

Navy Day-2024 celebrated at Dispur College

STAFF REPORTER

GUWAHATI, Dec 10: The 48 Assam Naval Unit NCC, Dispur College celebrated the Navy Day-2024 with a day-long programme at the Pratima Baruah Pandey auditorium of the college recently.

Titled 'Indian Navy Day-2024 Celebrations cum Felicitation of 1971 Indo-Pak War Veterans', the event was organized to honour the valour and commitment exhibited by the Indian Navy in the Indo-Pak War of 1971 with special reference to the Indian naval victory earned under 'Operation Trident' at the Port of Karachi on the night of December 4-5, 1971, a press release stated here on Thursday.

The event was attended by Brig Ajit Kumar Borah, VSM Group Commander of the Guwahati Group, NCC NER and Kamalesh Chandra Choudhury, VSM (Retired), former director, Directorate of Sainik Welfare, Government of Assam and honorary advisor to AIWTDS.

Principal Dr Navajyoti Borah delivered the welcome address, highlighting the significance of the Navy Day and the role of the NCC in moulding leadership and social values among the students.

Delivering the keynote address, Brig Borah said that the youths are the cornerstone in the Indian nation-building process towards a Viksit Bharat by 2047.

A documentary on the Operation Trident designed and made in the vernacular of Assamese by the 48 Assam Naval Unit NCC, Dispur College was released on the occasion as an initiative for the dissemination of the heroic actions of the Indian Navy as well as their service to the greater Indian nation and society into the community cognition.

Beacon, the annual newsletter of the 48 Assam Naval Unit NCC, Dispur College was also released.