Climate clock unveiled at Dispur College

STAFF REPORTER

GUWAHATI, Nov 1: The 48 Assam Naval Unit NCC of Dispur College organized a ceremonial inauguration of a climate clock at the Cafeteria block of the college on October 30.

The clock, gifted to the unit of the College by the YesEarth Youth Corps, was inaugurated by president of the Dispur College's governing body Dr Balendra Kumar Das and principal Dr Navajyoti Borah in the presence of Serlin Engjaipi and Sutibra Malakar, CTOs, 48 Assam Naval Unit NCC, Dispur College and the cadets of the unit.

The climate clock was installed as a continuous reminder to generate awareness among the students and youth to change their habits and become environmentally conscious and conscientious citizens with a dedicated commitment at achieving a sustainable future.

The inauguration of the climate clock marked the end of the month-long Swachhata Abhiyaan under the 'Swachhata Hi Sewa (SHS)' campaign organized by the unit from September 26 to October 25.
