BOOK ADAPTATIONS
3 Idiots, Prime Video

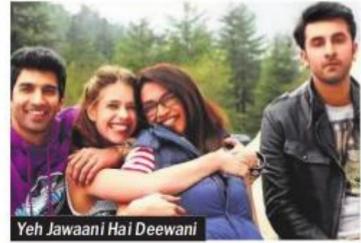

Rajkumar Hirani's masterpiece is the story of three strangers who land up in an engineering college and become a family. It is based on Chetan Bhagat's book, Five Point Someone. Starring Aamir Khan, R Madhavan and Sharman Joshi, the film explores the power of friendship. This remained the highest grossing film of 2000s.

Kai Po Che, Netflix

The film, marking Sushant Singh Rajput's debut on the silver screen, was based on the Chetan Bhagat novel The Three Mistakes of My Life. The book and the film, both depicted a tight bond between three friends through all kinds of troubles. Kai Po Che starred Amit Sadh and Rajkumar Rao alongside Rajput.

ALL-TIME HITS
Zindagi Na Milegi Dobara, Netflix & Prime Video

The three musketeers, Hrithik Roshan, Farhan Akhtar and Abhay Deol created such magic on screen that is still difficult to recreate. In fact, in true bestie fashion, Akhtar actually asked Deol to never sing again. It was because he wanted his voice to be unique in the song Senorita!

This Friendship Day, here are a few movies and audiobooks that capture the essence of this bond in its varied forms

HEAR IT OUT

THE THREE MISTAKES OF MY LIFE, Audible

Adapted for screen as the film Kai Po Che, this audiobook written by Chetan Bhagat has been loved by all — readers and viewers alike! This story is of a young boy who dreams of owning a business and opening a shop to accommodate his friend's passion for cricket. But the odds are stacked against them.

NO MAN IS AN ISLAND, Audible

No Man is an Island is a heart-warming collection of classic tales like The Woman on Platform No. 8, in which a mysterious stranger befriends a young boy, and The Crooked Tree, where a writer and a hawker form an unlikely bond. Ruskin Bond, in his simple yet poignant style, writes about the many shades of friendship and camaraderie in this audiobook.

Yeh Jawaani Hai Deewani, Netflix

This 2013 rom-com, marking Ayan Mukerji's second directorial venture, encapsulates love, friendship and every other emotion at its peak. The leads, Ranbir Kapoor, Deepika Padukone, Aditya Roy Kapoor and Kalki Koechlin, in preparation for the film, took a road trip from Chandigarh to Manali before the shoot began. Their camaraderie surely translated well on screen.

Dil Chahta Hai, Netflix

Starring Aamir Khan, Akshaye Khanna and Saif Ali Khan in the lead roles, this film marked the directorial debut of Farhan Akhtar. The film explored the lives of three best friends from college and how they navigated through the turbulence of adult life. It also starred Priety Zinta and Dimple Khanna in pivotal roles.

OLD IS GOLD
Jo Jeeta Wohi Sikander, Zee5

This coming-of-age film was inspired by the 1979 American film Breaking Away, and stars Aamir Khan, Ayesha Jhulka, Deepak Tijori and Pooja Bedi. Directed by Mansoor Khan, the film's iconic song Pehla Nasha marked the beginning of Farah Khan's career as a choreographer.

Yaarana, YouTube

This 1981 film, starring Amitabh Bachchan and Arjad Khan as childhood friends, gave us the national friendship anthem of India in the form of the song Tere Jaisa Yaar Kahan. While the director of the film was Rakesh Kumar, portions of the film, including the iconic song Saara Zamana, were directed by actor Kader Khan.
