Don't turn charges of treason into a political football

Shaping a presidential impeachment process to suit a specific faction's political interests sets a dangerous precedent. Was the treason charge merely bait to lure votes from ruling party...

Engineering must counter extremism, find balance and solutions

Amid the turmoil and crises facing Korea today, the role of engineering is clear: to challenge extremism of all kinds, seek balance, and offer solutions.

Who's the traitor here?

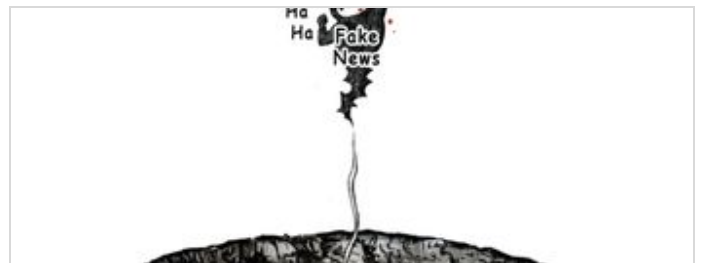

Loyalty is too often reduced to blind allegiance. PPP lawmakers who rushed to President Yoon's residence in a show of support, protecting their leader while allowing the judicial system to erod...
