My father taught me to fly kites: Shreyas

Onkar Kulkarni

Shreyas Talpade is immersed in the festive fervour. On Makar Sankranti, the actor reminisces about his childhood days of flying kites and his annual Sankranti rituals. "My father enjoyed flying kites and collecting unique ones. He taught me to fly kites and there was no way I could match up to him. Hum bachpan mein pech ladate thay aur agar kisi ki patang kat jaye, toh woh patang ko apne patang ke saath kaise connect karke lana hai woh bhi aata tha. We lived in a joint family, so all the cousins would go on the terrace and fly kites all day on Makar Sankranti," he says. Talking about how he celebrates the festival, he says, "Every year, my childhood friends and I try to meet in our old building to fly kites on this day. Everyone comes with their families, so it's like a big party with good food and kite flying."

My mom-in-law is hosting a function on Makar Sankranti: Shrenu Parikh

This will be our first (with actor-husband Akshay Mhatre) Sankranti after our wedding and so, my mom-in-law is hosting a haldi-kumkum function at home. Akshay and I will be wearing black outfits, and I will be wearing edible jewellery for this function. Basically, women will bless us, and delicious snacks will be served as well. After the function, we will tell everyone, "Til gur ghya goad goad bola." Akshay will leave for a shoot, so we won't be flying kites this year.

We speak to celebrities, who talk about their fond memories about Sankranti and how they're celebrating the festival today.

I miss Uttarayan in Vadodara: Manav Gohil

It has been a while since I celebrated Uttarayan in Vadodara, and I really miss it. The celebrations in Mumbai can't match the way I used to celebrate in Vadodara. Even Zahra (his daughter) loves celebrating in Vadodara and last year, she had gone there with her friend during the festival. In my younger years, I would start flying kites in December itself! Uttarayan used to be a never-ending party with friends, with food and music.

German sick leave sleuths investigate employees' case

Under German labour laws, employees on sick leave are entitled to their full salary for up to six weeks

German companies are increasingly hiring private detectives to investigate employees suspected of abusing sick leave. Detective agencies report record demand, handling over 1,200 cases annually – double the number from recent years.

As per a report by the South China Morning Post, absenteeism in Germany has spiked, with workers averaging 15.1 sick days in 2023, up from 11.1 in 2021, costing the economy an estimated 0.8% of GDP. Flexible sick leave policies introduced during the pandemic, such as phone consultations for medical certificates, are cited as a contributing factor. The policies enabled employees with mild symptoms to obtain sick leave certificates via phone consultations, a measure introduced during the pandemic. However, this has reportedly led to widespread misuse, with some employees exaggerating or fabricating symptoms to obtain sick leave.

Music evolves with every generation, but the classics are timeless: Ila Arun

@ilaarun

During a recent conversation, Ila Arun spoke to us about the fond memories she shared with Bappi Lahiri and Ustad Rashid Khan. She said, "Bappi da introduced me to Bengal. I remember how he took me to experience Durga Puja – what a spectacle that was! I also deeply miss Rashidji." She also spoke about timeless music and why cinema will always be larger than life.

'CLASSICS WILL ALWAYS REMAIN GOLDEN & TIMELESS' Ila's perspective on the evolution of music was refreshingly pragmatic. "Music evolves with every generation's taste," she said, adding, "But the classics? They'll always remain golden and timeless. Take Choli Ke Peeche

Choli Ke Peeche was a hit because of the orchestration 32 years ago, and today, a movie like Crew brings it back to life along with Vote For Ghaghra

Peeche. It was a hit because of the orchestration 32 years ago, and today, a movie like Crew brings it back to life along with Vote For Ghaghra. Timelessness finds its way to the present, doesn't it?"

— Eshna Bhattacharya

'Cinema will always be larger than life'

Talking about the rise of OTT platforms, Ila Arun said, "It has its pros and cons. The good part is that scripts are the stars, and age or looks don't matter as much. But it's also a threat to the magic of cinema halls. Watching a film in a theatre should never become obsolete. People watch shows on their phones. But cinema will always be larger than life."

LOOP THE LOOP

RULES

- Connect adjacent dots with vertical or horizontal lines, creating a single loop (Fig A).
- Crossovers or branches are not allowed (As shown by dotted lines in Fig B).
- Numbers in the puzzle indicate the number of lines that should surround it, while empty cells may be surrounded by any number of lines.
- You can't draw lines around zeroes.
- Each puzzle has just one unique solution.

HOW TO BEGIN:
Example (Fig A) - Begin with the zero next to 3. Since no lines can be drawn around zero, mark crosses around it, as shown. Now there is a cross in one space around 3. So we know the three lines of 3 can only be drawn in the remaining three spaces. Next, these lines can only be extended in one direction each. Continue, using the same logic.

Hints: Keep eliminating possibilities by marking crosses in spaces between dots where a line isn't possible, i.e., if you have already completed required lines or where a line extension may create a branch or cause a deadend (Fig B).

Kite-flying, haldi-kumkum: TV stars set for Makar Sankranti

I used to get my manjha made by an expert: Jay Soni

Whenever I am shooting, I take a day off for these two days. As a child, I lived in Navsari and used to get my manjha made by a specialist. Puri raat jaag ke minimum 40 kites ke kinya bandhte thay. Now I celebrate the festival in Mumbai and have continued my tradition of going to the terrace early in the morning, with speakers, kites and manjha. My Uttarayan morning starts with fafda-jalebi and khaman and then umbadiyu. Throughout the day, we keep munching on bor, chikki, mamra laddoo and til ke laddoo as energy sources to ensure that I shout 'lapet' the loudest (laughs).

I get very competitive during kite fights every year, but mujhe sabse zyada maza luti hui patang udane mein aata hai

I enjoy having ghughute on Makar Sankranti: Karuna Pandey

We celebrate Sankranti with ghughute, made from jaggery and wheat flour

Sankranti is a festival that reminds me of my childhood, more so because I don't get the chance to celebrate it properly now as I have been shooting for Pushpa Impossible. One of my fondest memories of Uttarayan was when I came to Ahmedabad with my co-actor Jayesh More. We flew kites and I experienced the craze for the festival there.

I visit Ahmedabad every year on Uttarayan: Manasi Parekh

For years, I have visited Ahmedabad to celebrate Uttarayan. We stay at my singer-friends Mausam and Malka's house in the old city. We spend all day flying kites, having chikkis and til ke laddoo, which we continue even on Vasi Uttarayan (January 15). I enjoy the spirit of the festival as the entire sky is filled with colourful kites. This year, I am shooting on both the days so I'll miss the festival, but my mother, and daughter Nirvi will celebrate it in Ahmedabad.

On the night before the festival, we visit Manek Chowk in Ahmedabad to relish the food there

I would help my friends make kites: Sai Tamhankar

While I hardly flew kites myself, I would help my friends make kites. We would dress up in traditional clothes and go door-to-door visiting neighbours and teachers to distribute tilguls. This year I am going to be working on Makar Sankranti, so I will go with my dabba of tilguls for my friends on set.

As I'm working on Makar Sankranti, I'll take my dabba of tilguls for my friends on set
