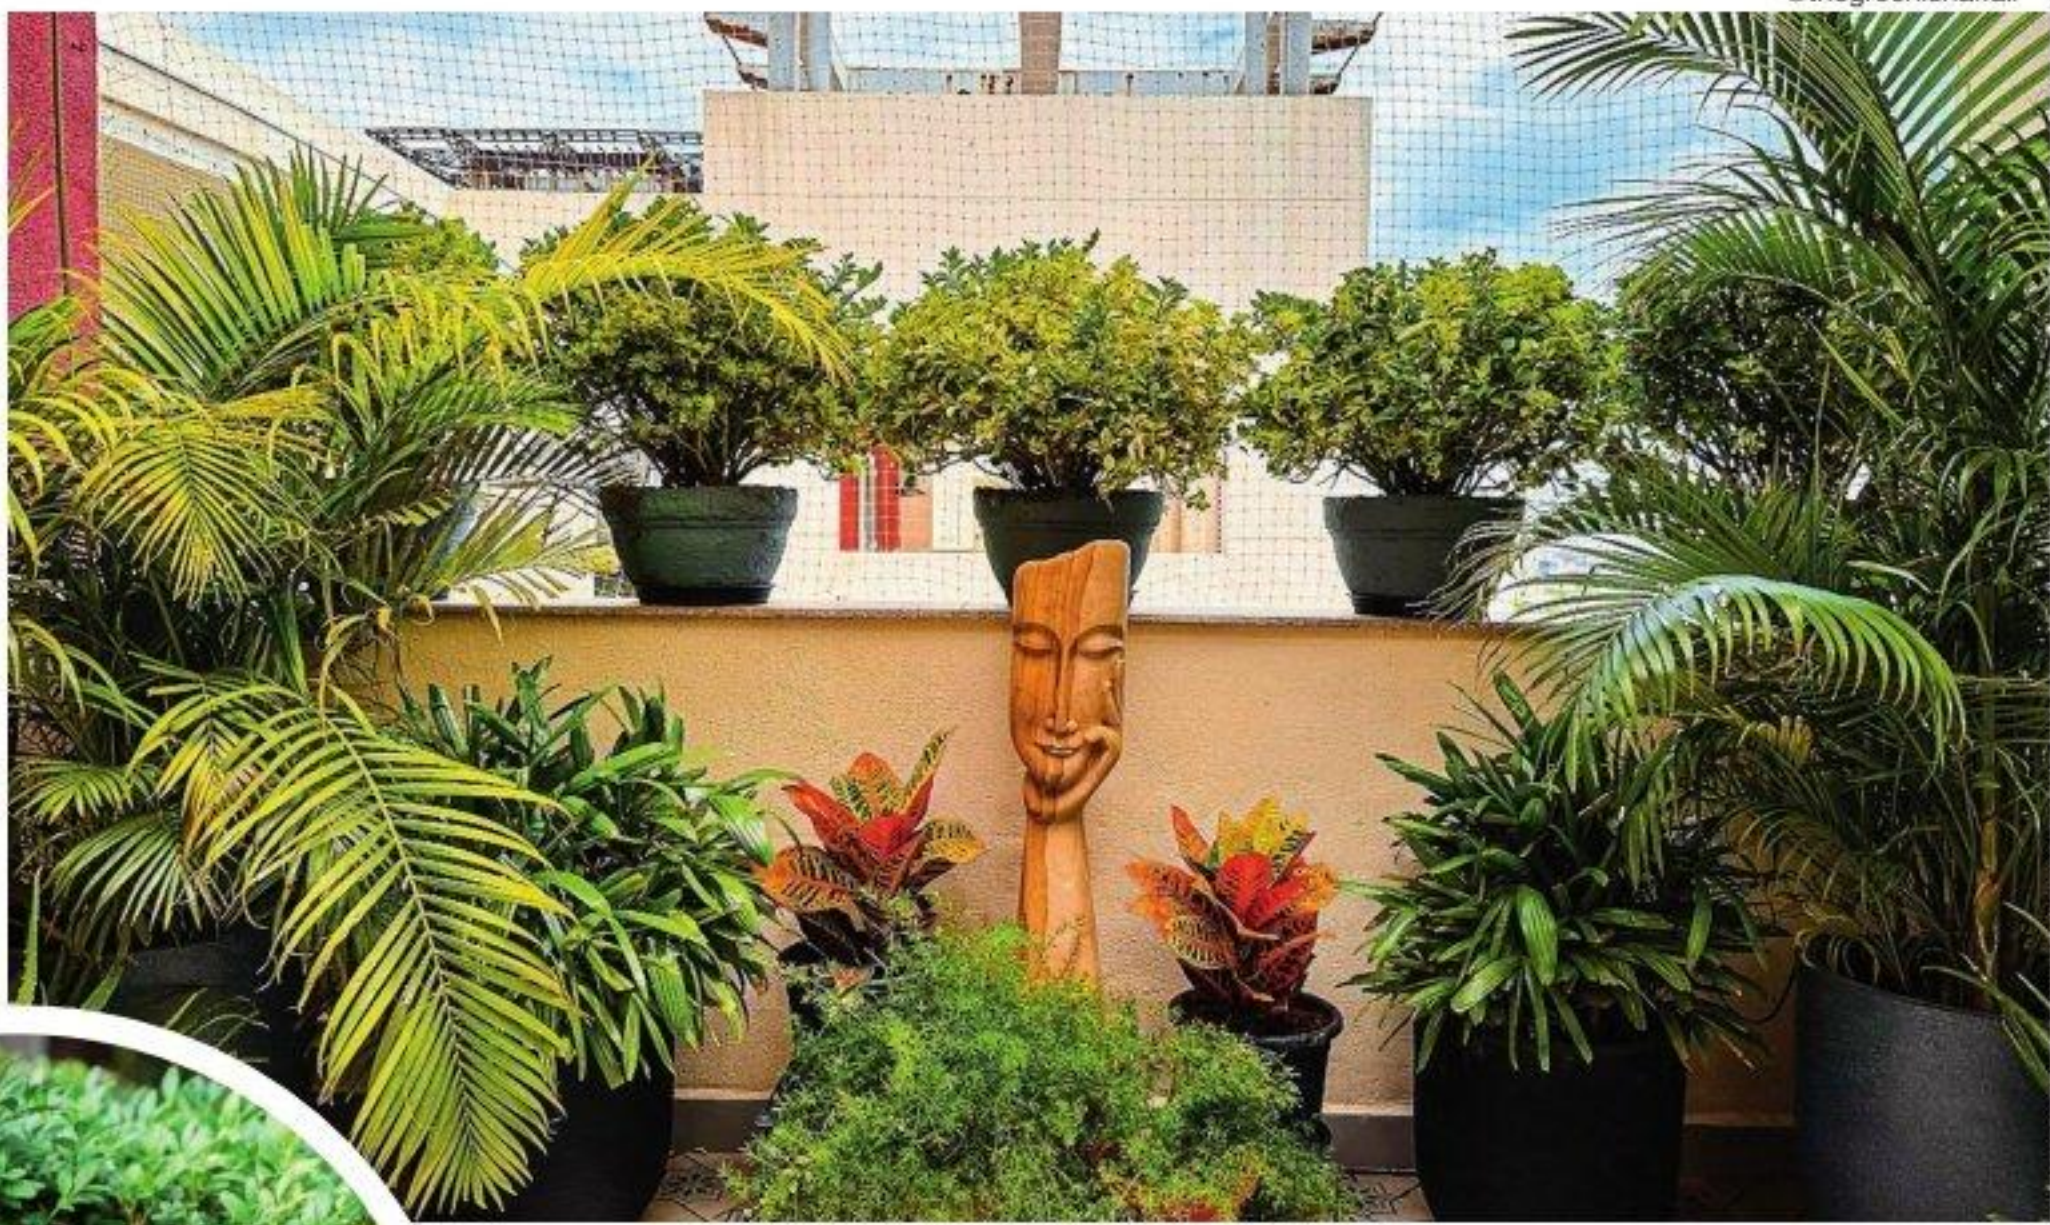

Shivika Manchanda

As the capital continues to battle the summer heat, like you and your pets, your plants and terrace gardens need extra care and attention too. We ask Delhi-based plant care experts for some tips.

'PLANTS MAY EXPERIENCE HEAT SHOCKS IN THIS WEATHER'

"The heatwave is harsh on everyone. The hot air burn up the leaves, making them crisp. Low humidity levels add to the stress. Tropical houseplants suffer the most because they thrive best in humid areas. The current situation is causing browning of leaves, pre-mature shedding of flowers and stunted fruit growth. Plants may experience heat shock and fail to survive," says Aditi Khattar, an urban landscape designer.

Annu Sharma, a plant expert, says, "This year, plants are either drying up or their leaves are getting burnt due to high temperatures and hot air. Just like humans, plants also experience garm-sard if water is given during the day, damaging their roots. Indoor plants are also affected due to the excessive use of air conditioners that lower the humidity in the room. I suggest plant parents make DIY pebble trays, fill them with water, and let their plants sit on them to enjoy much-required humidity."

@thegreenishaffair

As the temperatures soar, IMD predicts heatwaves in the coming days and humidity remains in the 15%-20% bracket

Leaves are getting scorched in Delhi summers even if they are kept in places that don't get direct sun. Plants like traveller's palms and ficus, which enjoy direct sun, are suffering too

— Sanchaita, plantscape designer and owner of a farm cafe

Tending tips

- Check your watering schedule - water your plants in the early morning hours or late evening to ensure absorption
- Mulch the soil with organic materials like husk and coco peat to help the soil retain moisture. You can add organic kitchen scrap, wood chips or dried neem leaves
- If your plants are getting sunburns, shift them to a shaded area
- If you have a sun-facing balcony or a terrace garden, use a green net providing 75% shade
- Keep humidity-loving plants huddled together. Keep plants on top of pebble trays filled with water or use affordable, electric humidifiers to help plants stay healthy
- Spray water on plants in the evenings
- Avoid repotting plants, until necessary. Plants take time to adjust after repotting and they may experience shock too, so it is not advised to repot plants during peak summers
- Prune dead branches regularly

Pebble trays help add humidity without giving plants 'wet feet'

It's important that the soil stays moist during summers

Is your cab rating the latest dating flex?

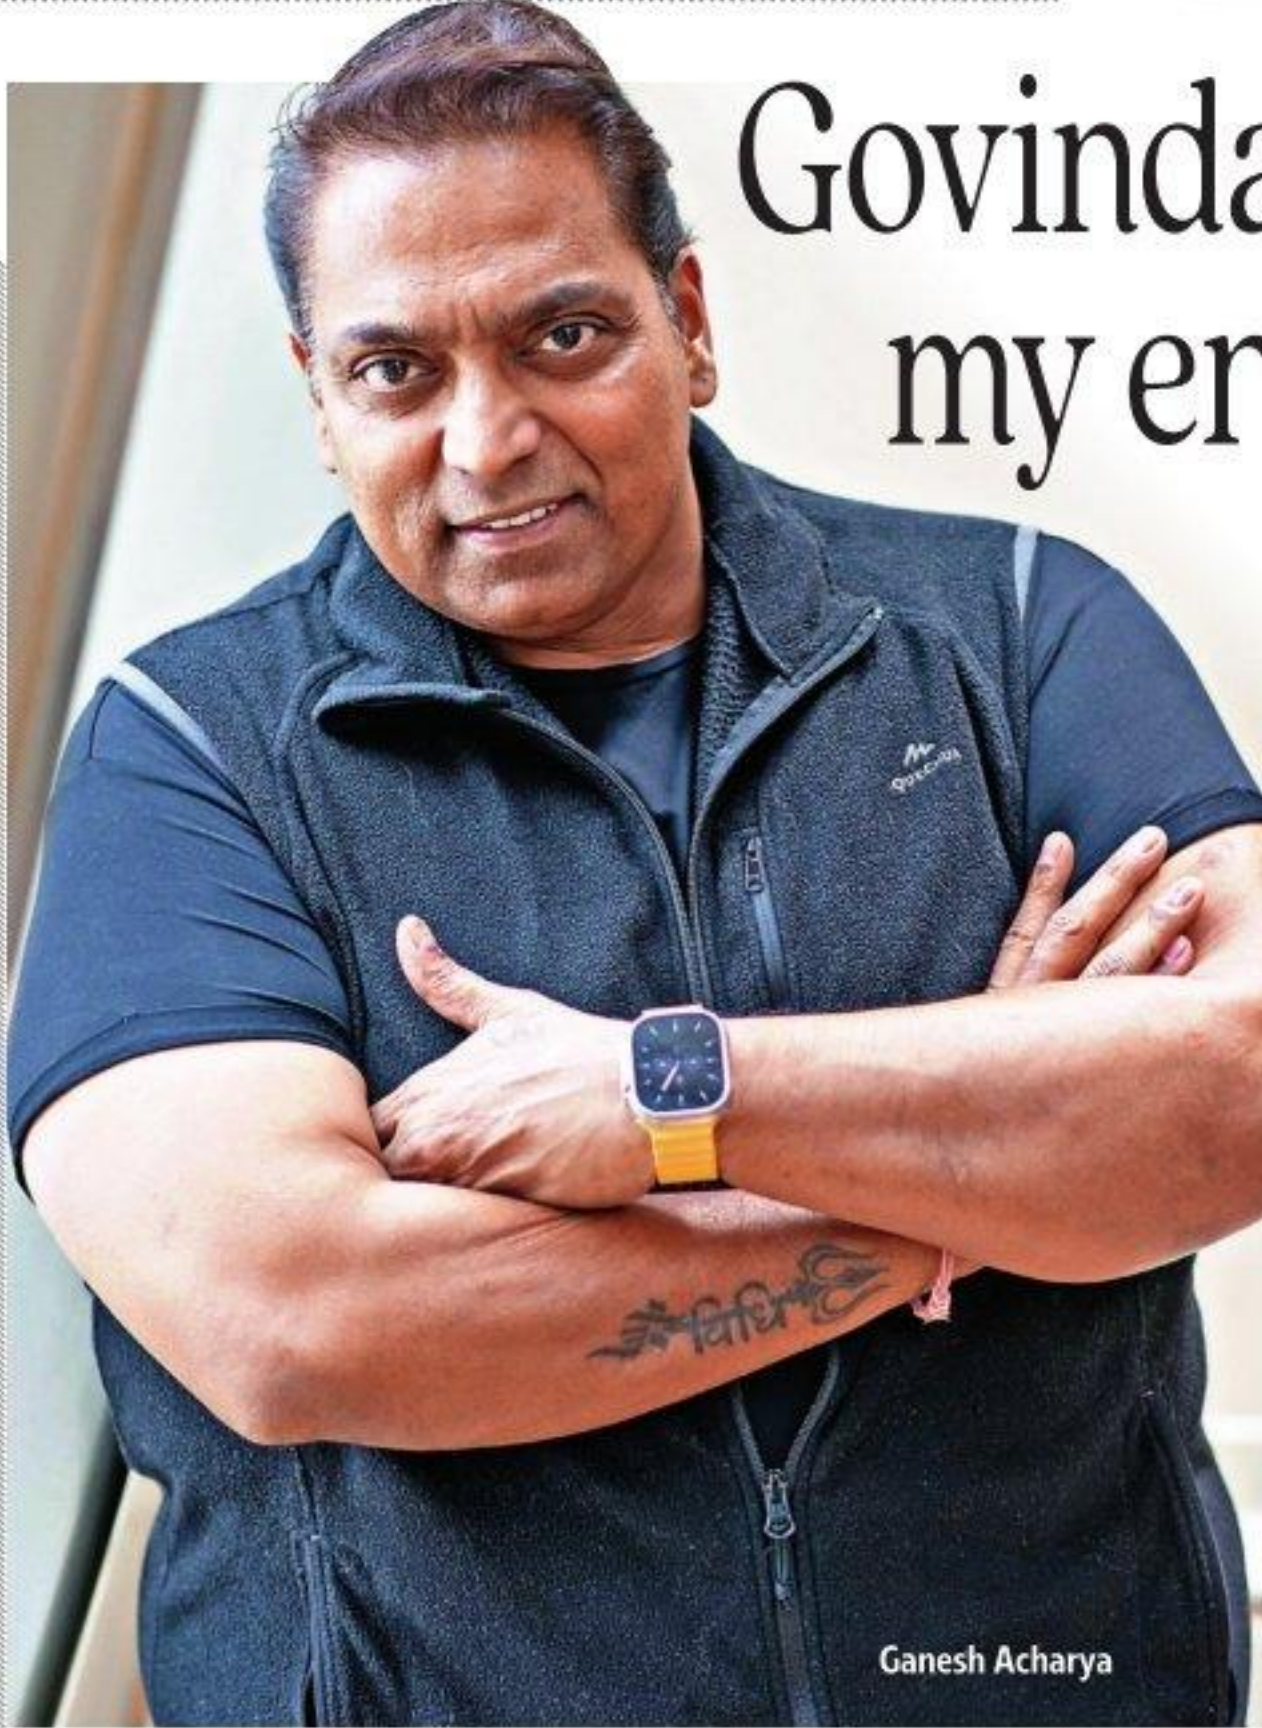

iStock

In the ever evolving landscape of modern dating, a new trend is emerging - the Uber rating flex. Social media is abuzz with discussions about how your Uber rating might be the newest indicator of dateability. More dating app users are now showcasing their high ratings in their bios, setting a new standard - if your rating is below 4.5, it might be seen as a red flag.

- “About me I am okay if you don't like mangoes but I AM NOT OKAY if your uber rating is below 4.5”
- “About me You are not a nice person if your Uber rating is less than 3.5, it is what it is..”
- “About me Have been supporting RCB since 2008, my current favorite actor is Babil Khan, My uber rating is 4.8, and I also know how to play guitar”

- Uber ratings have found a place in dating app bios
- “About me Please swipe left if your Uber Rating is less than 4.8!!”
- “About me My uber rating is 4.69 and it says a lot about me”

Govinda has my style, Ranveer my energy: Ganesh Acharya

Sundas Jawed

From Coolie No. 1 to What Jhumka?, Ganesh Acharya has blown away the Indian audience with his hook steps and energy for decades now. The choreographer spoke to us recently about his fitness journey, hook steps, his favourites and more.

'ART HAS NOTHING TO DO WITH BODY SHAPE OR SIZE'

"Be it martial arts or dance, art works on soul and not body strength. So weight is of no significance. But, one must try to stay fit for mental well-being and overall health," says Acharya. He adds, "Trolls are like a mirror, but dealing with them is not difficult. The only thing important is to keep yourself humble."

'KIDS JUMP FROM ONE TREND TO THE OTHER QUICKLY NOW'

Acharya reflected on how kids change their career choices and art forms without a second thought but according to him, indecisiveness is not the only reason behind this. "Yes, kids these days lose interest very easily, but it is also about lack of opportunities. Every end should have a new beginning, and we have to create those platforms for them," says the choreographer.

A still from Tattat Tattat

THE OG OF HOOK STEPS

Dance is less about steps and more about the energy an actor brings to it.

"One actor who does justice to the energy of my steps is Ranveer Singh but if I have to choose one whose dance style matches mine, it is Govinda, we have the same grace, masti and flow," says Acharya, adding, "We spontaneously shot many songs. Nowadays song shoots take up to 10 days but back then, hum log masti mein pura song ek din mein shoot kar lete the."

'Any movement is a step for me'

Ganesh says most of his iconic steps were inspired by random acts of people. "I am a creative person, any movement I see is a step for me. If a person is enjoying scratching their head, then a population of 140 crores will also enjoy it - that is how the Tattat Tattat step originated."

School Buzz

St Cecilia's Public School, Vikaspuri organised a social science exhibition 'Panoramic Mosaic - Glimpse Of India' showcasing the exhibits of students of classes VI to VIII.

All students from classes VI to VIII of the middle wing participated to display their innovative and creative exhibits in the exhibition in the form of models, charts, displays, presentations, visual delights and much more. The event witnessed the presence of school director principal, academic advisor (primary wing), coordinators, and parents. The school chairman and manager blessed the students. The inauguration programme commenced with the lighting of lamp by the dignitaries. The opening of the event was stupendous as the cultural presentations of folk dance, yoga and welcome song by music choir. The theme of the exhibition brought under a roof the varied states of India brought the cultural, topographic, social and traditional richness. The exhibition showcased the unity in diversity wherein the states of Arunachal Pradesh, Tamil Nadu, Kerala, Rajasthan, Gujarat, Punjab, Madhya Pradesh, West Bengal, Jammu, and Kashmir, etc. were depicted through various models and charts prepared by the students. Each classroom was transformed into a vibrant tableau meticulously depicting the essence of different states. The students greeted all guests in a traditional manner followed by the display of historic monuments, a visual treat of state dishes, echoes of regional music, famous architectural work, handicrafts, and much more.

St Cecilia's Public School, Vikaspuri

DILLI MEIN EID BAHUT ZYAADA AALISHAAN HOTI THI: AASIF

Shivika Manchanda

During his recent work trip to the capital, Aasif Sheikh's quick visit to Connaught Place proved to be a nostalgic one, as he spoke to us about his early years in Delhi, how celebrating Eid has always meant hosting multiple *daawat*s at home and more.

'EID PAR HUMARE YAHAN KHOOB RAUNAK HOTI HAI, DAAWAT HOTI HAI'

"On Eid, all my friends come to my house. Eid ke din humare yahan bahut hulchul aur khoob raunak hoti hai. Mere bachchon ke bhi dost aate hain. We feast the entire day. Our friends look forward to the Mughlai food in our home, so we make sure there's biryani. For my vegetarian friends, we have homemade dahi bhalle, poori with sabzis," he says.

Aasif enjoys cooking and prepares a special dish for the Eid spread at home or for friends on the sets. He adds, "I make yakhni pulav, nihari or Dilliwale style ka korma for Eid. There's a lot of food, saath mein gappe chalti hain, mazaa aata hai. For Eid al-Adha this year, we will definitely be making kebabs, biryani and keema-kaleji."

Aasif moved to Mumbai from Delhi in the late '80s. Remembering his Delhi days, he says, "Dilli mein Eid bahut aalishaan hoti thi. My mother used to make sheer khorma. She used to start preparing two days before Eid. *Daawat*on ka silsila toh tabse chala aa raha hai."

Aasif's yakhni pulav

INGREDIENTS

- Mulmul cloth potli
- Spices like cardamom, dhaniya, star anise, saunf
- Ginger juliennes
- Garlic cloves
- Green chillies
- Salt
- Shahi jeera
- Rice
- Mutton
- Ghee

RECIPE: Roast mutton in ghee. In a potli, mix cardamom, saunf, star anise, ginger, garlic, 1-2 green chillies, along with other khade masale. In a cauldron, put the roasted mutton, water and drop the potli. Bring it to a boil. Strain the mutton and save the stock (yakhni). Now, in the cauldron, pour ghee, add cumin and mutton - cook for 4-5mins. Then add rice, yakhni and salt (as per taste). Then, cover the lid and seal it with dough. Cook on medium flame for 35-40 mins and open the lid after 20mins. Serve it with burhani raita.

'Used to walk down to CP from Basant Lane everyday after dinner'

Sharing his Delhi memories, the Bhabhi Ji Ghar Par Hai! actor says, "I remember walking down to Connaught Place with my friends everyday after dinner to relish paan. We used have Nutty Buddy ice cream at Nirula's on some days. We were regulars there. On Sundays, we used to go to Janpath and have coffee at Depaul's. I used to play for hours in Central Park on the weekends. Iss area mein bahut waqt bitaya hai!"

The actor prefers eating light and shares, "Though I am particular about what I eat, I enjoy my food... Nothing beats Delhi food. Dilli ke khane mein jo lazzat hai, aroma hai, that's missing elsewhere. Delhi food has soul. Yahan ki dal-roti bhi bahut swaadisht lagti hai, yahan ka paani hi kuch aisa hai!"

While the actor still enjoys Delhi food, he says the city has changed quite a lot. "The city feels alien to me... I visited the Basant Lane area in Panchkuian Road two years back to visit my old house, lekin sab badal gaya hai!" he says.

Aasif also shared his favourite yakhni pulav recipe with us, a dish he learnt to make from his mother

Ameesha Patel wasn't the first choice for Kaho Naa... Pyaar Hai

While Ameesha Patel did a fabulous job in Kaho Naa... Pyaar Hai opposite Hrithik Roshan, she was not the first choice of Rakesh Roshan. Initially, Kareena Kapoor was cast to debut in the film but dropped out and made her debut in Refugee (2000).

BOBACHEE Global kitchen, bar, terrace cafe

Chef and entrepreneur Yuvraj Kohli counts legacy restaurants – multi-cuisine spaces that have been around for almost three generations – as personal favourites. These served as an inspiration for his new concept, Bobachee, an anglicised name for ba-warchi, an all-day diner that serves Indian and British inspired dishes from the pre and post-Partition era, popular picks from the 1980-90s and modern Asian and European treats for the new generation.

ATMOSPHERICS

In a steep real-estate market like Delhi where rentals have gone through the roof, owning the physical space for your restaurant is a huge help. The building where Bobachee is housed on South Extension main road used to be the Kohli family home and today, it is a sprawling commercial unit with an electronics store, a gym and now, this lavish new diner. You won't miss Bobachee's signage as you cross the bustling ring road. Indoors, it is an elaborate all-day diner with over 200-cover spread across two levels and alfresco seating. The terrace offers an unmatched view of the market and traffic passing by, while the inside is modern and tastefully done. White and beige theme dominates the colour palette with planters adding natural green hues across the outlet. The high ceiling and spacious seating add to the expansive look.

FOOD

Think of your favourite legacy family restaurants in Connaught Place or famous clubs of Delhi such as Gymkhana or Delhi Golf Club – where we've all loved to dine – to picture the menu offerings at Bobachee. Cream of tomato soup, Caesar salad, potato cutlets, sandwich,

MUST TRY: Chicken ala kiev, mutton ghee roast, pizza, Indian and Continental mains

One of the biggest all-day diners in South Ex fish and chips, chicken pepper steak, chicken jungle, maas and railway mutton curry are all there on the menu. With the reins in the hands of younger entrepreneurs, find contemporary favourites on the menu such as a full Oriental section with sushi (our picks: crunch vegetable ₹725 and prawn tempura ₹845) and dimsums (exotic vegetable and chilli oil crystal dumplings ₹535, chicken and bird eye chili gyoza ₹725 are worth a try). Also worth your while are Neapolitan pizza in thin crust (₹655 onwards), a selection of pasta (₹625 onwards) and Mezze platters (₹1,295 onwards). The cocktail and mocktail menu is decent and adds to the dining experience. The outlet is already a popular family dining spot in the area.

PLUS AND MINUS

The family owns and operates a few Moti Mahal Delux restaurants in the city and abroad. So, they are well-aware of what makes a family diner tick. Bobachee, though, is a whole new concept by their third generation.

Aamras and mango chutney among top global mango dishes

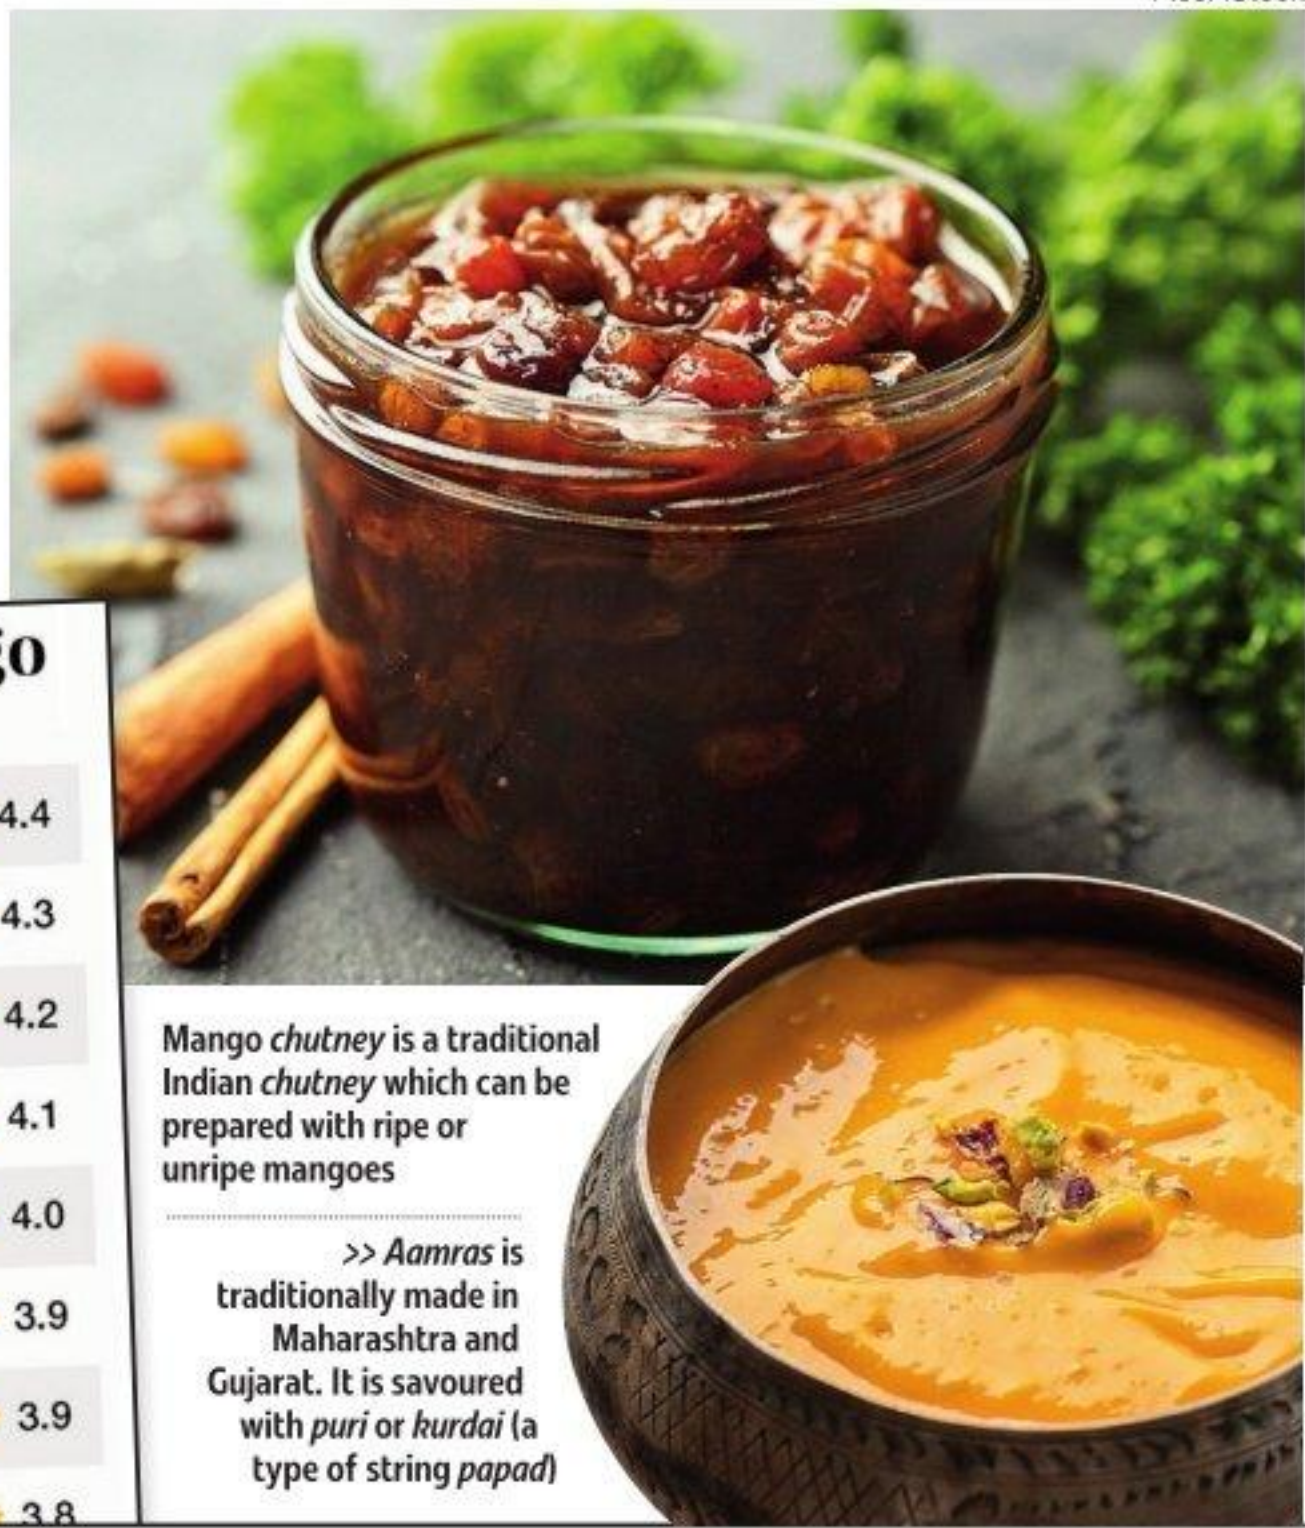

Pics: iStock

While the temperatures are soaring, one good thing about this season is the arrival of the king of fruits – mangoes.

From chatpata mango achaar to khatti meethi mango chutney, every household in the country savours the fruit in various forms. Many Indian mango-based recipes have now found a place on the 'Best Mango Dishes in the World' list by Taste Atlas.

While aamras topped the list, with mango chutney securing fifth place. Other Indian mango-based recipes that made it to the list include aam dal, amba, and mango kadhi, ranking 13th, 17th, and 26th, respectively.

TNN

Mango chutney is a traditional Indian chutney which can be prepared with ripe or unripe mangoes

>> Aamras is traditionally made in Maharashtra and Gujarat. It is savoured with puri or kurdai (a type of string padal)

Denmark's food agency has recalled three varieties of South Korean instant ramen noodles, warning consumers that its spice level might cause acute poisoning.

Three hot flavours of the noodles are being withdrawn: Buldak 3x Spicy & Hot Chicken, 2x Spicy & Hot Chicken, and Hot Chicken Stew. In an statement, the Danish body said to its citizens: "If you have the products, you should discard them or return them to the store where they were purchased." It also issued a warning for children, urging parents to contact the medical helpline if kids showed acute symptoms.

According to a news report, the company, Samyang Foods, stated that this is the first time its products have been recalled for being too hot. "We understand that the Danish food authority recalled the products, not because of a problem in their quality but because they were too spicy," the firm told BBC.

■ The company's products are popular in many countries. In 2023, their operating profit touched a record high of over $110 million (₹835 crore)
■ After the buldak carbonara ramen went viral on social media, the company witnessed its stock price skyrocket 70% in recent months

I've never played a negative role before, it is fun, says Manas Shah

Manas Shah, who is currently playing a negative role in Yeh Hai Chahatein, says that he is "enjoying the experience." The actor, who started his journey on TV with Hamari Durrani (2008) and made a comeback on the small screen last year, tells us, "I took a break from TV after Spy Bahu (2022) as I was busy shooting for a web series. When I took up Yeh Hai Chahatein initially, I was playing the parallel lead. When the character became a negative lead later, I was excited because I've never played such a role before. Playing a negative role is more fun."

He adds shares, "I don't think OTT has impacted TV viewership. TV has a loyal audience, and not every OTT show can be watched with the family. Good content works in any medium."

Talking about the high emo quotient in their family, Bobby says, "It's like when you see sportsmen playing in the stadium, when they win, they cry. I think when you achieve something big after so much hard work, what you see are tears of joy. It's a normal phenomenon that happens to anyone." He adds, "I think my whole family is extremely emotional. All Deol men cry. We are not embarrassed about it. It is an emotion that is just there. I think everybody cries, it's just that most don't talk about it. The Deols are emotional people."

'MY BROTHER AND MY DAD HAVE BEEN MY INSPIRATION WHEN IT COMES TO ACTION'

In his last release, Animal, Bobby Deol surprised everyone with his never-seen-before avatar as Abrar. The actor was seen doing some gory action with Ranbir Kapoor in the Sandeep Reddy Vanga directorial and won praise for his hot-headed performance. He will be soon seen doing some more action in an upcoming pan-India film. He says, "My brother and my dad have been my inspiration when it comes to action. I have always wanted to do films like my brother, but I wouldn't get those films because bhaiya was doing them (laughs)."

'I DON'T ENJOY BRAINLESS ACTION'

Bobby's favourite action film is the Sunny Deol-starrer Ghayal. "I loved Ghayal. I think an action film always works when there is an emotion behind it. I haven't really enjoyed brainless action. I mean, I did enjoy John Wick. It was brainless action, but there's something about Keanu Reeves that you just enjoy watching on screen," he shares.
