Unfiltered & uncensored:

SONAKSHI- ZAHEER SET THE BAR HIGH FOR LOW-KEY WEDDINGS

Sonakshi Sinha and Zaheer Iqbal's wedding has been a talking point for the elegance and confidence with which the couple broke several conventions at once. Right from the quirky invitation card, to their charmingly minimalistic look and the joyous afterparty, the uncensored wedding came as a refreshing break from the elaborate, templated affairs that have been the norm these days.

The bride wore red

The reception saw Sonakshi dressed in a red brocade Banarasi with chand-butia detailing. Armchair fashion police pointed out that the motifs were a nod to their inter-faith marriage, but it was the couple's unfiltered look that eventually stole the show. Sonakshi wore a streak of bright red sindoor, an emerald choker with a neat hairdo. Zaheer wore white - opting not to twin with the bride as is often the norm.

An intimate family affair

The morning was a cosy do, a registry attended by the couple's family and friends. Sonakshi wore an intricate ivory chikankari sari draped the usual way, a neat bun with gajra and a matching choker set. Instead of the default mehndi, she opted for spots of alta on her hands, that added a touch of auspicious red to the couple's white-on-white look. "With the blessings of both our families and both our gods... we are now man and wife," the couple wrote while sharing the photographs that evidently had been spared heavy airbrushing.

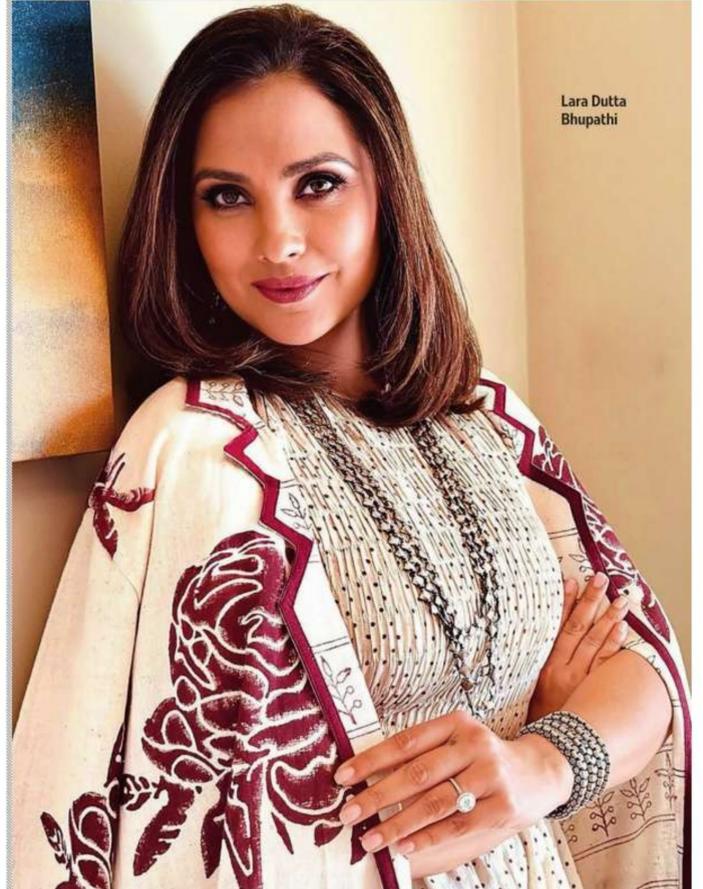

"On this very day, seven years back in each other's eyes, we saw love in its purest form and decided to hold on to it. Today that love has guided us through all the challenges and triumphs... leading up to this moment," Sonakshi wrote in a post

Stories on OTT are depicting real women of today, says Lara

Lara Dutta Bhupathi

Onkar Kulkarni

Unlike the theatrical medium where we still see far and few women-oriented projects, the digital medium has offers its audience a plethora of shows that are dominated by key female characters. Be it Aranyak starring Raveena Tandon, Aarya headlined by Sushmita Sen, Heer-amandi which focused on a group of women from a certain era, or Ranneeti: Balakot & Beyond, featuring Lara Dutta Bhupathi to name a few, all these shows have powerful women leading the way. Talking to us about what drew her to this

Today, you have incredible actresses like Neena Gupta and Ratna Pathak Shah, who are doing so well. These are some fabulous women, who are playing their age on screen medium, Lara Dutta Bhupathi says, "I think there is far more freedom within this medium and here, we are actually depicting real women of today. Otherwise, you were playing into a formula-driven form of storytelling."

If we owe anyone money, come and talk to us, nobody is running away, says Vashu Bhagnani

Producer Vashu Bhagnani addresses reports of non-payment of dues and selling off his office space to clear debts after failure of his recent films

Vashu Bhagnani; (inset) a still from Bade Miyan Chote Miyan produced by him

Onkar Kulkarni

Since the last few days, Pooja Entertainment, the production house run by Vashu Bhagnani and son Jacky Bhagnani, which has produced films like Bade Miyan Chote Miyan, Bell Bottom, Mission Raniganj and Ganapath among others, has been in the news over non-payment of dues. It was reported that Vashu sold off his seven-floor office space in Juhu, to pay off his Rs 250 crore debt. The same reports also stated that Vashu has laid off 80 per cent of his staff.

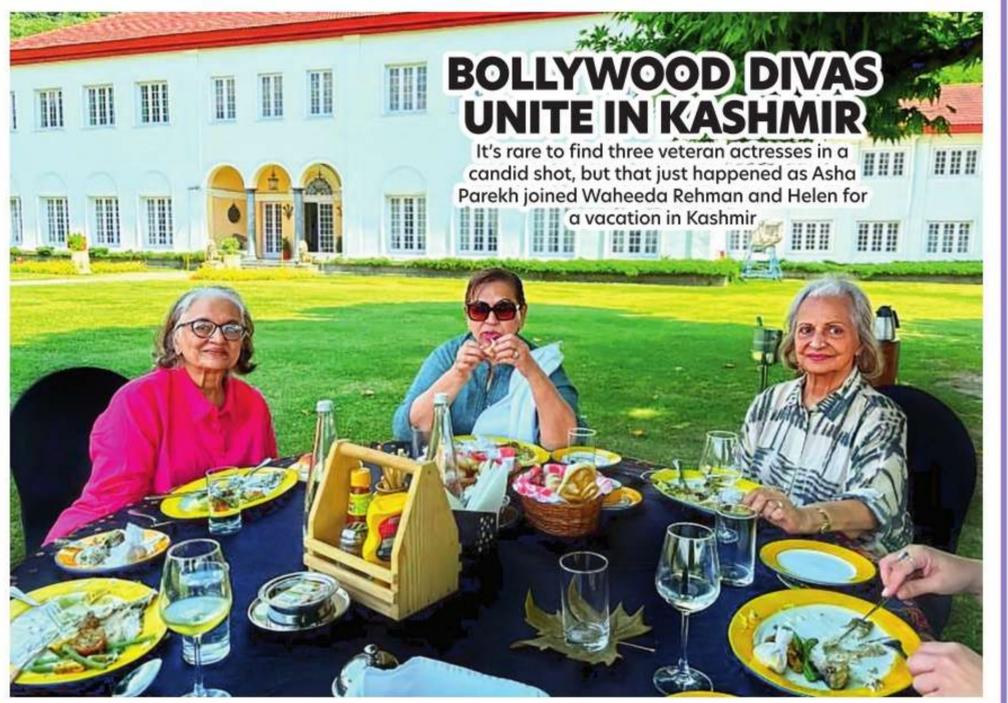

Talking to us from London, Vashu Bhagnani said, "The building (office space) that people are talking about hasn't been sold to anyone, it belongs to me even now. We are only redeveloping it into a tower that will house luxury homes. This was planned 1.5 years ago. I was waiting for Bade Miyan Chote Miyan to release after which we wanted to start the redevelopment."

While the office space is being redeveloped, his team now works out of their old office which he says has been "lucky" for him. Denying reports that also claim he has laid off 80 per cent of his staff, Vashu says, "We've had the same team working with us since 10 years, we haven't asked anyone to leave."

The building that people are talking about hasn't been sold to anyone. It still belongs to us; we are only redeveloping it into a tower that will house luxury homes. This was planned a year-and-a-half ago

Innovative platform for the property industry

UK-based entrepreneur Dilip Apte, originally from India, has unveiled an innovative social media platform called RealEstateTalk. After a successful 28-year career in the IT industry, Apte established RealEstateTalk, which is not just a property listing platform, but a community where buyers, sellers, estate agents, investors, home loan providers, interior designers, surveyors, and more can come together. Apte, who is a devotee of Lord Ganesha and has co-produced Ganesh Panchratna, a prayer sung by Anuradha Paudwal that will be launched soon, says, "This platform is comprehensive and user-friendly and will soon launch in India. It brings innovative solutions to one of the world's most dynamic real estate markets. One can join for free and gain access to tools and resources that can help them grow their business." He adds, "The platform is designed to simplify the complexities of the property market, making it easier for agents to connect with clients."

Ragi idli, nuts: Elevate your yoga diet

Shikha Shah

Diet is one of the most important pillars of yoga, and whether you practise asanas on a daily basis or not, eating right could add to the benefits of yoga. "While some yoga practitioners opt for a vegetarian or vegan diet, many follow a diet sans caffeine, alcohol, refined sugar and more. However, a yogic diet needn't always be restrictive. It could be delicious and fulfilling yet healthy," says health expert Narrotam Priya Das.

Consuming fresh food is key while leading a Sattvik lifestyle

Key features of Sattvik food

USE FRESH INGREDIENTS: Overcooked or stale food or use of onion and garlic, has no place in the Sattvik food lifestyle. Cook limited quantities of food at a given time to avoid wastage.

CONSUME FOODS RICH IN FIBRE: With a focus on organic, unpolished, and whole grain carbohydrates, Sattvik food choices involve the consumption of a lot of multi-grain recipes that are rich in fibre.

ENSURE BALANCED NUTRITION: Sattvik food helps to heal, and regain balance and health. Consume fruits, nuts, seeds, oils, vegetables, legumes, whole grains & spices, in the perfect combination.

Yoga and nutrition's association highlights the holistic approach to health. Techniques like intermittent fasting purify the mind and soul

-Manoj Kutteri, wellness expert

Take up fasting

Fasting for around 12 to 24 hours removes toxins from your body. Your digestive system needs a break and your body needs time to get rid of toxins. Yogis recommend fasting one day per week and it can be done in various ways - half a day, full day, no food and liquids or only water and fruit juices.

Have coconut water to stay hydrated

BEFORE PRACTICE

- Don't drink a lot of caffeine as it is dehydrating
- Eat a fruit 45 mins before class
- Do eat a snack 60-90 minutes before an evening class. Eat half a banana at least 30 minutes prior to a morning class
- If your stomach is full, you will have a hard time engaging your core and practising asanas. Make sure your last meal was at least an hour prior to class

Have a handful of nuts for energy before class or a fruity and nutty smoothie post yoga

AFTER PRACTICE

- Eat a snack or meal with a 3-to-1 ratio of carbohydrates to protein to help restore energy and repair muscles
- A whole grain that's high in protein, quinoa is a good choice for post-workout recovery
- Immediately after the practice is the right time to replace carbs in your muscle so they can replenish glycogen, preventing chronic fatigue, acute burnout, or injuries

Make the most out of a yoga routine

- Stay hydrated by sipping water, coconut water and herbal teas
- Consider your body type and constitution, and eat foods that support harmony. Serve reasonable servings and eat until you are 75-80% full
- Keep a regular eating pattern or schedule to promote steady blood sugar levels; it aids in controlling metabolism and digestion

Japanese man breaks world record with a 63-leaf clover

Yoshiharu Watanabe, from Japan, broke a Guinness World Record by growing a 63-leaf clover. The 45-year-old started cross-pollinating clovers at his Nasushiobara home in 2012 to break the world record. He used a combination of letting his clover patches pollinate naturally and hand-pollinating those with the most leaves. Watanabe's prize clover has 63 leaves, beating the previous record of 56.

HOW TO PLAY
Fill in the grid so that every horizontal row, every vertical column and every 3x3 box contains the digits 1-9, without repeating the numbers in the same row, column or box. You can't change the digits already given in the grid. Every puzzle has one solution.

HOW TO PLAY
1. A number may appear just once in each row or column. Eliminate repeat numbers by darkening cells. (see example)
2. Darkened cells must never be adjacent in a row or column.
3. Unmarked cells must create a single continuous area, undivided by darkened cells.
4. Every time you darken a cell, you can automatically circle its vertical and horizontal neighbours, which means they cannot be eliminated.
5. Any cell "sandwiched" between neighbours of the same value can be circled. (e.g. 6 4 6)
6. A "triple" is a special case of sandwich. Circle the centre cells, and darken the ends. (e.g. 6 6 6)

How many words of four or more letters can you make from the letters shown in today's puzzle? In making a word, a letter can be used as many times as it appears in the puzzle. Each word must contain the central letter. There should be at least one seven letter word. Plurals, foreign words and proper names are not allowed. British English Dictionary is used as reference.

DENNIS THE MENACE

LOOP THE LOOP

RULES

- Connect adjacent dots with vertical or horizontal lines, creating a single loop (Fig A).
- Crossovers or branches are not allowed (As shown by dotted lines in Fig B).
- Numbers in the puzzle indicate the number of lines that should surround it, while empty cells may be surrounded by any number of lines.
- You can't draw lines around zeroes.
- Each puzzle has just one unique solution.

HOW TO BEGIN:
Example (Fig A) - Begin with the zero next to 3. Since no lines can be drawn around zero, mark crosses around it, as shown. Now there is a cross in one space around 3. So we know the three lines of 3 can only be drawn in the remaining three spaces. Next, these lines can only be extended in one direction each. Continue, using the same logic.

HOW TO PLAY
Now arrange the letters in the circles to form the answer to the riddle or to fill in the missing word as indicated

See what the stars have in store for you - according to your moon sign.

ARIES: You are open-minded and enthusiastic. Something secretive is occurring and the past are re-activated. You may be up for some changes in your home. This is the right time to talk them through openly and honestly.

TAURUS: We are taught that persistence pays off, but there are times when it drives us insane and gets us nowhere. If you could see around the corner, you would know that it's your turn to embark on a course of action that will define the rest of your life. Once you step out of the box, the guidance will come.

GEMINI: Your creative side is showing. You have to beware of running away from problems. You in relationships, remember to encourage each other's personal and spiritual growth. You will have to make a decision immediately.

CANCER: There are opportunities for success. Present your views objectively and respect the beliefs of other people. You tend to err on the side of caution, you won't feel guilty about being extra vigilant now. You are concerned.

LEO: You will strive to create a harmonious environment. Avoid volunteering private information. You shell take charge and don't be afraid of learning the truth. You may experience great excitement which will intensify all that you love.

VIRGO: Monetary rewards are forthcoming. You must separate your feelings from what is right for you. Something not known will suddenly be conscious. You should try to stay objective. You relish in the intense joy of a job well done.

LIBRA: You may have many problems, insecurities or misunderstanding. Your ability to think logically may be suppressed. Appreciate support of colleagues. Inform everyone in your life of a change in personal plans. Try not to lose your cool, and make your point known.

SCORPIO: Interest in religion or mysticism is strong now. Your best efforts to express yourself are held by bosses who listen only to what they want to hear. Honour your commitments. Be conscious of the role you are playing now.

SAGITTARIUS: Sooner or later the need to transcend the mundaneness of things will overtake complacency and stir the pot. These things happen in cycles. You are focused on humanitarian needs; your progress will be enormous.

CAPRICORN: You may be tempted to overspend or indulge. Difficulty comes with emotional plunges. You should sort things out on a personal level in order to avoid serious problems. You may question the worth of a relationship or your career. Work towards greater acceptance and a reduction in judgmental attitudes.

AQUARIUS: You will find that you have plenty of love and understanding to give, and are equally able to do so. It looks like you will be in a very introspective frame of mind this month. You must bring more colour to your work-oriented life.

PISCES: Your analytical abilities are at a high point. You could find that you are appreciated or valued for your feelings or your ability to act and get things done. You have permission to express yourself in original ways. Sudden trips may take you by surprise; don't mix business with pleasure in the long run.

While the pre-wedding get-together of Sonakshi's closest friends was an informal and private affair, the reception saw a galaxy of stars at an upscale venue, who let go of formalities as they hugged, danced and blessed the couple. There was no celebrity DJ or rehearsed performances, but the mood was upbeat thanks to the dholak players who greeted the guests as they walked in. The couple even mingled freely with the paps, posing for groupies and making them very much a part of the celebrations. The night ended with Sonakshi changing into a more comfy but festive red anarkali, as she danced her heart out with Zaheer.

Lara says, "Today, you can project women who are manipulative, powerful, diabolical... all kinds of shades without resorting to just playing goody two shoes or playing the self-sacrificing woman on screen. For any actress who is worth her salt, this is a wonderful challenge and a blessing at the same time, to be relevant at this point and be able to portray characters like these." Lara is confident that the success of such shows will only inspire and encourage filmmakers to experiment with subjects like these for theatrical releases as well. She signs off saying, "Today, you have incredible actresses like Neena Gupta and Ratna Pathak Shah, who are performing so well on screen. Hits and flops are a part of the business: Vasu

Many reports stated that the debacle of the Akshay Kumar and Tiger Shroff starrer, Bade Miyan Chote Miyan was a final blow for his production house, which has seen a string of flops at the box office like Bell Bottom, Mission Raniganj and Ganapath in recent times. "We are in the film business, and hits and flops are a part of the business. I am already on to my next project. I am working on an animation series, which is going to be pitched on a mega scale," he says.

If there are people who claim that we owe them money, they should come forward and talk to us. Have they filed a case regarding this? If there is an issue, we will resolve it

Vasu Bhagnani

Ask him if his production house owes money to anyone as being reported and he says, "I have been in the business for the past 30 years. If there are people who claim that we owe them money, they should come forward and talk to us. Do they have proper contracts with Pooja Entertainment? Have they filed a case regarding this? There are so many ways to sort this rather than ranting on social media. If there is an issue, we will resolve it. Nobody is running away. Please come to my office, talk to us, give us your documents and give us 60 days to figure things out. I am not going to buckle under any pressure or blackmail. We also work with production companies in the UK. If they owe someone money, then people should reach out to them directly." He adds, "I am also into other businesses, but what I'm most passionate about is making movies and I will continue doing that."
